

Learke Artist Bio v3 (2025-2026)

Hailing from the suburbs of south-east Queensland, Learke is a 22 year-old experimental pop artist and producer who isn't afraid to wear her story on her sleeve.

From abrasive synths and punchy drums to slow, evolving soundscapes and gentle pianos, Learke pulls influence from all different sides of the music industry, creating a sweet blend of harmony and chaos, using it to narrate the stories present in her songs, citing the works of underscores, Jon Bellion and Jane Remover as her largest aesthetic influences. She strives to make music that will make people like her feel even just a little bit more seen.