

Official ATOC sponsored PvP event - Junkyard Wars

Something I have learned from PvP, a lot of it is the capabilities of one's ship. This can cause an unfair advantage against people who may be good pilots, but don't have a ship capable of fighting against fully engineered combat vessels. Junkyard Wars is here to fix that by offering a level playing field.

First, second and third place pilots will receive 75Mcr, 50Mcr and 25Mcr respectively.

Junkyard Wars will take place on Saturday, February 13th. at 2pm EST (UTC19:00) and 9pm EST (UTC02:00 Sun), each time-slot will have winners (possible to win 150Mcr if you attend and win both) and will contain three "heats". Please arrive a few minutes early to allow for instancing issues and travel time.

Junkyard Wars will take place in Mbokos, at Ravenhook Base.

Unrestricted Engineered and wing PvP to take place starting two hours before official event time outside Froude Dock in Mbokos.

Two carriers will be available for those of you who want to hitch a ride. Beginning on Friday the 12th:

-Atlaran One (TNK-G3Z) will be located in Lave.

-Kwisatz Haderach (Q3G-5QZ) will be located in Ehecatl.

Both carriers will head to Mbokos on Saturday morning before the event begins.

Atlaran One (TNK-G3Z) and Kwisatz Haderach (Q3G-5QZ) will have Sidewinders as well as various weaponry available for purchase. Alternatively, you can configure your Sidewinder in another station and ship it in.

Beginning two hours before the event timeslots (UTC 17:00 and UTC 00:00), all participants are welcome to participate in Engineered and Wing PvP battles in Mbokos!
