About ACAW

Adelaide Climate Action Week (ACAW) is South Australia's first community-led climate festival — a week-long celebration of climate action, innovation, and connection. Think Adelaide Nature Festival, but for climate.

Born from the momentum of SA's COP31 bid, ACAW brings together community, industry, and government across five action areas: Learn, Care, Use Wisely, Restore, and Be Ready. From grassroots conversations to flagship events, ACAW is designed to be accessible, ambitious, and genuinely South Australian.

3 — SHORT INTRODUCTION (50–70 WORDS / NEWSLETTER BLURB)

Adelaide Climate Action Week (ACAW) is South Australia's first community-led climate action festival, running 27 July to 2 August 2026. Community, industry and government will host their own events under one banner. Host an event or sign up for updates at acaw.org.au.

4 — MEDIUM PARAGRAPH (130 WORDS / PARTNER COMMS / WEBSITE)

Adelaide Climate Action Week (ACAW) is South Australia's first community-led climate action festival, running 27 July to 2 August 2026. An open-access platform where community, industry and government organise their own events under one banner, across five action areas — Learn, Care, Use Wisely, Restore, Be Ready.

Born from Adelaide's COP31 bid, ACAW is built with people, not for them. Anyone can host: a panel, workshop, site tour, exhibition, dinner, planting day. Got an idea? We'll help shape it.

How to get involved:

- Host an event: submit an EOI at acaw.org.au/get-involved (deadline 30 June 2026).
- Stay in the loop: sign up at acaw.org.au for programme news and updates.

The full programme launches mid-June. Show up with us.

5 — FULL DESCRIPTION (200 WORDS / MEDIA RELEASE / GRANT APPLICATIONS)

Adelaide Climate Action Week (ACAW) is South Australia's first community-led climate action festival, running 27 July to 2 August 2026. It's our state's answer to climate weeks held in New York, London, Paris and Sydney, done Adelaide's way.

ACAW is open-access. Community, industry, government, researchers, artists and First Nations leaders host their own events under one banner, across five action areas: Learn, Care, Use Wisely, Restore and Be Ready. Born from Adelaide's COP31 bid, the festival was built with people, not for them.

Events range from panels and workshops to site tours, climate-positive dinners, Country walks, circular fashion shows, planting days and community assemblies. If your idea is climate-aligned, it belongs here.

Three ways to get involved:

1. Host an event. A rough idea is enough. We'll help you work out the rest. Submit an EOI at acaw.org.au/get-involved (deadline 30 June 2026).
2. Sign up for updates. The full programme launches mid-June 2026. Subscribe at acaw.org.au to be first to see what's on.
3. Tell one person. Word of mouth is still how this grows.
