Dear Grade 3 Students and Parents,

The midterm exam is approaching, and it is important to be well-prepared. Below is a detailed outline of the topics and skills that will be tested.

Reading Street Stories and Readers and Writers Notebook

The following stories from our Reading Street curriculum will be included in the exam:

1. What About Me? P.64-77 RWN p.51-61
2. Kumak's Fish P. 98-113 RWN p.62-72
3. My Rows and Piles of Coins P.168-183 RWN p. 84-94

Be sure to review each story thoroughly, including its key elements, vocabulary, and comprehension questions.

Vocabulary

The exam will cover all vocabulary words from Week #2 to Week #7. Week #8 words will not be tested.

For each word, you must know:

- Spelling & Phonics
- Definitions
- Usage in sentences
- Recognition of the word in a reading passage or by picture.

It is important to be familiar with each word and its meaning, as well as how to use it correctly in sentences.

Story Comprehension

Each of the three stories mentioned will be tested for comprehension. You will be asked to demonstrate your understanding of the following aspects:

- Main Characters
Be able to identify the main characters in each story and their roles. Understand the relationships between the characters and their importance to the story.
- Story Genre
Know the genre of each story (e.g., fiction, realistic fiction, folktale, etc.) and understand the characteristics that define it.
- Story Sequencing
Be able to recall the major events of the story in the correct order. You may be asked to arrange the events of the story in sequence or explain what happens at different points in the narrative.
- Knowledge of the Story
There will be questions on specific details from the stories. Be familiar with:

Key events

- Lessons or morals learned from the stories
- The problems and solutions faced by the characters
- The setting and how it affects the story

Exam Format

- Dictation: Students will need to listen to the sentence being stated and write out the entire sentence.
- Multiple Choice: Vocabulary recognition, story comprehension, and sequencing.
- Fill in the Blanks: Spelling and sentence usage of vocabulary words.
- Short Answer: Definitions and questions about the main characters and story details.
- Story Sequencing: Reorder events in the correct sequence.

Grade 3 Exam Scope for Mid Terms 2025

Please make sure to review your Reading Street book and your vocabulary notes carefully to ensure success on the exam.

Good luck, and remember to ask questions in class if you need any clarifications!
