

YAVATMAL BRANCH – JULY ACTIVITIES

- 1) On 1st July, on the occasion of World Doctor's Day, AOP YAVATMAL organized a fun filled get together of all its members along with their families. It was a nicely attended dinner with kids and parents of Yavatmal pediatricians. All the members were felicitated for their contribution towards child health and their selfless service towards society.
- 2) On the occasion of World ORS Week, various activities were conducted by joint collaboration with different stakeholders of public health to create awareness about ORS and diarrheal diseases.
 - a) in collaboration with Dept of Pediatrics SVNGMC, awareness program with talk by different dignitaries was organized to sensitize patients and relatives in medical College.
 - b) In collaboration with nursing college Yavatmal, a drama skit was presented was presented by nursing students enacting importance and uses of ORS. It was well received and appreciated by common folks present.
 - c) ORS awareness program was organized at UHC athavadi bazar...all OPD patients and people living nearby were present for the event. Importance of ORS was emphasized by AOP YAVATMAL members.
 - d) Awareness program were also held at Joshi Bal rugnalay, and Mankar Bal rugnalay, two of the frequently visited private pediatric hospitals. Other AOP members visited the hospitals and emphasised importance of diarrheal diseases and ORS use.
- 3) CPR week celebration - on occasion of National CPR week 19-24 July, CPR awareness program was conducted at " Vivekananda chhatrawas, Yavatmal for students of 8th-12th std in collaboration with anesthesiology team. Dr Rupesh Bawane delivered a lecture and demonstrated the technique of CPR to students and staff of boarding school. This occasion was utilized to do general health checkup and monsoon awareness of students by other AOP members.

