I Need Support ...

How to access FREE daily meals and pantries:

For a comprehensive list, check this Resource List (from immigrantsrising.org), which also includes support with free internet, diapers, rent support and more.

If there are children in your household, SFUSD provides bags of free meals for children at 17 sites (M/W b/t 11-12), with no i.d. or proof of enrollment required. (details also on the above list)

If you are a senior or adult with a disability, here is a list of free take-away meals for seniors offered by the city.

For fresh produce, Alemany Farm (alemanyfarm.org) in Bernal Heights distributes free produce through their Free Farm Stand (Sun 12-3 at Parques Ninos Unidos on 23rd & Treat). Anyone in need of free food can come - no questions asked.

Other general ways of finding food support available to you and your family are:

- * SF Marin Food Bank: Find Free Food service and CalFresh Applications
- * San Francisco's Department of Disability and Aging Services (DAS)
- * Meals on Wheels: delivered meals for seniors age 60+ needing extra support
- * No Kid Hungry: Apply for Coronavirus Grant Request.

I want to offer support ...

How to support neighbors in need:

Bernal Heights Neighborhood Center - They're still serving Bernal residents in need!

Providing weekly groceries to a few hundred families and daily meals to seniors.

SF New Deal - Helping local food businesses stay open by paying them to deliver meals to SF's most vulnerable residents. Currently partnered with: SF African American Faith Based Coalition and UCSF Medical Service Heroes.

How to advocate nationally for those in need:

Contact our senators to support the Families First Coronavirus Response Act.

On Saturday, March 14, the House of Representatives passed a H.R. 6201, providing emergency funding to support food security initiatives, including student meals, SNAP, seniors' meals, and food banks. No Kid Hungry has a link to call your Senator and a suggested script to urge your Senator to pass this legislation.
