Dress Code For The Confirmation Mass

Ladies: Ladies may wear dresses or skirts of modest length and neckline, with sweaters or blouses. Pant suits may be worn with matching tops and bottoms (Sleeveless or thin strapped attire would not be appropriate). Overall, think about what would be appropriate to wear for a formal job interview.

Pro Tip: Heels are not recommended due to them echoing in the Cathedral and going up and down stairs.

Gentlemen: Dress pants and dress shirt, with a long tie and dress shoes are appropriate. Suit coats, although appropriate, are not mandatory. Overall, think about what would be appropriate to wear for a formal job interview.

Not Appropriate

Jeans, Casual Pants, Joggers, Casual Tops/Shirts, Casual Shoes (sneakers, flip flops, boat shoes, etc.) Athletic Wear, Tennis shoes/sneakers, Skin tight and revealing articles of clothing, Strapless articles of clothing.

If there is a financial burden impacting these requirements please speak to Ryan Adamson so that arrangements can be made.

Gentlemen, this is simply a visual example not necessarily what you have to buy.

Ladies, these are simply visual examples not necessarily what you have to buy.
