

Novi Parents and Guardians:

Awkward Pause is performed during English classes

What is Awkward Pause? It is a student-run theater troupe presenting shows throughout the year to the student body and has been a unique and valued part of Novi High School for over 20 years with its mission of provoking thought and inspiring change.

The following topics are covered in 2-4 minute pieces for the Spring Break show:

- Weather changes
- Personal insecurities
- Having a crush in your class
- Disappointment in a spring break trip
- Billionaire disconnection with reality
- Struggling to figure out what feeling mean
- Seeing a teacher on a spring break trip
- Kids feeling like they can never make their parent happy
- Pre-spring break efforts to lose weight
- STI awareness
- Family road trips

If you have any questions about these topics, please contact the Director, Heather McKaig, at heather.mckaig@novik12.org.

If you would like to opt your student out of the show on Wednesday, February 26, you should use the Google Form provided by clicking HERE. Your student will be escorted during the hour to a classroom with a Novi staff member present until the show is over. Please note that this space will be available at any time during the show should a student feel the need to step out at any point.
