A doc by Secret Gaygent 69

The SCP Foundation is a website dedicated to very dry descriptions of “creepy” things from the perspective of a fictional SCP Foundation. They have surprisingly good editing standards, and the main articles tend to be pretty long and dry. So this doc instead mostly focuses on SCPs that couldn't cut it for the website.

A Short Vocabulary

The SCP wiki uses a lot of jargon to refer to things, so I've included short definition of some.

Class D Personnel: Human test subjects.

MTF: Military task force.

Cognitohazard: A hazardous effect caused just by perceiving a SCP.

Object classes: SCPs are organized by classes that describe what they do/ difficulty in containment.

Object class safe: Safe and easy to contain.

Object class Euclid: Somewhat difficult or unreliable to contain.

Object class Keter: Very hard or unreliable to contain.

Object class Thaumiel: SCPs that are used to contain other SCPs.

Object class Apollyon: Nearly impossible or impossible to contain. Break containment routinely.

Object class Archon: SCPs that could be contained, but aren't due to having some positive effect.

About The SCP Foundation

Mankind in its present state has been around for a quarter of a million years, yet only the last 4,000 have been of any significance.

So, what did we do for nearly 250,000 years? We huddled in caves and around small fires, fearful of the things that we didn't understand. It was more than explaining why the sun came up, it was the mystery of enormous birds with heads of men and rocks that came to life. So we called them 'gods' and 'demons', begged them to spare us, and prayed for salvation.

In time, their numbers dwindled and ours rose. The world began to make more sense when there were fewer things to fear, yet the unexplained can never truly go away, as if the universe demands the absurd and impossible.

Mankind must not go back to hiding in fear. No one else will protect us, and we must stand up for ourselves.

While the rest of mankind dwells in the light, we must stand in the darkness to fight it, contain it, and shield it from the eyes of the public, so that others may live in a sane and normal world.

We secure. We contain. We protect.

These have been cut a decent amount cause they are very dry.

SCP-1208 - WaffleMaster 3000

Object Class: Safe

Special containment cut.

Description: SCP-1208 is a "Belgian" waffle iron, identical in every outward respect to a unit produced by the Conair Corporation in 2003, except that its power cable is fitted with a NEMA 14-30 connector rather than the grounded NEMA 5-20 connector provided with that model. When connected to a compatible 240V receptacle, the PTFE-coated cast-iron cooking surface rapidly warms to a surface temperature of 215 C, at which point the green indicator light on the front of the device illuminates. At this point, SCP-1208 may be used to prepare waffles using any standard batter without anomalous effect.

The anomalous behavior of SCP-1208 occurs when it has reached operating temperature and any solid material other than a batter or dough is placed between the two heating plates and the lid is closed. Regardless of the material so placed, applying torque of approximately 1.3 N·m to the handle of the device will successfully close the lid, displacing any material in excess of the volume of the cooking area (approximately 1400 cc) to the outer edge of the device. At this point, the red indicator lamp on the front of the device will illuminate, and the device will not open until three minutes have elapsed. (Forces of up to 106 N have proven insufficient to open the lid during this phase.) Copious amounts of steam are emitted from between the two plates during this process.

After three minutes, the red indicator lamp will darken, and the lid may be opened with minimal effort. Both cooking plates will be cool to the touch (approximately 15 C), and a "waffle" composed of the matter placed between the plates will be present. Deformation caused by this process is entirely topological: any substructures present in the source material remain intact but deformed. Incomplete sections of plant or animal tissue will remain alive for a short period of time, normally succumbing to necrosis due to lack of fluid circulation within 60 minutes. Animals small enough to fit completely within the volume of the cooking area may survive slightly longer, though feeding and respiratory difficulties due to their new body plan typically prove fatal in 1-3 days.

SCP-1006 - Spider Proletariat

Object Class: Safe

Special Containment Procedures: SCP-1006 is contained within a 213m radius in [REDACTED] National Park and should be checked biweekly. Civilian access is to be denied by means of an 'endangered species' cover story. Relocation of SCP-1006 is strongly discouraged due to the fragility of individual members and their sensitivity to habitat changes. Observation Post 45 has been set up within the containment zone and supplies SCP-1006 with various audiobook versions of communist and classical literature at SCP-1006's request, as well as black ink and poster board as necessary.

snip.

Description: SCP-1006 is an organized collective of an unknown species of the genus Araneus. Individual members have achieved sapience through unknown means and have established a rudimentary system of government resembling Marxist communism.

The original mass of SCP-1006 was discovered on 4/1/19██ by a hiking couple, who alerted park authorities. The Foundation took over after the discovery of written propaganda inside the central web, along with evidence of marked use of extremely simple tools, webs resembling faces of passersby, and simple attempts to block off the area via fallen branches.

SCP-1006 is a social community, with some members maintaining the web and others apparently chosen to maintain the agenda of the 'whole'. Once supplied a source of black ink and poster sheets, SCP-1006 will communicate with humans by creating signs written in English. These communications are largely centered around demands for the dismantling of western imperialism, a scathing critique of the bourgeoisie, and a request for less mosquito spraying in the surrounding area of the park.

The 'head' of the government is a large spider that resembles a wolf spider, taking up refuge in the largest tree of the cluster. Communication has been relayed with this spider, who views the outside world as 'something that belongs to us that is merely being maintained by the bourgeois humanoids.' It has given its name as 'Benevolent Leader.'

Cut boring section.

Addendum: The skeletal remains of a male human being were found in an area of the web, surrounded by dead insects and a variety of small shiny objects such as bottle caps and pebbles, along with the occasional pocket watch and bits of metal in apparent reverence. SCP-1006 does not allow the skeleton to be disturbed, but passive analysis indicates that the male died decades prior from a blunt trauma to the back of the head. Identification located near the body identifies him as a known political radical, reported missing from the nearby town of █████ █████, Texas, in 1976.

SCP-2061 - "Entire Local Family Chokes To Death On Single Calculator"

Special containment cut.

Description: SCP-2061 is a late-1970s Sharp ElsiMate EL-1185 electronic printing pocket calculator. SCP-2061 produces a compulsive effect in >99% of humans viewing it² in person, within a range of approximately 20 meters. This effect is nullified if there is any solid physical object between SCP-2061 and the viewer, even if the object is transparent. Windows, plastic bags and other clear objects have proven sufficient to prevent the manifestation of SCP-2061's effect.

The compulsive urge manifests as an irresistible desire to insert any object capable of performing user-facing electronic mathematical calculations into one's own oral cavity, as deeply as possible. This urge manifests regardless of the harm caused by its being acted upon, and a number of fatalities and severe tracheal injuries were caused by SCP-2061 prior to the object's transfer to SCP Foundation containment.

SCP-2061's cognitohazardous effect does not appear to manifest on any individuals who meet the following criteria:

- Criterion A: Individuals who have received payment from the Sharp Corporation or any of its subsidiaries at any point in their lives
- Criterion B: Individuals who have had unprotected sexual intercourse³ with those meeting Criterion A.

Individuals having sexual intercourse with those meeting Criterion B but not Criterion A do not have immunity from SCP-2061's effects, in four known instances.

Interviews with Sharp Corporation executives and investigation into corporate records has thus far unearthed no purposeful connection between Sharp and SCP-2061.

Recovery: SCP-2061 was initially contained by the Trenton Police Department, after a family of five died of asphyxiation from inserting SCP-2061 into their oral cavities in turn. Initial responding officer R. Allen was able to insert SCP-2061 into a sealed evidence bag, as she met Criteria B for SCP-2061 immunity. This prevented discovery of SCP-2061's anomalous effect until two investigators from the department died and one was hospitalized from its effects after removing SCP-2061 from its evidence bag, at which point the Foundation was notified.

Initial press reports from the Trenton area were censored by Local Task Force 609-Semkath ("Super Bowl Three"). An excerpt of a Trenton Times article from 1976 regarding the first known 2061 event is reproduced below:

SUICIDE PACT?

Entire Local Family Chokes To Death On Single Calculator

TRENTON — In an event local authorities are struggling to explain, a suburban family of five were found dead in their home today, all of apparently self-inflicted asphyxiation caused by choking on a single desk calculator.

James (45), Jennifer (39), Andy (15), Iris (9) and Joseph (4) Madeline were all found dead yesterday in their home.

"We, quite frankly, don't have an adequate explanation for these events," said Mercer County Coroner Reynold Macclenny, in a press conference yesterday. "All we ask is that the people of Mercer County keep the Madeline

2. Those able to be impacted by this compulsive urge are known as 2061-Susceptible individuals.

3. The requirements of “unprotected sexual intercourse” for the spread of SCP-2061 immunity are currently not fully understood, beyond direct bodily fluid contact. Further study on these requirements is currently proposed by Foundation demographic researchers.

SCP-2165 - Irredeemable

Object Class: None

Special Containment Procedures: SCP-2165 is to be left to its own devices. It is not to be acknowledged in any way outside of this reference. This reference is to be kept in an extra-temporal, extra-spatial location. All is as it has been. All is as it always was.

Description: SCP-2165 is irredeemable. It is unknown if SCP-2165 is a sapient entity, a non-sapient creature, an inanimate object or a metaphysical concept. This has been deemed irrelevant by containment personnel. SCP-2165 has performed an action or a series of actions that caused it to be considered beyond absolution by universal consensus. The exact nature of this action or actions has since been erased from causality by universal consensus. As such, neither SCP-2165 nor any information about it are ever acknowledged by any other being, object, force, or concept.

Addendum: There will be no forgiveness.

SCP-3313 - Poor Richard

Object Class: Keter

Special Containment Procedures: SCP-3313 is, once recovered, to be kept in a high value containment chamber on floor 46 of Site-88. This chamber should utilize at least 2 of the extant overlapping Scranton Reality Anchor fields on that floor to suppress the reality altering effects of SCP-3313. Individuals are not allowed to come into direct physical contact with SCP-3313.

Until recovered, communications from any national or private space program's orbital assets are to be reviewed by Mobile Task Force Kappa-12 ("The French Courtiers") for information regarding SCP-3313. Any information recovered in this manner is to be utilized in locating and recovering SCP-3313.

SCP-3313-1 is, once recovered, to be kept in a standard humanoid containment cell at Site-19.

Description: SCP-3313 is the severed penis of Benjamin Franklin (hereby referred to as SCP-3313-1). Despite having no biological support system, SCP-3313 appears resistant to both damage and decay. When in physical contact with any individual, SCP-3313 provides that individual with reality altering capabilities roughly analogous with that of a Class II reality altering entity.

Snipped boring section.

SCP-3313 was recovered as part of a previously unknown collection of SCP-3313-1's personal effects from his time in Paris, France. The object's anomalous properties were immediately discovered once the object itself was identified. Foundation DNA testing confirmed the object belonged to either a close relative of SCP-3313-1 or SCP-3313-1 itself. Incident Omega 54, however, has provided enough context to conclude that SCP-3313 was in fact SCP-3313-1's penis.

Incident Omega 54 Documentation Relating to SCP-3313

On July 3rd 2017, the Chaos Insurgency completed a ritual to resurrect several of the United States' founding fathers in an effort to complete a coup of the US Government. Included in this ritual were George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, Alexander Hamilton, and SCP-3313-1.

Current dossiers recovered by the SCP Foundation indicate that in addition to various anomalous properties possessed by these 5 individuals, SCP-3313-1 possessed no penis. Further information on these anomalous properties may be found in Document Omega 54-J.

All 5 individuals escaped Chaos Insurgency custody by July 6th, and are currently at large. Prior to this incident, SCP-3313 was kept in a standard containment chamber in the low value containment division of Site-88. On July 9th, SCP-3313-1 gained access to Site-88's low value containment division and was allowed to come into contact with SCP-3313.

The methods by which this was achieved are still unknown and audio records of the incident are not available. 4 seconds after physical contact was achieved SCP-3313 began to generate thrust in a similar manner to that of a chemical rocket engine and both SCP-3313 and SCP-3313-1 escaped the site upwards. This escape damaged all 8 of the above floors, though SCP-3313-1 appears to have avoided physical harm.

Current calculations indicate that SCP-3313 and SCP-3313-1's acceleration was insufficient to gain true escape velocity, though the parabola will take several months to complete. The projected landing location is currently unknown.

Alien Porn Site

Summary: "What is this thing you humans call Love? We have nothing like it on my world. Please teach me."

Dr Hush

+ Informal description

SCP-XXXX is a video sharing website. It was available for several months in the past, then abruptly disappeared. The Foundation keeps an archive copy.

The site contains streamable videos of between 1 and 30 minutes, showing insectoid creatures (collectively designated SCP-XXXX-1) engaged in manipulation of hairlike protrusions on their own or each other's upper thoraxes, often appearing to result in the eventual expulsion of a dark red fluid from short tubes below their hindmost legs.

The site is written in an unknown pictographic language, but each video appears to have a title, description, and what looks like a rating system. The HTML coding is a variant on version 4.3.

SCP-XXXX-1 exist in three morphologically distinct forms, presumably corresponding to three genders. Videos are catalogued with a colour code, corresponding to those with a single insect, those with multiple insects of the same gender, and those with multiple insects of mixed genders. In some videos of this last category, black pellets are also sometimes expelled.

At first it was thought the videos showed sexual activity, but now the Foundation believes that although the images function as pornography, they depict a different biological function - most likely excretion.

+ Explanation if needed

Living creatures ingest, digest, excrete, grow, respond to stimuli, and reproduce. Humans have a mass of drives and emotions relating to the latter, but what if an alien species felt the same way about a different biological function?

They have three genders, but not for reproduction. They need all three for "full" excretion, producing the black pellets, but any other permutation can give a partial version. How they reproduce is unknown.

What do you think? Developable?

(account deleted)

You will want to get opinions from longer standing members before you make a final decision, but here are my thoughts:

It's just gross. It's not that it's a bad concept, but it doesn't have a story. It seems like it's there just to make you cringe and go "WTF!?" Now, in my opinion, that isn't always bad, but it can't just be shock factor and no story behind it. How to put a story behind it? No idea. But that's my two cents. Best of luck to you, as you are clearly a creative person! :)

Djoric

My immediate knee-jerk reaction is "get your fucking scat fetish smut off the site".

Granted, this is not fair to you, and mostly fueled by that special paranoia that can only be achieved after far, far too much time on the internet. I'll give you the benefit of the doubt here, but you see how this can become an issue.

This would be an exceedingly difficult scip to pull off (plus, we already have Factory Porn), and the number of people I could see successfully doing it is a very, very short list.

Dr. Hush

@Americium241:

"It's just gross"

What exactly is gross about it?

- Animals pooping? SCP-2850 is an plane whose guns fire guano. I don't recall anyone complaining about that.
- Them taking pleasure over it?
- Them watching it for pleasure?

I'm aware that some people would be shocked, but I'm not interested in shocking people - just in constructing a thought experiment.

@Djoric

"My immediate knee-jerk reaction is "get your fucking scat fetish smut off the site""

You're worried that something which occupies the cultural space of sexuality for a non-human civilisation...might be sexy to humans? And you suspect that I'm trying to exploit that?

Truly, there's no skip so bizarre as what people believe about each other.

@Zyn

"There are a lot of evolutionary/physiological/hormonal reasons for why humans attribute copulation to love and often feelings of closeness."

We bond through shared pleasure - eating, listening to music, telling stories and yes sex. A lot of these pleasures are connected with biological (or evolutionary) necessity, but there's no reason why copulation must have an elevated position among them.

I chose the function of excretion simply because it's far easier to describe than (say) digestion. A species that could watch digestion as it occurred would be even more alien.

Demidragon Symbiote Parts

Summary: Asking this thread to be deleted. Going to redo this entirely.

It's to make scabies out of humans. This is almost a draft, but this is my first time writing here. The sandbox is my mind.

I trimmed your thread summary above, since it was taking up a lot of space on the forum listing. Try to keep thread descriptions and titles under 7 lines so you don't visually crowd out other people's threads. ~Zyn

This comes in four variants. Male, female, trans male, trans female. It is like a fursuit mixed with Iron Man's armor, but it works like it's part of your own body. There's the head, upper front chest, wings, crotch, tail, hands, and feet. It is purely anthro based, as it goes on humans. Each part can be used alone, but all pieces makes the pieces grow the rest of the dragon. If breeding occurs with them on, the child will have the corresponding body parts as regular parts.

Two hours of prolonged use makes it a permanent, creates a new set, and any trace of the human parts underneath even in the DNA is removed, as it is part of them.

Trans male and trans female variant feel real as much as the male and female variant.

It is only the classic European dragon type, but a mix of Orca and dragon was found in basement of [REDACTED] and had to be eliminated for illegal creation of an unauthorized laws similar to the rules on an art profile.

The diet is the same as a human, but raw meats are safer to eat with the head bonded with the chest and crotch also bonded.

It is a color to the victim user's liking, with details also to liking.

There is no breath weapon. It's a symbiote, not an authentic dragon spite what dragons declared.

It feeds off dead skin cells, body oil and waste. After two hours it's a normal part of the body.

If more than one of the same part is used, it changes and attaches to a unused spot. A full set with a 11th part used results in it aggressively finding a host with success unless humanity is of one human with less than 10 parts, then it creates and fuses to a host from scratch of the opposite gender. It cannot be stopped.

To be like armor, one of the 10 pieces must be missing or it will create the rest of the skin, making an inevitable fusion.

It is sentient and intelligent, explaining how it can tailor to the host.

No mental changes unless user puts it on an animal, it changes user to opposite gender.

Containment: on mannequins in a room, with either a Level 2 clearance or a fully read signed waiver.

Dr Bright is not allowed to wear it even though the dragon parts like immortals.

Immortals are instantly bonded with perfection, even self proclaimed immortals. Because lore.

Testing: After the arrest of [REDACTED], researchers tried to modify parts, but could only make hybrids but never anything other than half dragon. One researcher tried it on animals but the parts aggressively bonded with the researcher and made him female spite it was the male variant, instant bonding. Attempts to incorrectly putting them on results with the parts changing to the right part.

As a courtesy to our readers on mobile devices, please collapse long posts. ~Zyn

SCP- 6046

Object class: Euclid

Special Containment Procedures:

SCP-6046 is contained in a 3m x 5m x 6m typical bedroom in research sector-████ at Site-42.

SCP-6046 is pretty cooperative with the foundation personnel and does not cause any harm towards anything.

In order to facilitate the containment of SCP-6046, It must have three meals a day and an available bathroom. If requested, it can be given access to electronic devices, but, only with the ability to produce music. Cameras in its containment are unauthorized.

Physical Description:

SCP-6046 is a humanoid male entity, 15 years of age, around the height of 174 cm, which has the appearance of a typical angel¹. It doesn't feel pain when in contact with fire and does not seem to take any damages. When damage is inflicted, he regenerates almost instantly, giving the power of immortality. It appears to be wearing a white shirt without sleeves and a dandelion yellow sash across his torso, coming from the right shoulder and finishing at the waistline. It wears white shorts, stopping right above the knee. Long boots of a pearl white colour stop right in the middle of the shins. It also has one arm bandana on each arms, vertically striped with dandelion yellow lines.

The clothes of SCP-6046 are removable and destroyable but are untouched when in contact with fire.

SCP-6046 can talk in more than one language, such as French² and English, although, it prefers English.

SCP-6046 has large feathered wings, which are inflammable, only in a state of rage or extreme pain. The size of each of them is approximately 240 cm. The wings are a daisy white and are considered, as soft as a kitten. SCP-6046 has a pair of halos³ floating on top of its head, they are a buttermilk yellow colour and are as bright as a table lamp. SCP-6036 has short golden blond hair and completely bumblebee yellow glowing eyes.⁴

Mental description:

SCP-6046 is shy when in presence of older individuals, but feels indifferent with younger individuals. It has anxiety, although, it doesn't show symptoms of it. It hates the presence of cameras in its containment or in bathrooms and destroys them without hesitation. But does not feel hatred towards cameras anywhere else.

Discovery:

SCP-6046 was discovered in downtown Montreal, Quebec, Canada, after flying at █████ km/h. Authorities were called to contain it.

Class: Euclid

Special Containment Procedures:

1. SCP-6036 is to be kept in a humanoid cell at Site-19
2. SCP-6036 is to be kept in its containment cell, unless for an interview or testing.
3. SCP-6036 is to be approached with a calm tone and no weapons displayed to avoid SCP-6036-2 becoming aggressive.
4. SCP-6036 is to be monitored by cameras at all times, to see SCP-6036-1's interaction with SCP-6036-2, and recorded in case SCP-6036-2 shows itself.
5. If containment breach occurs, do not approach SCP-6036-1 with force, and do not provoke SCP-6036-2. SCP-6036-2 will follow SCP-6036-1 back to its cell.

Description: SCP-6036 is two entities, 6036-1, and 6036-2. 6036-1 is a humanoid entity, formally known as 'Nova', appears to be a normal female human, age is 22, standing at about 1.9 meters, but has a special bond with 6036-2. 6036-2, who 6036-1 calls 'Delta' is a Solid shadowy figure, who when visible, has black smoke coming off of it, it has the shape of a human, standing at about also, 1.9 meters, no eyes can be seen on the figure, but it does appear to have humanoid features, like hair and ears. 6036-2 can choose to show itself to entities, but strangely enough will always appear on cameras. 6036-2 can become a creature, resembling the shape of a black wolf, with glowing purple eyes, sharp teeth, the size of the creature can vary. 6036-2 can also, when in the form of a creature, be able to stand upright like a human, while having the body of the wolf, its arms can be longer, allowing it to run faster. It is theorized that 6036-2 can slow down time, but more testing must be done to confirm this. It has been theorized that it can communicate through the mind by staring into a persons eyes, but research must also be done. 6036-2 seems to only be able to show itself if the shadow from 6026-1 is present. 6036-2 appears to show itself whenever an entity tries to physically or fatally harm 6036-1 intentionally, causing 6036-2 to enter its beast form and attack. It appears to do whatever it can to protect 6036-1. 6036-2 will never harm 6036-1. 6036-1 will talk to 6036-2, but the conversation is normally one sided, with no other voice being heard. The first time the SCP Foundation came into contact with SCP-6036 was on November 5th, [REDACTED]. Body cam footage from an Agent in disguise as an officer goes as shown:

FOOTAGE BEGINS

A group of officers can be seen running to a man with a gun firing at citizens in a public park, victims on the ground bleeding from being shot

"FREEZE!!!" One of the cops yell, aiming their guns at the man

The man pulls the trigger at a 22 year old woman, the woman's back facing the sun, her shadow laying in front of her, the woman winces and waits for the impact, knowing it was over

Suddenly, the camera camera glitches, as if the footage was slowed down, a massive beast, in the shape of a black wolf with smoke coming off of it, leaps out of the shadow faster than the slowed down footage

The beast hits the bullet flying at the woman with its paw, stopping the bullet's momentum and the bullet falling to the ground

The beast suddenly lunges at the man, who looked at the officers, the beast pinning the man to the ground, the man screamed as the beast bit his arm, nearly biting it off

The beast stared at his eyes, and the man begins to shout at it, pushing it away with his other arm

"NO!!! PLEASE!!! STOP!!!" He yelled

The woman stood up in horror, confused but aware of what was happening

"DELTA!!! STOP!" She shouted

The officers began firing at the wolf, the bullets were going into the beast, but it seemed focused on the man, it didn't flinch at the shots

Suddenly the beast stood up, the bullets falling out of its body, it bit at the man's other arm one last time before running back to the woman, jumping into the shadow and vanishing from sight

The woman panicked and runs out of sight as the officers shout for her

FOOTAGE ENDS

Witnesses were given amnestics and all footage of this event has been confiscated. The foundation made a cover up saying that the man was attacked by a scared dog he tried to approach, who attacked him. The people who were shot survived due to being cared for immediately.

A mobile Task Force was dispatched to find SCP-6036. They were told to approach without force and in a kind manner after reviewing the footage during the first encounter. They found them in [REDACTED], they were in the woods near 6036-1's home. The Task Force saw SCP-6036-1 talking, saying "Delta, why!? Why did you do that!?" 6036-1 then sighed and said "Thank you though." She stood and appeared to stare at an invisible entity. The task force lowered their weapons, and the head of the task force stepped forward, "Excuse me?" He said kindly. 6036-1 turned to see the task force, she stepped back scared. "Don't be afraid, we're here to help." He said kindly. "Wh-What?" She said, suddenly behind 6036-1, 6036-2 appeared, showing itself in its humanoid form. The Task Force raised their weapons, but the head of the team said "Hold fire." 6036-1 turned to see 6036-2, even more scared, 6036-2 looked at 6036-1. "We're here to get both of you to a safe place, all we ask is that you come with us, and listen to what we request." He said calmly. "O-Okay..." 6036-1 slowly walking up to them, 6036-2 directly behind, as if 6036-2 was a bodyguard.

On the way to site-19, SCP-6036-1 was quiet, 6036-2 close to 6036-1, once they arrived, SCP-6036 was placed in a humanoid containment cell, awaiting confrontation...

SCP-9346 - Fate Deciding Futon of Fortune

SCP-946Q, also called the Fate Deciding Futon of Fortune (or FDFF) is what appears to be an average in size black futon. Texture or feel of the material is unknown due to safety procedures and protocols.

SCP-946Q is reported to having a luring aura once in an approximately 10-15 foot radius of it. It releases a smell which, as reported by our one (1) known survivor, Reginald VonGon, during an interview, is "Something I cannot describe, man. Its like, you think it's one thing, but one step later, its something completely different. One step its lilac, next it's vinegar. That's what really drew me in".

Once seated on the futon, you are suddenly transported to any other futon in the world. Only one known survivor has been identified, however we are constantly looking out for any new information on its victims.

We have little information on how it operates, and its intentions behind it. Its difficult to collect any data, due to it's easy luring in of humans, and its severe danger when in contact. We are unsure of the amount of them, although only one has been reported. If any more are found, do not go near it, and immediately contact us at [REDACTED].

Scp 6057

Object Class: Euclid

Special Containment Procedures: SCP-6057-A and SCP-6057-B (nicknamed "the couple") is not contained but are being tracked. Once the couple are to get contained they always find a way to breach containment, leading to their escape of site-06-3. If caught they are to be contained immediately, while the outside of the cell is protected by two security officers. Research is to be done on how the couple are escaping site-06-3 and how to stop it. If any personnel are to see SCP-6057-A and SCP-6057-B breaching containment they are to neutralize them and to not interact with them. If a rap battle is currently going on it's better to not join in, rap battles could lead to death by some anomalous powers the couple have.

Description: SCP-6057 are those of two people dating, they are midgets of nearly the same size, their current size as of now is unknown, they share the same age of 19. SCP-6057-A seems to be a rapper with blue hair, it can summon microphones out of nowhere as well of the hand of the opponent. If any contact is made with SCP-6057-A it will one way or the other lead to a rap battle, it can dodge any attacks if it tries during a rap battle, if getting shot at, the person shooting can't move positions until they stop shooting.

SCP-6057-B is a brunette that usually sits on top of something during the rap battle is happening, if no way to sit is found it will simply stand. It is unknown if it is human or not, but it can not get hurt during any rap battles that are happening, if trying to get attacked or nearly dying it does not show fear in any way. Music can still be produced without any speakers nearby, it is unknown if this music comes out of thin air or if it is the anomaly itself.

Addendum 6057-1: Near noon at the date ████████ SCP-6057-A and SCP-6057-B found a way into site-19, during this time SCP-682 has breached containment trying to escape the facility. SCP-6057-A looked like he was trying to challenge SCP-682 into a rap battle, SCP-682 accepted the challenge. SCP-682 decided to go back to their cell, after the anomaly won the rap battle, it is unknown why it did this but research is being made currently. Research as well being made on how the couple have possibly entered site-19 and how has these anomalous powers.

Special Containment Procedures: SCP-5614 is to be kept in a standard humanoid containment cell at all times. Cameras are to be kept at all 4 corners of the room, if cameras are to malfunction, they are to be replaced immediately. If an instance of SCP-5614-3 is to occur, personnel are to enter and remove it with caution, as any disturbances to the object will cause it to burst.

Description: SCP-5614 appears to be a white, humanoid male dressed in black and a leather jacket, it has sunglasses which cannot be seen through by humans. They have short black hair, with a bright red stripe through a section of it. On their right eye appears to be a faint blue scar. Research has shown that its body's internal structure consist of only their brain, lungs, and a set or veins and arteries relating to a normal human, though this seems to be their bone structure.

Occasionally, it has been seen that these pulsate a bright blue. Another strange part of their body is what seems to be an object in their chest, which seems to be the shape of a diamond. This mirrors on their back, which then meets together to form an hourglass like-structure in them. The veins and arteries seems to sprout all from that structure in their chest.

SCP-5614 was first discovered when many power outages were repeatedly reported in a highly populated area, which seemed to revolve around them. What got the foundations attention was the outages effect on electrical systems: electrical objects were becoming overloaded to the point they would break and unable to be fixed, which was a danger to the public. SCP-5614 went into custody willingly, without hesitation or struggle.

SCP-5614 appears to be able to predict the future and recall moments in the past they never were at in exact detail, but also claims they do not like to do this, only doing this to 'prove they are worth their time'. SCP-5614 also has been recorded to be able to make objects made of pure electricity, which they can use as weapons, or other objects. These are known as SCP-5614-2. SCP-5614 has also created an object known as SCP-5614-3. These are spherical objects which contain a smaller blue core inside, with a pale blue outer sphere. This object seems to levitate above any object above or below it. Upon direct contact with this object, the orb will occasionally burst into a shockwave, powerful enough to kill a human being, also it has a possibility of electrocuting beings within the area. SCP-5614 has been known to make one once a month.

SCP: 0909 - the shadow that stretch's

Author: scp -0909 - the shadow that stretch's

About

My Rating

What it Likes

It love's to entertain other people and SCP's it was even seen to interact with the hard to destroy reptile with out being hurt by it so all together it love's making friends it also appears to have a best friend who is SCP - 3666 or Cero the statue.

What it Dislikes

It hates not being able to make other people or thing's happy to the point that it will kill just for entertainment for it's self

Personality

It has a rather chill personality as long as it has something to do like entertain other's or it's self but if deprived of something to do it will go on a rampage killing what ever it find's boring and not interesting

SCP: 0909 (or the shadow that stretch's) is a rather safe SCP as long as it has something to do, it is known for the fact that it is always smiling no matter what, and it's rubber hose body structure is able to stretch and grow it's body part's, it use's this ability to play and interact with it's so called "friend's" it can also use this ability to attack it's target.

Class and reasoning for that class

SCP: 0909 is Euclid class for the fact that it has the ability to come out of any shadow that is in it's area, however it can not use this ability in broad daylight as darkness and light don't mix, and that is why it's so hard to contain it is also extremely dangerous as talked about earlier.

Voice and characteristics

It seems that SCP: 0909 can talk and does so in a fluent old cartoon like manner that's why it says things like gee and swell but can also speech in a dark evil demonic voice capable of shattering glass if used. It can also speech any language if it need's to.

Like I have said earlier it has a rubber hose like structure so it is hard to determine the exact height but so far it is 8.2 feet and 11 centimeters.

SCP: 0909 is rather soft do to the fact it has small and fine black fur on it's body.

Intelligence

SCP: 0909 is very smart and will even tell SCP guards about it's day, this tell's us two things one it has a very good memory and two it will even try to make friend's with the people who are keeping it from the outside world so that means it must not know about the outside world.

Weapons

Like I have said before SCP: 0909 has a rubber hose like structure so it can stretch it's arms and other body parts to advantage. It can also go through shadows to attack, but it prefers to use it's razor sharp claw's to attack it's pray.

Feeding habit's

It seems that it does in fact eat humans but to the foundations surprise it regrets this do to the fact that it has missed the chance to make "a new friend" it says. The foundation has tried to introduce it to new food's but nothing has worked yet..

Rage

It seems that when SCP: 0909 find's out that it's so called "friends" does not like it or they have other friends well that's where the problem begins. You see according to SCP: 0909 you can only have one friend so 0909 will terminate it's so called friend and anything else in it's vicinity. SCP - 3666 or Cero the statue

Apparently it has a best friend called SCP - 3666 or Cero the statue. They both met in a cross test and so far they get along just fine there have been a few containment breaches regarding these two but nothing to serious.

Thank you for reading about my SCP have a good day, oh and all art is done by if you were wondering.

Contributor: Robogamer

Name: Robo Gamer (SCP-0502)

Age: 19

Class: Euclid

Sexuality: Gay

Power: Copy-and-paste and Song

Power description: CP allows the SCP to watch a ability from either someone or from show. He can only copy one ability at a time, and determining how strong it is, the SCP/D-Class will sleep to regain stamina from the fight or use of ability.

Song: The SCP/kid has a unusually calm singing voice. He has been shown to sing all kinds of songs, and with all kinds of voices. He has made people feel happy with his music, he has made people mad and rage, he made people cry, any type of song he sang, people who react with that reaction, weather they want to or not, but most were fine with it.

Bio: 0502, also known as Robo, or his name

This information has been deemed classified

was doing a performance of his new song and other songs people loved. During the performance, the lights powered off as he look around, and felt a arm grab him as he is rushed into a truck and is injected with anesthesia as he was knocked out, and woke up in a cell. The people of the concert was memory wiped, their house invaded to remove all forms of Robo, and everything connected with 0502 was erased. This, is his new life.

Attempted escape(s): When 0502 woke up in his cell in foundation [classified], he was certainly confused and scared. As he tried to leave, Dr. Javi, one of the scientist studying him, told him to stop. 0502 asked where he was and if he could leave, which was obviously denied. 0502 kept yelled and banged the door in a attempt to escape. Javi kept telling him to stop and soon, just yelled through the mic, which caused 0502 to cover his ears and started to cry loudly as he yelled at the glass, breaking it, and throwing Javi and the guards in the room to the wall as they all were knocked out. The cameras showed 0502 tearing up as he grabbed Javi by his collar and raised his fist to him but stopped as he let go of the collar and walked out. He was soon found in the cafeteria, chugging soda, and was crying a bit. He was escorted to a temporary cell, gagged for safety as he came willingly as he waited patiently. After this escape attempt, the science team was then "filter" through, with regulations and made sure they are not to rough with him, adding a therapist to the team to make sure he is ok.

Interview with 0502

Dr. Ilya (i-li-ah): So, 0502-

0502: P-please, call me Robo

Dr. Ilya: ... ok, Robo. So, you remember how you were taken in?

Robo: Yea, I do but... I still don't know why I was taken away. Can I leave sometime? I need to go back out there and make people happy

Dr. Ilya: Look, I told you before. We can't have you leave.

Robo: ... I know, I just... I made people happy with my music, and I feel like I left them, and...

Dr. Ilya: Look, I know you want to go out and help, but we can't have you out. We don't want enemy countries grabbing you and using you to harm others, and I know you don't want to hurt others. Now, I'm gonna ask some questions, ok?

Robo: O-Ok

Dr. Ilya: So, when have you found out your powers? And are there any powers you haven't showed us or used?

Robo: My powers? Well... I think my first time I used my powers or found them out, I was maybe 10 I think. I remember a friend in school was having a mental breakdown. She was crying and was shaking, talking sad about depression and death, so I hugged her and hum a song to her, some Russian lullaby, and she slowly calmed down, and she felt better, her parents took her home, and that was the first time I learned my powers. As for other powers... I do have one but I haven't... I need to watch something to show it. Do-Do you have a show you can quickly show me?

Dr. Ilya: I'm sorry, but that has to go through regulations and other stuff. Just tell me the power or whatever you can do, and how you found out.

Robo: Ok, sorry. Basically, if I watch a show, I can copy a skill I see from the show, though it comes at a cost. Determining how strong it is, I have to rest or take it easy for a bit. The time I discovered my powers, I was 14. I was bullied in school a lot, and would get hurt a lot, and one day, I had enough. The guy threw a punch but I did the same, but swung early, and my fist was in front. My mouth instinctively yelled "Full Counter" and next thing I know, the bully flew back and was knocked out. No one but the bullies saw, and when they reported me, the teachers knew they lied, and I dodge detention and a parent call. I remembered I watched a anime before that fight, and so that's when I learned I had the power.

Dr. Ilya: Well, I believe we are done with this talk, so, I hope the rest of the day is good for you

Robo: Thanks for talking to me Do. I know it's a mandatory interview, but still. If you want to talk, please come to me. Good bye head scientist

♡SCP-6642: The Monster Girl Hotline♡

Author: ★SCP 1041: "The Creator."★

Object Class:

Esoteric

Threat level:

White

Disruption Class:

Dark

Special Containment Procedures:

SCP-6642 is not to be summoned unless given permission from level 3 clearance staff or higher. Any internet media depicting 6642 instances, including but not limited to video, posts, and ads are to be removed immediately off the internet and Class A amnesics to the creators of these posts. If a 6642 instance is summoned to a site, they will be sent to whoever summoned them (SCP, Agent, Researcher, etc). All 6642 instances are also allowed to roam freely around the site their summoned at, as long as their under supervision.

Description:

SCP 6642 is a phone number, when called will direct the caller to a worker from "The Monster Girl Hotline". The worker on the phone will ask you a series of questions, such as What kind of monster you want, and what kind of personality. Once paying for a set amount of time with a "monster girl", a anomaly, referred to as SCP 6642-a, will appear to the buyer's location. When there, they will engage in activities the buyer chooses. These can range from simple things like cleaning and watching television, to more romantic things such as kissing, hugging, dates and other activities. The following 6642-a variants have been recorded in and out of the foundation, though it is speculated there may be more variants.

Zombie girl ("Zom-Betty")

Jelly-slime like girl ("Jella")

Spider-hybrid girl ("Arachne")

A unicorn-hybrid girl (Starletta)

2 moth-hybrids (“Maple and Shady”)

A snake girl (“Slinks”)

A witch girl (“Juniper”)

A ghost girl (“Salem”)

The 6642-1 instances are very docile, going along with whatever they were sent to do. Powers can range from anomaly to anomaly, some ranging from almost none at all to having some what useful anomalous powers. When asked about eachother or the employees of the company responsible for this SCP, all variants 6642-1 were able to give answers about other “monster girls” such as abilities, likes and dislikes, and names. Most variants of 6642-1 also seemed to know info about the employees who respond when the number is called, like names and personnel info.
