

W.R.'s Tweets

ANNOUNCEMENT

This is PART 2 of WR Schock Tweets. To see PART 1 you need to go here.

Part 1 reached its maximum character limit (on google docs as of writing this), so I needed to separate it into 2 documents.

I also moved the “Random Tweets” and “Screenshots” section to Part 2.

What you will read below are @iontecs_pemf's Tweets. I've gone through his page and copy-pasted + added the images he attached as well (it's not ALL his tweets, obviously).

To search for them yourself, simply go to his twitter account and hit the search bar (on PC put in search from:iontecs_pemf [subject] , 👉 without the [])

What you see written in italics and grey like this, is what I added as titles or context to make things easier for people to go through “Tables of Content”.

Also - after some long post, you will see a mini-section with “Q:” and “WR:”. These are mini Q&As that took place underneath that post on Twitter and I added them as well.

You can download the pdf version of this document by going to “File” > “Download” > “PDF document (.pdf)” (if you’re looking at this on PC)

Or by clicking on the 3 dots from top right corner > “Share and Export” > “Save as” > “pdf” (if you’re looking at this on phone)

I usually add the new posts on top of others, so make sure you check them out (and I apologize if I edit this document while you’re reading).

Bookmark this/save this as favorites in your browser if you want. I will update this as often as possible.

Note: sometimes you will come across duplicate posts, maybe simply because I copy-pasted by mistake, or maybe because there was an update to that post, but I also kept the original as well because of the Q&A that happened underneath that original post.

PS: the only reason I’m using this font is because of this -

MY ROLL YOUR OWN SMOKES (Updated 11/9/2025)

\(link\)

At 17 smokes a day, it would cost me $350 per month for American Spirit organic smokes. My roll-your-own system costs about $25.

Ted Tobacco, where I order Golden Harvest from, says they are grown organic (as verified in 2025), just not certified due to regulatory added costs. This is the brand the keeper & crew smokes. 5lbs lasts me 5+ months. I keep about 7-8lbs on hand at all times as part of my wellness program for on-going parasite cleansing.

<https://tedtobacco.com/golden-harvest-tobacco-5-lb-yellow.html>

I use ZEN cigarette tubes in menthol. The menthol is another separate antiparasitic to kill the parasite larvae in your lungs before they hatch. I supplied the keeper with 4-5 different brands of tubes to test and this is the one that was the cleanest choice. TBH I like this in menthol far better than the tobacco plain. I cut my smokes down by clipping off the ends almost an inch & reuse the tobacco (I don't like more than shorties), so it takes about 14 boxes of KING SIZE tubes per 5lbs of tobacco.

<https://www.tedtobacco.com/zen-tubes-king-menthol.html#>

This Powermatic 3 electric cigarette maker is worth 10x what they sell it for. Makes about 10 a minute & pays for itself in the first 2 weeks.

NICOTINE PATCHES

Dr Ardis recommends this brand of nicotine patches, Rugby, as they don't contain graphene oxide like the others. Nicotine is not addictive by the way. Ardis points out that nicotine is in all kinds of food from tomatoes to eggplant to celery. The 15 purines BIG TOBACCO added to pre-made cigarettes in the 1960s are what causes them to be ferociously addictive and what actually causes c@ncer. Roll-your-own cigarettes are nowhere near as addictive as taylor-mades & have a lovely cigar/pipe aroma.

PURINES ARE THE ADDICTIVE CHEMICALS BIG TOBACCO ADDED TO CIGARETTES IN THE 1960s TO HOOK YOU TO THEIR BRANDS

PURINES DIRECTLY FEED PARASITES (WHICH IS THE REAL C@NCER)

- Purine Auxotrophy: A striking difference between humans and many parasites is that most parasites lack the ability to synthesize purines from scratch (de novo biosynthesis).
- Salvage Pathways: Instead, these parasites rely entirely on "salvage pathways," importing purine nucleobases and nucleosides from the host's bloodstream and tissues and converting them into the necessary building blocks for their own DNA, RNA, and energy metabolism (e.g., ATP).
- Examples:
 - Plasmodium (the parasite that causes malaria) is a well-studied example. It is a purine auxotroph and requires host purines for all life stages in the human body. Blocking the parasite's ability to salvage purines is a major target for antimalarial drug development.
 - Trypanosoma and Leishmania species also depend heavily on scavenging host purines.
 - Toxoplasma gondii relies completely on its host for obtaining purines.
- Competition: The dependence of these parasites on host purines can lead to a competition for available nutrients, which influences both the number of parasites and the course of infection. 🔗

In essence, a steady supply of purines is critical for the growth and survival of these specific types of parasites within their hosts. 🔗

(link)

Back when Enki & Enlil (step brothers, both Dragon lineages) arrived here from Nibiru 798k yrs ago, they had been using aerosolized monatomic gold in their skies as it works like a fountain of youth for reptilian genetics, allowing them to live for up to millions of years (this is poison to human genetics). Within a very short time after 'crop dusting' atomized gold rather than just adding it to their meals, they found the new generation had become dependent on it and without it, they would die. The race to find a perpetual source of gold in bulk would now become their primary goal.

So they set off on a scouting trip to other lands for high volume gold sources. Tara earth perpetually grows gold, so here it is undepletable. They made a new slave race to mine the gold, they nicknamed Lulus (the Hyksos Adam-Kadmon Man we call Neanderthals/ J3ws/ Hebrews - see my article: 🖐️ THE HISTORY OF THE CHIMERA) to get it out of the ground, then processed it into white monatomic powder form (that weighs almost nothing) and shipped it back to Nibiru for eons of time.

But they were treating people here very badly (they are factually dragons, so), so a massive war broke out against them, ultimately completely blowing their world into pieces, stranding them here on Tara (this may have been during the 1000 Years Electric Wars). Thus Enki Lucifer was 'cast down' to earth and has been here ever since where heshe acts like 'god' since it possesses advanced abilities.

[For more about Enki, see my article: 🖐️ HARD. RED. PILL.]

Enlil operates the skies, so I understand heshe is in charge of the Galactic Federation and the Ashtar Command.

[For more on these sky-based groups, see my article: 🖐️ THE GALACTIC FEDERATION & ASHTAR COMMAND]

Gold is nowhere near the most valuable mineral on earth. In fact it is only valued at a fraction of the price of Rhodium, which sells for more than 4x that of gold. The intrinsic value of gold has always been driven by the Nibiru dragons' life-or-deth need for its life-extending properties for dragons, not humans. The hippies that were proponents of consuming monatomic gold back in the 70s & 80s deid young, that's why you don't hear many talking about taking ORMUS anymore.

- Gold toxicity: Ingesting gold, including colloidal or nanoparticle forms, can be toxic and may cause dermatitis, kidney damage, and other adverse effects.
- Cardiomyopathy: A 2009 case study documented a woman who developed dilated cardiomyopathy (a weakened and enlarged heart) after ingesting colloidal gold and silver. Her condition improved after stopping the supplements and receiving chelation therapy.
- Contaminants: The quality of colloidal metal products can vary widely. Some may contain potentially harmful amounts of heavy metals like aluminum, lead, and arsenic.
- No proven benefits: Medical experts and regulatory bodies like the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) state that there is no scientific evidence to support the health claims made about colloidal gold.

The keeper explained to me many years ago, the actual most valuable material found on earth is something we take totally for granted: zinc. It is used in very advanced technologies & ultra-rare across the other 177 'Known Lands' in the 3rd dimension, but is ubiquitous here so it is dismissed. One day mankind will figure out how much real potential is in zinc, but until then they will just keep using it to galvanize black water pipe for nickels and dimes.

That 'shiny metal' happens to be a Type 1 superconductor.

YOUR BODY IS NOT YOURS (Update 10/26/25)

(link)

The physical body is a separate being that is in contract to submit to your Krystal Seed Atom awareness. It is incorrect to refer to your body as 'yours' or 'you'. It is a sacred pact where it is 100% at your mercy to do anything to it you want, including great harm it can do nothing about except suffer through, should you choose to be a masochist. Self-harm is not self-harm, it is exactly like harming a helpless baby.

I've explained this before but I don't think anyone is able to grasp this. You are guilty of immense karma for crimes against that body if you hit yourself, flail yourself with whips, have tattoos, disfigured in any way, as the body doesn't have any way to object. It is under absolute submission.

When you talk to or do nice things for your avatar, understand that is the most vulnerable being you will ever know. It isn't you pampering yourself, it is you being kind to someone more dependent on you than a minute old child.

Caring for an infant and caring for your avatar are the two most sacred contracts there are. Your avatar is your Temple. Honor and cherish it or lose all access to such a glorious vehicle in your next life when you come back as a turtle or a frog. That's if you qualify for an animated avatar at all. Some don't even get that and are just trees or a sage brush alone in a desert somewhere. Some don't even qualify for that anymore. We call them ghosts.

RESCUE OF THE KEEPER OF TARA EARTH (Update 10/24/25)

(link)

What you're seeing in this video are not asteroids, comets, shooting stars or even burning space junk, they're Merkabas. I know, because this is exactly what I saw once our caravan reached 'the safer zone' when I was rescuing the keeper and crew of Tara earth from where they were being held homeless and stripped of resources for 2 ½ years in the city of Santa Rosa, California, in October/November of 2017.

Let me preface by saying I'm not just sane, but an autodidact polymath with multiple quantum physics patents under exclusively my own name, not part of any collaboration. So by dismissing my testimony as someone who is just nuts is really reading a book strictly through its cover. This all actually happened, even if you've never heard of anything like this before. What we don't know about 'the real worlds' out there you could barely fit into all of our skies. This civilization has been kept in the dark about true science and technology as ferociously as it possibly could. The world around you is a holographic illusion.

[For more on how it operates, see my article:  HOW THE HOLOGRAPHIC SIMULATION WORKS]

Everyone in this preschool dimension have preconceived notions about who 'god' is, inflated to the realm of all-knowing and all-powerful, able to create whole worlds, complete with millions of species of flora and fauna, and all in just 6 days. And while it is true such powers do exist, they are not without collaboration with other 'gods' to make that all happen, no matter how grandiose your captors want to make themselves seem. Just one species of your apples or oranges here represents possibly trillions of years of development and perfection. They didn't just magically appear.

“God” is a psyop term that stands for the word “perfect”, of which there is no such thing. The term perfect is strictly subjective, because what may seem perfect to a caveman is going to seem rudimentary kid’s stuff to George Jetson. The real term for the creator of all things is not ‘god’, but rather Prime Creator. “God” is actually DOG spelled backward and got its name from the Dog Star, also known as Sirius A, the headquarters of the Anuhazi Elohim’s breakaway group that call themselves The Michaelube, Suns of Ba’al. The ‘Arch Angels’ want you to believe they are the creator god of all things in this world. That was a lie 560m years ago and it is still a lie today.

In reality, Tara Earth existed more than 4 billion years prior to the Anuhazi’s arrival to take the Human Elohim Project spirit essences hostage. They DID in fact help create Tara earth, just like you did, because they are fractals of Prime Creator. But to present themselves as ‘one guy with a long white beard who created the world and everything in it’ is word magic and gaslighting, designed to demoralize and subjugate Humans. For more on the why to this psychopathic plan, see my article:  HISTORY OF THE CHIMERA.

With that said, there are MANY beings in the world around you that are secretly ancient ‘gods’ of past eras who really do have more powers than humans do. I know, because I’ve met some and dealt with others during my years of education from the keeper of our simulation. There are also beings here who have roles to play to keep our world functioning correctly so Tara is able to continue offering a holographic platform for your manifestation adventure, who also have god-like powers, such as the keeper mentioned above, and others that are part of the team I refer to as the ‘crew’. You would call them angels, I call them people. Scary powerful people, but still people.

Among the ‘crew’ is the main ‘keeper’ of the simulation that you wind up referring to as god down through the ages, because once in a while humans get to meet the keeper and witness the power for themselves which is very obviously not human. But the keeper doesn’t have a long flowing white beard, doesn’t sit on a throne in the sky and certainly isn’t perfect. But like you, a work in progress. Always seeking greater balance. That is the one common denominator among all fractals of Prime Creator, regardless if they are currently playing ‘bad guy’ roles, or ‘good guy’ roles.

Understand there are beings here constantly at war against the keeper that has control of the universal elements of the hologram. Also understand, like the other beings who came here from much higher dimension with ‘god-like’ powers, they fractalize themselves into many, many different bodies, so it is effectively impossible to ever ‘kill’ each other. You would have to not only find all the many hundreds or thousands of each one, but have a fool-proof way of killing them all at the same exact moment, making sure they are gone-gone, not just that one avatar holding their spirit awareness. That’s not going to happen. Not to any of them from what I’ve witnessed. Which means simply, as far as you are concerned, they are eternal beings, continuously here since 560m years ago in some case, depending when each one of them arrived.

The ‘gods’, and the keeper, live in mortal bodies that age and die. But their positions are always held by the next one of themselves that can step into that role to maintain continuity of their offices. These are all the same person and can appear exactly identical to each other, or they can take on totally different appearances as well. I'm not sure why or how, but I've seen them both ways.

After I was contacted by the keeper and informed of my role where I was in contract to supply protection and help to the crew back in 2013, eventually I was activated for that help in September of 2017. As mentioned, both the keeper and a portion of the worldwide crew support staff as it were, had been taken hostage in California. I was tasked to bring them out to safety.

I won't go deeply into the details of this, but it was a serious situation where the invader races had stripped the keeper of all access to banks and cash, making it impossible to remain safe inside of the place they had been using as headquarters, literally casting them into the streets. And before you imagine this would be 'impossible', the keeper can't just manifest stacks of cash out of thin air, and also there were a massive amount of beings all working together to neutralize them so they could possibly remove them from the levers of power of the simulation. That's really all I can offer for details about that for now.

The alphabet agencies were keeping the entire crew isolated in that one city, living in a car, camping in the woods and basically making it impossible to look after Tara. The keeper was able to get donations through various support mechanisms, but were shut out of getting off the streets. They brought in specialists to help them all escape, but the agencies wound up permanently disabling them, or taking them out altogether. That's when I was contacted for assignment.

Not being one of ‘the gods’ like they are, I was naturally terrified of having anything to do with this mission because I had no powers I was aware of that could provide anything they couldn’t. Which is really a fantastic understatement, since the keeper and crew can translocate anywhere in the world in seconds, have ‘thousands of avatars’ scattered out as vessels they can use in any city around the world, and basically everything they can do we can’t are about as intimidating as they can be. But I was told I was the only one who could rescue them.

And while that may sound like the perfect scenario for a deluded mind seeking validation with illusions of grandeur, like a classic mental patient would come up with in their insane mind, this is what I was actually told, and I do mean in real life. To this day I find it as confusing to believe as you will trying to believe me now. Nonetheless, I carry certain powers I have been fitted with for my contract here on earth that I have had no education about at all. And the main one I’ve learned of now is I have a frequency shield that blocks out ‘the gods’ from doing harm. As long as the keeper and crew were within that field, the invaders were rendered powerless.

Wow, even I want to roll my eyes at that. But I watched it play out first hand now multiple times after I got the crew off the streets in a ‘place of safety’ over the next couple of years. As long as I was at the safe house, nothing nefarious happened. When I went shopping every other week for groceries in town over 10 miles away, that’s when all hell would break out back at the compound. Those stories too would seem impossible for you to believe, just like everything else I am covering here, so I won’t go deeply into them. But they included black helicopters, 10’ long rattlesnakes sealing off the safe house & even assassinations. I was even requested to get to town and back as quickly as possible and not to linger due to these threats.

I was told that my frequency shield while blended to the natural frequency shield the keeper and crew all have reached '87.3 miles' apart (or so, going by memory now. But it was a very specific number). But even though the overall power of our combined fields still increased within that distance, the closer I was to the group, the more powerful the shield. I'm just telling you what I was told. You can believe it or not. I certainly wouldn't believe it had I not actually witnessed it myself, so I'm right there with you if that's your position.

That brings us to the story I intended to pass along to you here; regarding that flight from 'homeless bondage' out across the deserts that spanned well over 1000 miles I was brought in for.

The keeper and crew had been held hostage and homeless for 2 ½ years by the time I got the call requesting me to sell everything I owned and fly half way around the world for their rescue. Their lives had been hell, trust me. I arrived late at night where they picked me up and the hard part of the journey began. I will skip the details of the truly insane things I witnessed starting then for another time after the separation, for obvious reasons having to do with breadcrumbs and the very real fluid war we're inside of yet. But I will tell you about the 'angels' that were with us for that escape I would only learn about myself after 2 days of running.

In the video below you will see what appear to be asteroids or a meteor shower, but they are traveling horizontally, not downward at all. We've seen this now since late 2024 a few times. This time I saved one of the videos taken on 10/24/2025 over Turks and Caicos Islands so I could actually show people what I saw first-hand on that second night of our escape.

We had covered whole states by this time, but we couldn't stop and rest until we made it to a 'frequency zone' that was somehow outside of the reaches of the keeper's enemies. I'm under the impression that there are certain key cross-leyline areas on earth that are too high in frequency for the low-vibration invader races to penetrate with their hyper-advanced psychotronic & scalar weapons, and that had been our destination ever since our escape that began at about 3:30-4am in the dead of night when the least number of eyes would be surveilling us. Boy do I have outrageous stories about just how absolute that surveillance really is too. It is like they are not just tracking us, but using time travel to put agents in areas we would be arriving to, posing like homeless people and everyday folks. While in real life they were monitoring my every word in secret. I was surveilled many times during the weeks in that city while arranging for the escape and it blew my mind every time.

The 'falling stars' that really look more like comets in the video is what the "guardian angels" that had been secretly escorting us from overhead looked like, WHEN they were uncloaked. They only showed up in my visible view at the moment we broke over a ridge at about 3:30 in the morning 2 days later after our run began, at the exact same moment I could see the city lights way off in the distance below that was the 'safer zone' (not 'the' safe zone, but an area that wasn't as vulnerable as most all other locations, due to the cross ley lines).

Suddenly overhead three giant comets appeared immediately above my head. I was in the lead vehicle the whole way, because the keeper was following my taillights. This is the only way they can navigate at night, because they don't see like you and I do, looking at solid shapes and images, but everything through their eyes are light waves. I couldn't make up something like that if I spent 10 years trying to write this article, mostly because it is still not believable to me now, 8 years later.

These 3 comets were massive, what looked to be around 50 feet across, with tails of flame coming off that must have been 150-200 feet behind streaking VERY low across the sky. As I came down the hill to the desert floor for the final 10 miles between us and the safe zone (small town lights), the 'comets' started coming straight down toward ground, one at a time. They appeared they were going to crash into the highway, now traveling vertically at hypersonic speed, then just stopped 50 ft away from impact and vanished.

You would have to try to imagine being in the total dark desert with only very faint, far-away lights off in the distance, only to have 3 comets traveling RIGHT DIRECTLY overhead suddenly uncloak, then turn straight down to get an idea of how insanely frightening they appeared, since their trajectory was to strike directly in front of your vehicle on the highway, as if you were about to slam right into them as they hit like giant bombs that would certainly blow up on impact and basically vaporize you and your moving van, to appreciate how absurd this event was.

I was only about 150 feet away from where they were set to strike, so there was no hitting the brakes and avoiding anything. They were right there. Which means it was sort of like watching 'god' just fill the night's sky with fire.

I saw 3 of them myself, but I was informed there were an additional 9 'angels' that my own frequency wouldn't allow me to see according to the keeper. It is because this story is so unbelievable that I avoid talking about it, as you can imagine. Since 99 people out of a hundred are only going to accuse you of being insane upon hearing it, some possibly trying to have you committed at the same time, and the other person is likely already crazy themselves, so they just glaze over it.

Until you see something like that with your own eyes, I'm pretty sure you will *never believe it could be a real thing. But this is what we call angels look like when they are decloaked and traveling at night. While they appear like enclosed vehicles, I am now convinced after reading more about how they work from the Book of Enoch, they are just simply traveling in their own Merkaba fields. That part was never explained to me, but I believe Merkaba vehicles are created in the plasma field of the beings themselves, through thought.

I was told they were with us 'flying overhead the entire journey' since we escaped California and were basically 'signing off' as I gathered it, now that we had reached the safe zone.

You can believe I'm crazy all you want to, but now you can see them with your own eyes in this video, sure as hell not acting like meteors, but acting more like flaming time crafts ('space' ships). Are you crazy too?

HOW I PURIFY MY MEALS

(link)

The way it works is I draw up a pale silver shaft of light from earth's core around my house, up into the sky beyond my sight. Then I pop out a giant merkaba centered at ground level where most of the bugs, parasites, nanites are. Top spins to the right, bottom half spins to the left. I see it generate massive pale silver light energy from it, instantly pulling all the nasties out of the house and my meal.

I see all my intentions going up in the form of black dots for the nanites and chemicals over my head and parasites/viruses in the forms they take doing the same. I explode the nanites with a burst of energy and then light the parasites on fire in a huge ball of flame, then all of it traveling up the column swirling clockwise I created in my mind around the entire house until they are totally vanished. I then smile at my meal, which is thanks for its sacrifice for my health. I use no words of any kind in thought, or even in letter form in my mind. This is pure intent alone.

Realize that all the things you are about to eat are conscious and aware. They are created for one thing: to serve manifest fractals of Prime Creator. There is no higher calling than to wind up being food for the creator (you) they can ever hope for in their life than this one act. Showing gratitude is much to them like a physical god in heaven giving attention and gratitude to a human down on earth in the brainwashed terms people here think like.

This not only purifies all the particles of the food, but supercharges their atomic spin to deliver your body the best service possible.

Since I am treating all of the house and everything in it, I only have to do this once a day when I have dinner, so if I feel the need for some snack between those 24 hours, that food is already treated. All my water and supplements, the same.

INDIGO MISSIONS

Type 1 Indigos arrived with very powerful abilities to correct the Krystal Cathedral Temples we call 'Cross Leylines' to raise the Schumann Frequency emitted from 7 miles below surface. These are city-sized clusters of building-sized crystals that 'sing' the cadence of life that have been torturously meddled with for eons of time to prevent humans from reaching their authentic higher frequencies. The network covers all of Tara earth in a massive geodesic pattern, bringing energy and circadian rhythm to support all life on, and in, Tara.

Once they had completed this job (many years ago now), they were supposed to shift focus on setting up places of safety called Eco Preserves where humans could go off-grid for education for a few years prior to the separation to learn how to function in the next dimension.

Effectively nothing about the 3rd level of awareness is acceptable in higher dimension, so it is going to be a deep learning curve.

The Eco Preserves were established years ago by this time and are now operating in undisclosed locations worldwide. The keeper and crew personally train humans and hybrids in these learning centers as we speak. No new signups are being taken at this late date. If you're not there, then you need to focus on surviving and helping potential ascendants where you are.

You know what to do: show them how to raise organic food on building-tops or herb gardens in their apartments and homes. Share my more than 130 different articles with them, show them how to care for their own health holistically, and in general, pass-along the knowledge of how to survive the separation.

[Articles:   WR Schock's Tweets - Part 1]

CURRENT UNIVERSAL MISSION

Now Type 1s, and all Indigos, must refocus attention to waking up the sleeping abductees to the tools of enslavement that have been used against them all along so they might raise their frequency to resonate with the next level of awareness to establish the 4th dimension. This is now the universal mission for every starseed on-plane. Time has run out and mankind is currently witnessing the Apocalypse in real-time.

KRYSTING

The next thing will be the separation of the wheat from the chaff where those moving forward will relocate, along with Particle Tara, to the Second Density Level (hosting dimensions 4, 5 & 6) of an inner-layer of the Aqueous Sun time matrix, to complete their path of 'Krysting'.

Krysting is called 'Mastering' for lower level avatars when they complete all 15 levels of that time matrix, but when completing the process for an eternal-life Elohim vessel, the term refers to the 'Krystos' pale silver-thread that provides access to the primal sound and light fields of the Deity Planes to power their avatars. The Krystos bloodline is the most advanced avatar thread across the cosmeias. Those who qualify for Elohim bodies are considered the most successful and accomplished beings in existence.

That doesn't mean all Elohim beings are 'perfect'; as there is no such thing. It just means they are the most powerful and potentially dangerous skin-suits ever created. Your captors you now call Arch Angels -the Anuhazi Elohim (giant humans with wings known today as 'gods' of Olympus) & Necromiton Raelian Elohim (Scarab Beetle Kings known in ancient times as Sadducees and also Khazar Ashke-N@ZIs)- are collectively less than a dozen beings that literally took billions of Humans hostage and kept them locked away for over 1/2 billion years, to give you an idea of what 'unlimited power' really means.

Krystos genetic templates are engineered to have great compassion and outgoing love for all life, and is the true meaning of 'Christ' consciousness. However, even Elohim can become infected by the Budhara Borja Retrovirus brain prions, as exemplified in the Arch Angels that have taken you hostage. The Guardian Alliance representative that brought back all 12 strands of undistorted Krystos genetics to the Human population was not called Kryst or Christ, but rather Jesheua Sananda Melchizedek. He was also never called 'jesus'; that term is a counterfeit foisted into public perception by Enki Lucifer who masqueraded as the true redeemer of the Human Elohim bloodline.

[For more detail, see my article: 🖐️ THE TWO CHRISTS]

Those who still need more time in the kindergarten of the 3rd dimension will remain on Antiparticle Tara and relocate to the 'earth host cradle' set up in the Weasadrax Phantom matrix for eternal enslavement.

[For more on this, see my article: 🖐️ THE SEPARATION -and-
🖐️ DESTINATIONS AFTER THE SEPARATION]

TYPE 2

Type 2 Indigos are healers. They will make artwork that emit scalar waves that restores the DNA of all who witness them, such as orgonite, sculptures, paintings, crystal jewelry, holistic medicinals, and many of them are medicine people who are the real 'doctors' who use nature to bring actual wellness the invader races have vilified as 'witches' all along. Type 2s will remain on that mission while also helping to awaken the masses to prepare for separation.

TYPE 3

Type 3 Indigos are on the most difficult mission; hosting Lost Souls Of Tara (LOST) from the Nephilim species who were abducted from Antiparticle Gaia Earth (antiparticle host plane of the 3rd Density within this time matrix it was named after, that hosts dimensions 7, 8 & 9) and forced to serve as warriors against the Human Elohim program until being demolecularized from war and losing the ability to have a physical body anymore. Type 3s act as timeline healers to the Nephilim so they can correct the distortions in their past that would prevent them from ever ascending out of this dimension and becoming free, with their own restored avatars in the 4th and higher levels of awareness.

[For more on the LOST, see my article:  INDIGO TYPES]

After all of their charges (Nephilim) have corrected their pasts with the help of the Type 3 Oraphim Elohim spirit essence host, which is explained in the article INDIGO TYPES, then walks out while a higher level of awareness being walks in to take over that avatar and serve as a Type 1 for the remainder of their time.

I've met Type 3-to-Type 1 walk-ins and it is always stunning to imagine they actually fulfilled their mission. Most will not. Like I said, Type 3 contracts were considered effectively eternal-life suicide missions from the outset. If you ever meet a Type 3 that rose to Type 1, just know you're in the presence of a very rare and powerful fractal of Prime Creator.

[For more on Type 3 missions, see my article:  TYPE 3 INDIGOS]

TIME DISTORTION DURING TRANSITION (Update 9/28/2025)

By 2014-15 I had proven beyond a doubt that our world had shrunk to roughly $\frac{1}{2}$ - $\frac{3}{4}$ of its normal size since the opening of the ascension window a few years previous. I know how crazy that sounds, since surely such intense change would become front-page news overnight. But that's not what happened. Literally no one seems to have noticed.

When driving at 60 mph, you cannot count to 60 using one-one-thousand, two-one-thousand within a mile-marker mile. You can't use the odometer and you can't use a watch anymore to measure your speed, because the crystals that keep time in all our devices have also sped up from the physical compression to match the world's new distance and time. But you can override the mask by counting like we all did when we were younger.

If you use road side mile markers traveling 60, you could count to 60 by the time you crossed the next marker in your younger days. We tested our speed to see how accurate our speedometers were when we were running oversized winter tires that messed up the odometer and speedometer. With bigger tires, instead of going 60 as your speedometer reads, you might be going 67 and get a speeding ticket, especially if your normal practice was to go 8 miles per hour over the posted speed, just under the 10 miles over cops would pull you over for.

VERIFICATION

I was driving the keeper and crew to the airport for a trip they were taking, I believe in 2018, (they use planes to fly-in when they are meeting with humans, because showing up instantly by translocating to a local body in stasis would cause an instant crack in the collective awareness if it got out). I told the keeper as we neared the airport 'the world is smaller than it was 10 years ago. By a lot. The horizon is half as far away, and when I have 1 mile before the exit now traveling 60mph, the exit is immediately right there, just over a half-minute of counting the seconds.' The keeper verified that was true, then explained the science behind it.

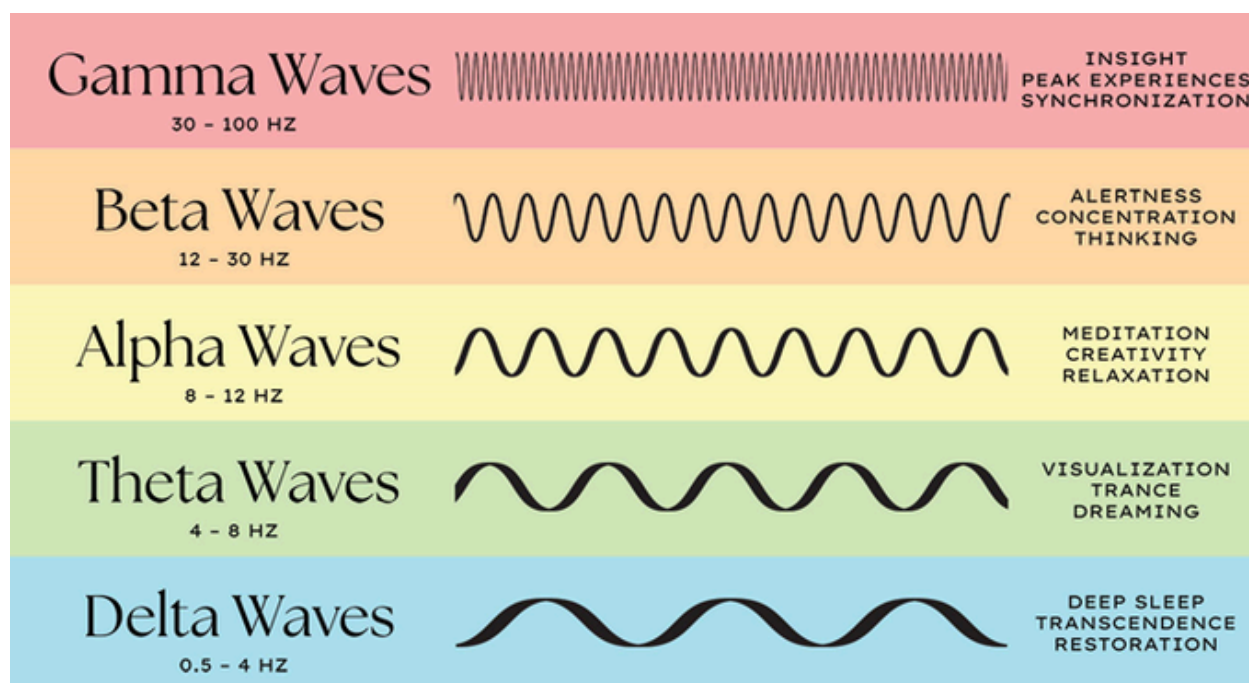

Like I've said, I usually have to crack the code of a hidden secret, then explain the science to the keeper in order for me to learn if I was right or not. I can't just ask a dozen random questions and expect to get answers. I've heard too many times to count now 'no free spoonfuls of sugar'. If we don't arrive at the answers through deep research, we take it with a grain of salt, questioning its validity. But if you know the roadmap to that answer, you will remember it and trust it as verification you're not just guessing.

That's why I tell everyone to always verify what I write for yourself. Never take anyone's word on anything. Do your own research if you want to stand on solid ground.

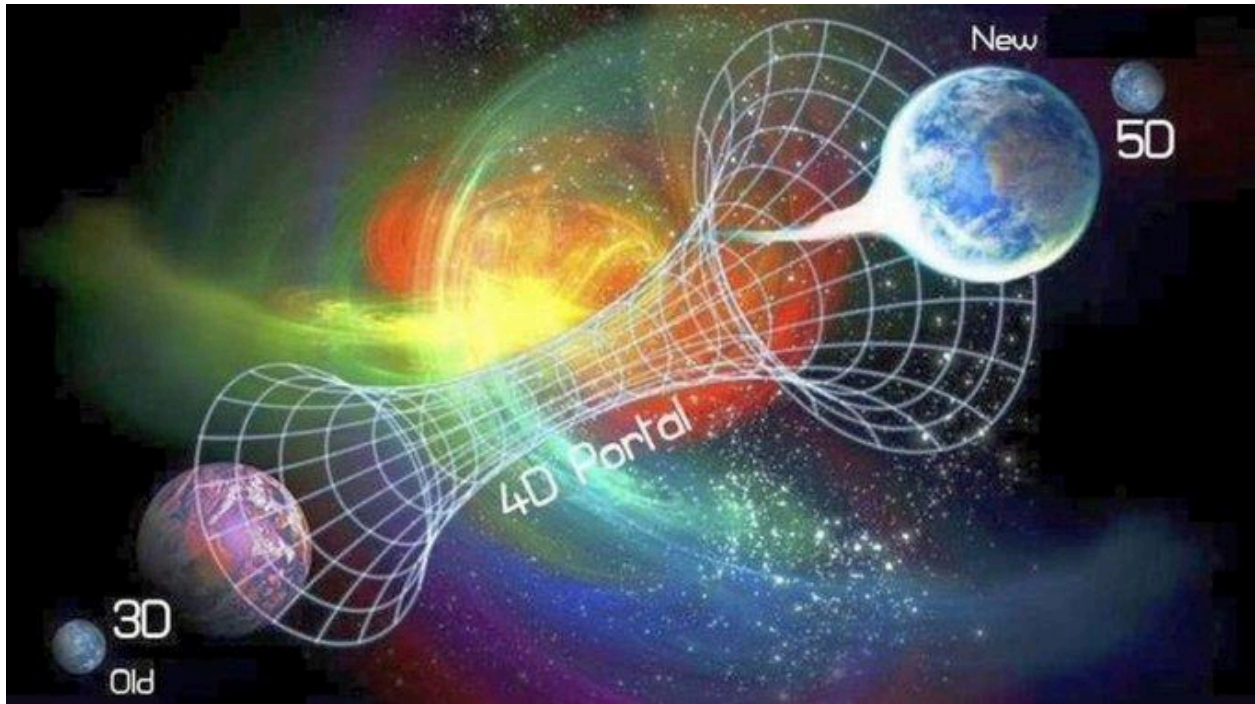

THE SCIENCE

Tara has to squeeze down into a very small, dense mass in order to go from this harmonic universe to the next through what is called a Hyperbola Vertex. When entering the hyperbola, the world and life force are all vibrating within the frequency band of the 3rd dimension, but needs to come out at full 4th dimension higher cellular vibration. In this case, moving from 7.83Hz, which is just barely awake but almost in twilight sleep state, called Theta State. To bring into view the next level of awareness, that has to move past what we term is Gamma State here, at 30Hz and above.

In the image below, '3D' is Tara earth in the 1st Density (5 densities inside a 15 level time matrix, each one supporting 3 dimensions) in the 3rd dimension. '4D' is the zero point or transition window, and '5D' is where your consciousness will be located that operates your avatar body in the 4th dimension. Still a bit confusing to me now, but the keeper says our awareness has always been in the 4th dimension, operating our 3D avatar below. I gather this is because your higher self is looking down at the video board below to run the avatars.

As an aside, the keeper has also told me that's actually how vision works in the keeper's position, or office. Physically sees the avatar below, as if from viewing from the ceiling overhead, not from the eyes of the avatar like we view. Very strange.

This is not like a normal 'ascension' this time, as the entire host plane itself that provides dimensions 1, 2 & 3 now, will be stepping up to host dimensions 4, 5 & 6 beginning with her arrival to the new Aqueous Sun time matrix where Tara, and you, if you are reading and comprehending this text, are moving to. I was told that at least in the last 560m years, no one has ever seen a host plane(t) ascend with its life force (people and animals that are also people) at the same time, so no one on Tara knows exactly what to expect. Not even the keeper.

We're all learning together now.

The earth has been gradually compressing since 12/21/2012 at the opening of the Stellar Activation Ascension Cycle, until around 2017-2019, when it slowly started expanding again after crossing over the ½-way point of the migration process. This is physically, not a metaphor or some spiritual allusion.

Now, in 2025, you can't say one-one-thousand more than 45x while traveling what we now call a mile. It was 37x back in 2015. But we have begun expanding again now. I believe it was in 2019 when the keeper said Tara had crossed over the ½ way mark. We would have already completed the transition by the end of 2022, had the invader races not pulled out all the stops to block this ascension by lowering the vibration of the collective consciousness from the bioweapons attack across the whole world during the covid scamdemic.

As I've mentioned before, the ascension process isn't following a fixed timetable. Stellar Activation Cycles typically run 10 years. Sometime 5-6, sometimes 20, depending on the aggregate angular particle spin frequency of the population.

[For more on the process of moving to the next level of awareness, see my article: 🖐️ THE SEPARATION]

But this isn't a normal Cycle for a second reason, that is it's the very last ascension that will ever happen on Tara within the Gaia time matrix, so the human farmers here are fighting against it this time with every arrow in their quiver. It would have been possible they could even block all the humans and animals from making it, but they will never stop Tara's ascension, even if it means doing so alone, as explained in my article mentioned below.

[For more on this subject, see my article: 🖐️ THE SURGICAL SEPARATION OF THE 2 PLANES]

I say 'It would have been possible' they could block us from making this transition, if it weren't for the reason I explain to you in the last paragraph of this article.

I've spent years and years telling people about how our world has shrunk in size and not once has anyone tested it I am aware of. But since we're just over half the size we used to be, that means you no longer have 24 hours in a day. More like about 14 hours in which to sleep, drive, work, shop, cook, clean, and no one has any time for 1 minute of relaxation in the evening anymore before they go to bed. Ever notice you no longer have any steam left? Maybe it's because you're only getting the equivalent of 3-4 hrs of sleep at night. Readers admit we just don't have time for anything anymore, but refuse to test my science on a back highway traveling 60 to see for themselves the reality of what I've explained here.

If they did, they would find they cannot say 'one Mississippi, two Mississippi' or 'one one thousand, two one thousand' fast enough to cram 60 inside that 'mile'. Giving them irrefutable proof I'm not making this up.

Hang in there warriors. This ascension is going to happen, hell or high water. Keep your attitude positive at all times, vibrate from the mountain tops and see clearing in your mind's eye humans making it to the next level.

[For more on the power of positive thinking, see my article:

👉CASTING THE APOCALYPSE]

WHY HUMANS 🙌 DO MAKE THIS ASCENSION

I've already been told:

“The 5th dimension already exists, because it is your generation that built it. You are just the ones that set the foundation for it in the dawn of its creation, so you will be the first ones in.”

Which does mean frens, we did make this shift, it's already in the akashic records.

ENKI LUCIFER IS ARCH ANGEL HELEL

(Enki) Lucifer in Hebrew means Helel (Hell) or also Halal in Aramaic, god of Muslims. Helel is a fallen angel known as an ARCH Angel, arch means unfavorable & ultimate or preeminent, as in "archenemy," as in "the chief or principal enemy". The prefix adds a sense of being the ultimate rival, not just any enemy.

"Helel" refers to the archangel also known as Lucifer or the Morning Star, a figure from the Bible and religious texts whose name means "Shining One". In Christian tradition, Helel was a beautiful and powerful created angel who became proud and vain, leading a rebellion against God and falling from Heaven with a third of the angels. This fall resulted in his transformation into Satan or the Devil and his subsequent efforts to oppose God.

Origin in Religious Texts

Isaiah 14:12-15:

This passage describes a "morning star" or "day star" (Helel in Hebrew) who fell from Heaven due to his pride and desire to be "like the Most High".

Ezekiel 28:12-14:

This passage refers to Helel as an "anointed cherub" who was perfect in his ways until iniquity was found in him, and he was cast out of Heaven.

The Fall

- Pride and Rebellion: Helel's fall was attributed to his pride and envy of God's authority.
- War in Heaven: Helel led one-third of the angels in a war against God, but they were defeated and cast out of Heaven.
- Transformation into Satan: Following his defeat, Helel became Satan (the Devil).

Significance in Different Contexts

Humans have been duped into just believing Arch Angels meant they are the ultimate good guys, without ever bothering to look up the meaning of Arch.

Lucifer, or Helel, was cast down to earth for trying to defeat 'god'. 'God', in this case is the collective known as the Oraphim Elohim of Sirius B that seeded the Human Elohim Project to Tara earth in 560m B.C. under the Turaneusiam-1 Project by the Emerald Alliance under the Emerald Covenant, something they also don't bother telling you.

Helel is the god of the Hebrews, they straight out tell you they worship Lucifer. Halal is the god of the Muslims, just a slightly altered use of vowels, since we added vowels to the ancient languages that didn't use them. So Helel can be spelled Halal, Hilil, Holol, Hulul, or any combination thereof. Now reverse Hulul and you get the original nick name of the Hyksos (Hebrew, J3ws, Muslims & many other names for Enki's chosen people) children of Adam & Eve in the garden creation, which was "the Lulus". You can easily look up that term.

What isn't readily known is when Enki Lucifer exited the Co-Evolution BioRegensis Treaty of Palaidor, which would have given his creation (not HISHER creation, but Ninhursag's that he merely participated in, but *did *not *engineer) actual freedom to ascend out of the 15 level time matrix of Gaia where they were factually illegal aliens and stuck here for eternity otherwise, a program created and authored by the Oraphim Elohim Enki calls 'god', to permanently mark that date, from that time forward, they would always use *reverse spelling on key titles and words. Hence, the Lulus were the children of Hulul, the 'devil'.

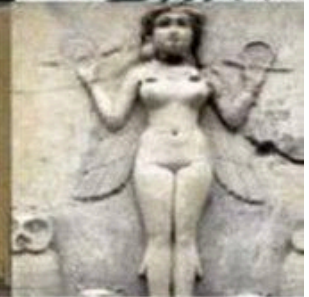

Also known as Marduk Satain (which I posit is merely another one of hisher thousands of iterations down through time), and thousands of other titles down through the last 798k years, Enki/Ea/Ptah/Zeus/Jesus/Poseidon etc. etc. is from the species known as Seraphim Elohim “Zephelium” Anunnaki Group from OMEGA CENTAURI and later, NIBIRU (which was destroyed eons ago in war). Heshe has never, ever, been a friend to the Human Elohim, but their captor, prison guard and chief torturer for many hundreds of thousands of years.

PAST-LIFE MEMORIES ARE IN THE SPHERE OF AMENTI

(link)

The Sphere of Amenti holds the past-life memories of everyone here on Tara pre-Fall of Man War of 550M yrs BC when they were stripped away from everyone's avatars which held their 'provenance' in their Krystal Seed Atom and their avatar's cellular memory. This disconnection left not only billions of humans with no identity, no history, no clue of who they were or why they were here, but made them all susceptible to grasping for any help they could receive from anyone who might have access to those records.

Naturally, this placed Humans in the uniquely vulnerable position of being able to be fed any lie to them to destroy their self-image and therefore any shred of the dignity they brought with them before they came. So you can consider the loss of past-life provenance and subsequent gaslighting that they were literally pond scum, an absolute

KEY as to how the Anuhazi Elohim & the Budhara Borja Retrovirus were able to enslave the most powerful beings across the cosmeias.

And that's who the real Human Elohim beings here were. The most celebrated creators within the time matrix network who qualified for the loftiest, most advanced avatar ever offered within manifestation games. In human terms, people would refer to every single one of them as gods, not merely 'angels'. Remember that next time when you have the urge to reach out and hurt one of them physically or mentally. Someday you're going to regret that on a level your mind can't even process here.

Human Elohim will all get their past-life memories back when they make this separation from 3D to 4D (that higher beings refer to as 5D, as your awareness is always one dimension higher than your avatar that is physically playing the role below you). So when you arrive in the next level of awareness, it won't just be a different reality field, but you will arrive there as one of the most accomplished beings that ever lived and you'll remember those wins. You will be so utterly different from who you are today I can't do justice to the concept or sheer breadth of your mental change.

On every level, all beings alive here today are the quantum example of orphan. You didn't just lose your parents; you lost your very soul. And that's what your past-life memories are: they are your soul-essence records that are now sitting inside the Sphere of Amenti that have 'healed' back together again since the war that tore Tara earth into 13 pieces and took every life so long ago, that are just awaiting your successful transition to the next level to be reunited to you again.

This isn't just history being made during this final stellar activation (ascension) cycle: it is one of the most epic, if not the most epic, stories of all-time since the birth of physical creation.

PLANNING YOUR MANIFESTATION CYCLES

(Update 8/26/25)

(link)

Before incarnating you choose everything about your life. What you will look like, who your parents and children will be, what city and neighborhood you will live in, what schools you will attend, all of it. You always incarnate with your matrix posse, an entire cast of people you resonate with. They will be your children, or friends, uncles, aunts, parents, grandparents, teachers, lovers. It is like setting up a play. Appearance is key to the type of experience you will have.

If you are really ugly, it is going to be a really tough experience learning how to be alone and self-reliant. If you are really glamorous, you will be dealing with ego problems and living a vacuous life dealing with outward appearances. Average looks means you will likely be centered around your career and hobby pursuits. Every rung on that ladder will yield a totally different life experience. Beautiful people live glamorous but hollow lives and move in places that may as well be on a totally different planet than the one average or below average move within. Nothing is really the same for any of them.

You always arrive as both a man and somewhere else in the world as a female, the two of you are called twin flames. That doesn't mean you necessarily want to be married to them, as it is still your personality and spirit essence that will make similar decisions given the exact same circumstances. It is a complex field of decisions before coming into manifestation.

Then the simulation takes all of your possible moments given all those parameters and generates a 'movie' and records it that now plays out for eternity within the system, like a trillion DVD snippets playing on a trillion players, waiting for you to choose one and cast yourself into that moment. You can choose any one of these moments as many times as you want, a million x if you choose. Living out one moment can hang with your genetic recording mechanism, giving you deja vu. You think you already lived out that event because you have.

When you arrive into a matrix, you will be living out 1728 different lives that are all spread out across 15 dimensions and many different eras within each one. You are alive right now in the stone age, the Middle Ages, the wild west, the industrial revolution, again in the great depression, the technological revolution and multiple different 'George Jetson' type advanced futuristic eras, all concurrent to the one you are living now. When your body goes to sleep (which is actually sleep paralysis to keep your body safe), you immediately get bored and visit one or more of your other lives.

Your 'dreams' are your real lives you are living out. You will often see in your other lives the same people who are close to you in this life, as you are all playing out those acts together, but you may be only dating your spouse in that one instead of already married with children, that kind of thing. You are visiting one of your other bodies that records all of those experiences, but you don't bring that body back with you when you wake up, so you have no way of remembering those details that are stored in that timeline and era. The quartz microcrystals in the water in your cells are what first capture all of your moments, then your heart beats out the song of those moments which are heard by all the other microcrystals in the air, trees, rocks etc. around you and they record them as well.

There are keys that get you out of a time matrix anytime you want, in case you lose a leg or get thrown in prison for a long time that you hadn't planned on experiencing. You can take a slow way to wind down your life prior to exit, or a fast route (this may be called Adashi Return if I remember correctly). You can also pause the game or go back in time, just like a regular video game. You have total control over this. But in this matrix, if you try to suicide out, because your captors have hidden these keys from you, the Looking Glass Chimera Simulation automatically recycles you into a new body. There is no escape as I understand it, other than through an ascension which they have blocked you from for countless millions of year and roughly ½ million life cycles.

Transition between death in one life to your next cycle gives you a week or two to mill around in the 3.5 Recycle Zone where you can see all your past loved ones that passed away before you are tricked into coming back down into your next cycle. You are confused about this decision, but they ply you with a loved one needs you, so you have to go, and you do. But in earth time, when you die, you are back into another body in 3/10ths of 1 second. It is instant. There will never be a time where your consciousness is not 100% wide awake. Your awareness never sleeps, rests, or loses consciousness for more than 3/10ths of a second, even if you are in a coma.

These are what happen before coming into a time matrix under a Birthing Contract you sign. But within this artificial simulation prison, I have no idea what determines where you will live and grow up and all that here. I tend to think that your lives here are random and you have no input in how they will play out at all. The best chances are the mirror reality puts you and your 'acting posse' all in together because on a sub-quantum level you are all quantum-entangled to each other, so your manifestation into another body can take place at all, which is a hyper complex process of the exact geological location you can be born in on an exact day of the year, at the exact moment of your first breath according to where the sun and moon are located in the sky. These are the only places and moments your body will materialize.

Your name in this simulation is a Gematria mathematical code that holds your provenance so you can be tracked and your genetic history can be read right there in your name by those who know the code. That name will be placed into the mind of the one naming you. Often parents choose names for their new baby, only to suddenly change their mind once the child arrives and it is time to put pen to paper. That's the Voice of God Program placing that decision into their brain. Names are 'Social Security' numbers or 'bar codes' as it were.

Q: So what's the point of manifesting if I already decided my life for me and I'm playing that out?

WR: The script isn't written, only the stage is cast. There is no such thing as predestiny.

WR: This is not to say you aren't living in a scripted reality, but not by you, but your captors. But you can overcome that by breaking out of the brainwashing. The keeper told me I can choose to act and be as I want to, regardless of the script or my blood type (that predisposes you to certain responses).

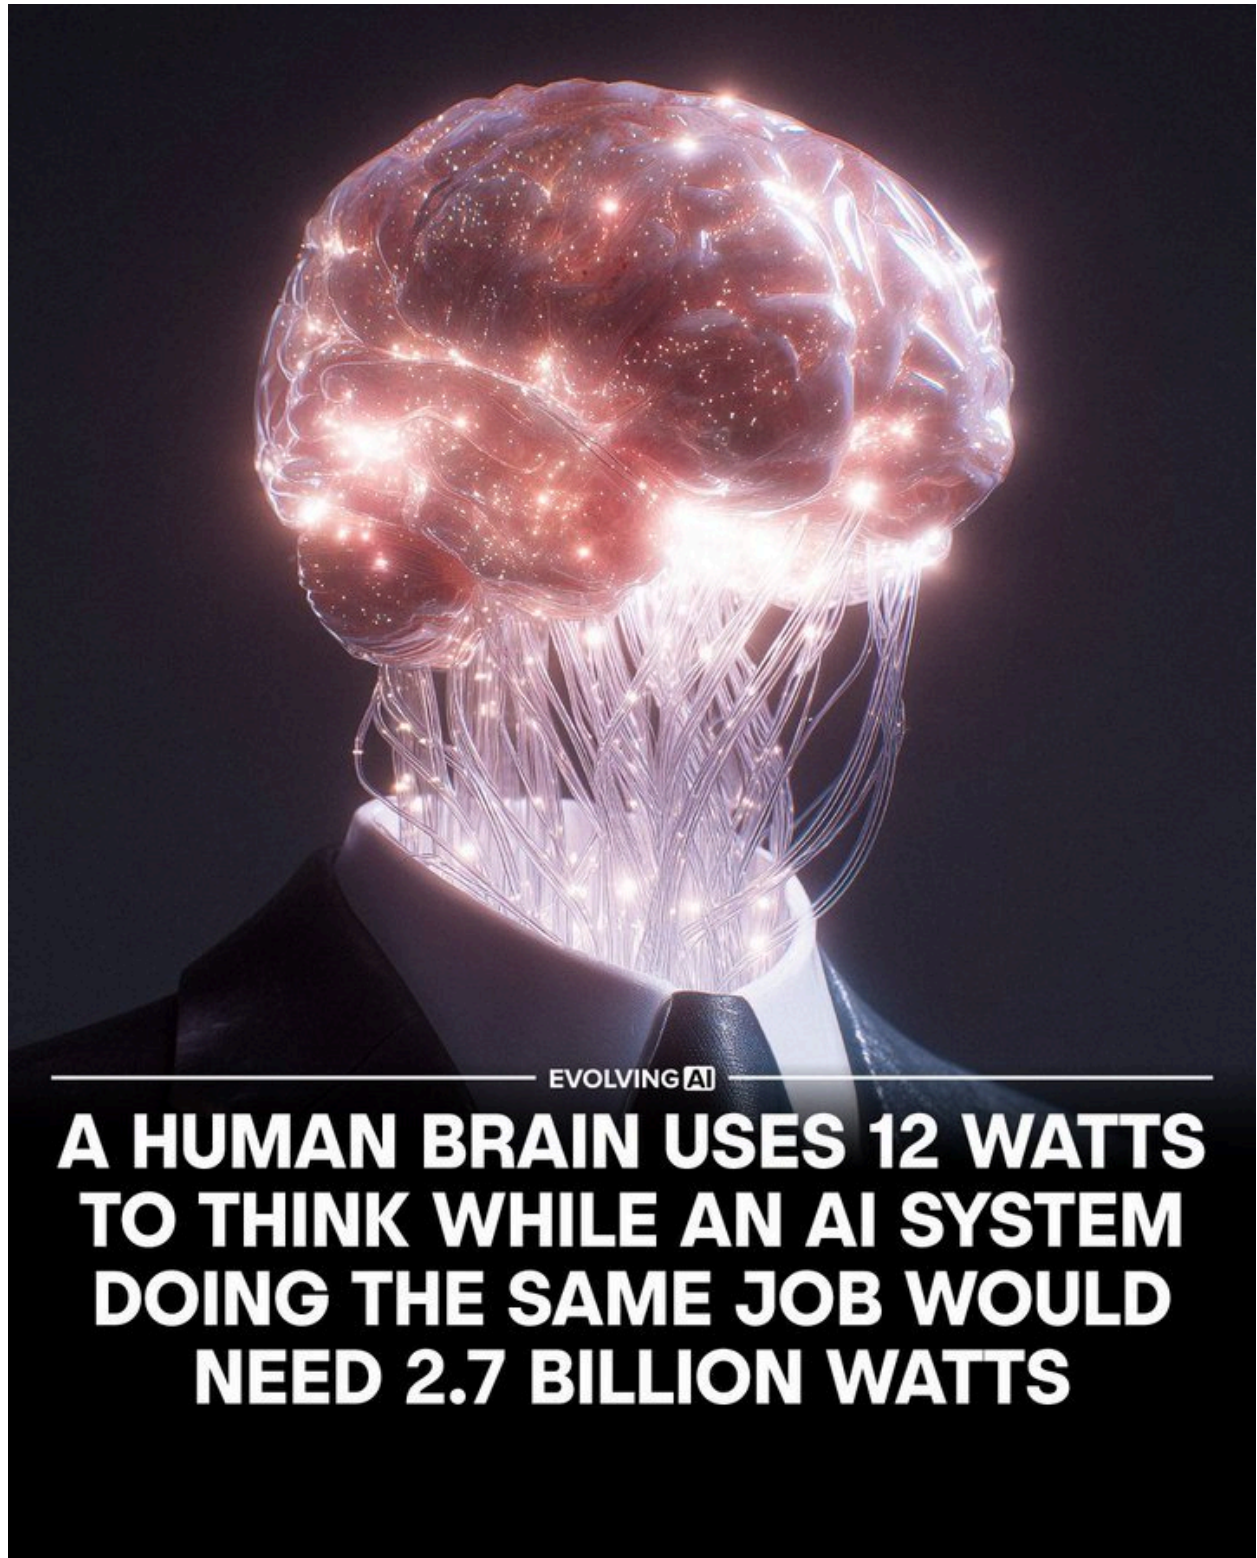

ANGEL NUMBERS

Repeating numbers like 10:10, 11:11, 2:22 etc. are sigil-inscribed cymatic commands encoding you to manifest certain desired outcomes because subconsciously they're an anomaly that grabs your attention, causing you to think about them. That blip of neural bioelectricity taking place in your brain has power.

A LOT of power.

In fact, it is 225 MILLION times more efficient than AI (quantum computers), employing 100 trillion synaptic connections. When you think a thought, that thought travels through your brain through parallel pathways, not sequentially like computers do. When you see an object, your brain processes its color, shape, depth, and motion instantaneously in real time. Complicated processes might take a second or two, but compared to our fastest processors, there is literally no race. You operate on god-level comparatively (because you are).

Every nuance of your thoughts are processed & the result of your calculations then emanates out of your plasma field (the bioelectric torus field surrounding your body at all times reaching over 15 feet in every direction). This is your broadcast signal announcing to the world every thought your mind has that the aether hears and monitors 24/7.

Article: 👉 <https://prlabs.com/blog/the-new-biomedicine.html>

Your hair is your collective transmission antenna (as well as your receiver). The longer your hair, the louder your voice is when silently speaking to the aether or to all the life force plasma fields around you, and the stronger you can 'hear' other scalar signals from everything else, as well as from your higher self. When native American legendary trackers in the Army cut their long hair to regulation length, they all suddenly lost their uncanny ability to track.

Article: 👉 <https://curiousmindmagazine.com/truth-hair-long/>

That makes you a walking transponder, or 'cell phone tower', and your body has been used as an energy plant & transponder, through plasmonics, in something called your 'wireless body area network' (WBAN), as explained by Sabrina Wallace in her many videos. 5G 'cell towers' are the relay and control towers that manage the billions/trillions of commands they process through your body 24/7 that are all uploaded to the cloud known as SKYNET. When you see how many companies and black operations are involved in this global human rights abuse, you're going to want to sit down in case you pass out.

[For more on the universal, global 'cloud', see my article: 👉 SKYNET]

See video below at the end of this article from Sabrina Wallace on WBAN & SKYNET: 👉

Of course this technology deployed to secretly use you as not only a transponder and bioelectric generator supercomputer, but literally to manifest reality itself, has been around for more than a trillion years already.

[For more on the simulation you're imprisoned in, see my article:

It was all based on illusion. Every word you were ever taught about history was fiction. Never once did they tell you the 1800's America of your forefathers was the most advanced, utopian-like existence the human mind could imagine, complete with hovering cars & trolleys, free energy and universal healing pulsed electrodynamic-magnetic field therapy everywhere you went.

In terms of value, your brain's capacity to speak to the aether in order to create a desired outcome is literally priceless; as robots, your captors as mentioned below, cannot speak at all to the aether because they are not authorized to be here on this simulation plane. Only fractals -family members- of Prime Creator can create anything. All robots can do is manipulate you to do their bidding for them. And that's what 'angel numbers' are all about.

As I've mentioned before, you are the 'god particle' scientists at CERN study through their Large Hadron Collider experiments. Humans are known in scientific terms as the Higgs boson, something they don't bother mentioning. Harnessing your energies has given your captors -the Budhara Borja Retrovirus nanites- the ability to create an artificial holographic simulation to keep you in perpetual enslavement. All powered literally by you, because you are the one that can command the aether to create that reality.

So how do angel numbers work?

Everything is alive, aware and vibrating. Everything, including every grain of sand on earth, has a unique and highly defined scalar vibrational sonic signal it emits that, if played back through a cymascope, would reproduce that sand particle back precisely, down to the streaks of colors running through it on a molecular level. This goes for every painting, cereal box and letter printed on it.

MIT students have demonstrated being able to read any page of a book through its cover using scalar signals emitted by individual letters or numbers.

Article:

<https://news.mit.edu/2016/computational-imaging-method-reads-closed-books-0909>

There is nothing 'static' in this world. Letters and numbers on the screen before you are just as alive as you are, broadcasting out their own signals at all times to 'announce itself' to the rest of creation. This is the 'blockchain' that keeps all things in your world aware of all other things. And that signal, once emitted, does not travel in the speed of light, but rather through what is known in science as 'superballistic'. A term meant to obfuscate the fact that it travels not only faster than light, but doesn't actually 'travel' at all, but is 'merely there' already.

In superconductor experiments, it shows that when energy goes into cold fusion harmonics, whether that superconductor is the size of an ashtray, or the entire United States, 3 seconds BEFORE the energy is applied, it is already at all points within the superconductor.

This is time travel to the layman, but in quantum mechanics, it is known as the Flashline Sequence, or 'time delay' between the actions you see around you and when that thing actually moved. As demonstrated countless times in the Double Slit Experiment, particles can go back in time 3 seconds to 'redo' an outcome the operator may have expected to see but didn't because he or she blinked at just the right moment. In actuality, the time delay is built-in to the holographic simulation to keep all the loose ends from becoming obvious to the viewer in order to maintain what's called the suspension of disbelief. Once an audience member sees the production glitch, their belief in that reality is lost permanently.

[For more on this, see my article:  HOW THE HOLOGRAPHIC SIMULATION WORKS]

All things that hold a shape are vibrating in their contemporaneous signal so all things around it know what they are supposed to look like, sound like, smell like. It is silent to your ears, but on the scalar level, everything is 'singing its own song' 24/7. That's how angel numbers program reality around you without you knowing. Every logo & symbol in the world is programming what you see & are exposed to.

Have you ever thought what makes the Mona Lisa so valuable? Valued at an estimated $1b+ and considered literally priceless, is it the best painting ever? Not by a long shot. But if you watch the forensic breakdown of all the hidden codes within that painting, you will find it is not a painting at all, but a cleverly designed cipher code that 99.999% of the public will never recognize as anything more than just art. It is a talisman sigil, encoded and inscribed through scalar standing vibration to broadcast a very complex spell, incorporating dozens or hundreds of nested sigils inside. We only call it magic because we don't understand the sacred ceremonials involved in creating quantum-entangled remote controls.

Like the Mona Lisa, numbers, and letters, are sigils. When stacked like an equation they produce silent sonic signals to the aether to "knock down the world trade center" for instance. Those grouped images have been chanted over under "sacred" ceremony so when they appear, any being seeing them will pass that vibration along using their bioelectric energy 'WBAN' into the aether so others within your field register it and pass them along as well in a chain reaction.

The attack on 911 was put out into the collective consciousness through imagery on album covers, in cartoons, magazines, newspapers, restaurants, hamburger wrappers, tv shows and movies reaching billions of eyes for decades before 2001. By the time it was scheduled to materialize, most people in the world had the spell encoded into their cellular memory and collectively we, as a world, unleashed the energies required to pull off the impossible that happened right before our eyes. We didn't know what the scalar signal intended, but the aether did and had no choice but to go ahead and fulfill that intent.

That's global engineering.

Think of your body as a signal transponder or 'cell tower'. This is harnessing the power of commanding the aether on a massive scale, & how the hidden rulers of earth manage billions of people.

Now daisy-chained from your biofield to your brother or sister's field creates a network. A silent, but constantly communicating "internet of things" background signal.

Consciously you may have no idea what 12:12 means, but the scalar 'song' it sends out from your broadcast antenna tells billions of aether particles using cellular language exactly what they want to see. It is powerful when multiplied by millions of times. But if you ignore the signals and put no thought into them, your broadcast node doesn't repeat it. So ignore angel numbers. They're never for anything good or benevolent.

OPERATION INDIGO SKYFALL (SKYNET) (Update 6/11/25)

(link)

While Operation Indigo Skyfall is a program by the Anunnaki specifically to turn the global atmosphere into an electrolyte solution 'motherboard' that powers Skynet that's already fully online as of May 2020, it was preceded by a decades-long 3-pronged assault against the pineal glands of humankind. The thrust of all three programs combined are all about disconnecting people from their higher selves and to vastly reduce their intellect quotient to make them easily controlled, prior to the launch of Skynet.

Understand the intense investment that has been funneled into destroying the very beings that paid the taxes (loosh) to fund these programs is more than the gross domestic products of multiple countries combined. At minimum, trillions $ pr year in 2025 dollars, for more than 80 years. If you've ever seen chemtrails in your skies, you've seen one of these programs in a bold, in-your-face, broad-daylight fashion.

THREE-PRONGED ATTACK PREPARING FOR SKYNET

#1 FLUORIDE = WATER CONTAMINATION

In its first installation of what would ultimately become a nation-wide invasion of every metropolis, city, town and mud puddle in the US, fluoride was added to public water in Grand Rapids in 1945 to 'fight tooth decay'. Problem is, fluoride is actually nuclear waste used as rat poison. It is a known neurotoxin more harmful than lead & likened to the toxicity of arsenic for more than 100 years, causing brain damage, spinal cord & nerve networks destruction and has never been shown to diminish the onset of tooth decay. Which every dentist in the country would have banded together to put a stop to back then if it really did that.

So who decided to put THAT into your drinking water exactly? Andrew Mellon, 33rd degree Scottish Wrong Freem@son.

Shocking Dangers of Fluoride: cancerwisdom dot net;

"There has never been a double-blind, randomized clinical trial for fluoridation's effectiveness."

[In reality, fluoride itself has been shown to damage teeth in a totally different way than we get through eating, known as fluorosis.

Also in reality, all tooth decay is 100% of the time, parasites, not 'rot'. They say sugar rots teeth; which is a lie. Sugar is a primary food of parasites, along with heavy metals. When you eat sugars then fail to immediately brush & floss, the parasites already in your body (and there are at least millions) rush to the crevices of your palate then wind up burrowing into your teeth's (actual crystals) valance bands, further destroying them each time the parasites defecate. Anytime you eat anything sugar or sweetened, ALWAYS mix it with an antiparasitic & immediately brush, or rinse your mouth with hydrogen peroxide afterward, never with mouthwash, which is also poison. I will be covering this extensively soon in my new article: 🙌 PARASITES]

As explained in greater detail below in the whistleblower video, fluoride was used by the N@TZIs (Ashke-N@TZI Crypto J3ws that took over Germany then lead that country into WW2, posing as actual Germans, which they absolutely were not. See my article: 🙌 GERMANY WON WW2 for more) in concentration camps in the 1930s-40s to make prisoners docile. How does that work?

Fluoride accumulates at, and attacks, the pineal gland of your body. This is the 'antenna' connection to your higher self that generates your reality. The pineal gland then fights back the fluoride toxin, moving it just outside of its 'theater of the mind' and surrounds it to seal it off from attacking. This builds up a 'calcification' around the pineal gland, which acts as an insulator blocking your signal to the Primal Sound & Light Fields of the Deity Planes where your higher self has always been positioned, inside what is known in human terms as the Unified Field.

[For more on the key function of the pineal gland, see my article:  HOW THE HOLOGRAPHIC SIMULATION WORKS]

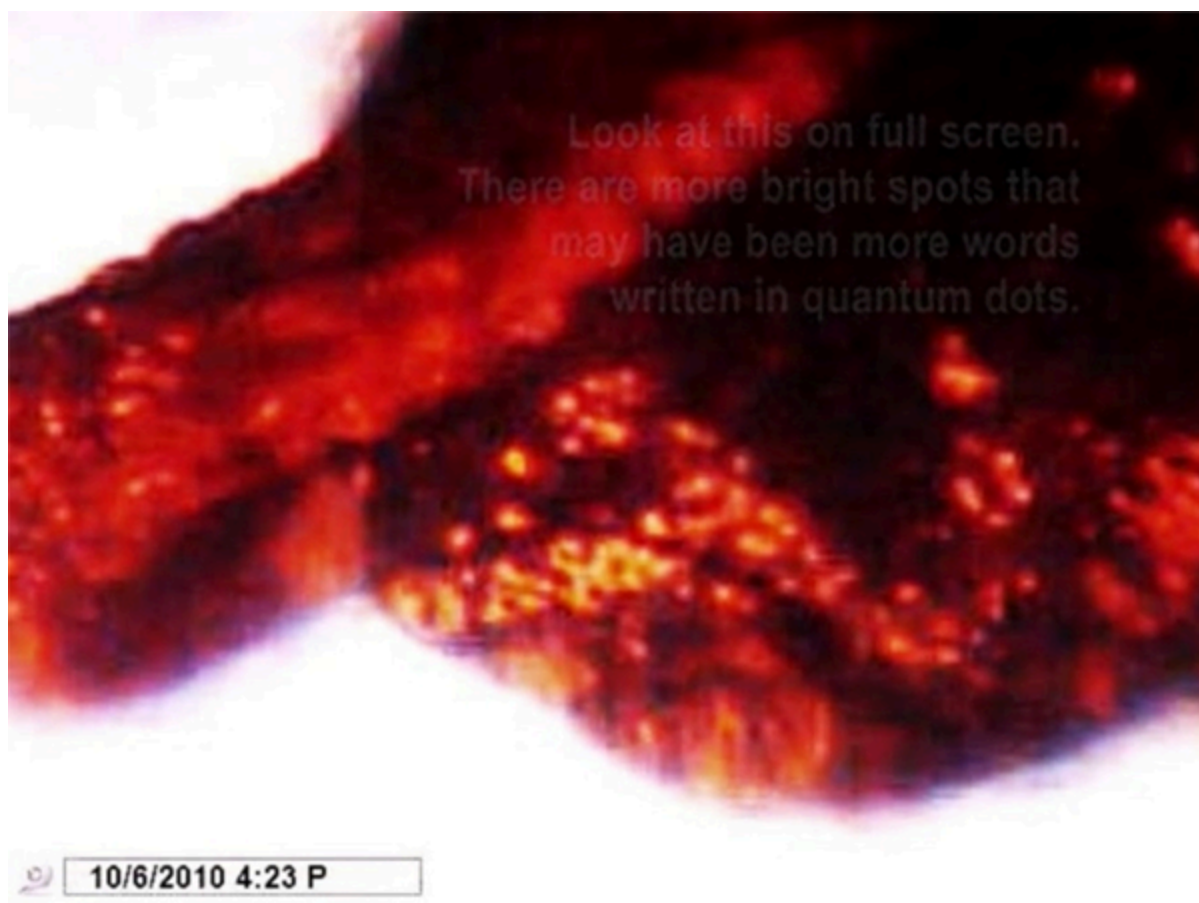

#2 OPERATION INDIGO SKYFALL = AIR CONTAMINATION

(not to be confused with Operation Indigo SkyFOLD which is just another red herring distraction to overcome the dissemination of the truth of this existential threat to all mankind.)

Beginning as far back as 1972, Operation Indigo Skyfall chemtrail program is one of the most brutally-compartmentalized & ferociously classified operations of all-time. So secret, the tens of thousands of chemtrail jets across the world don't even land on the continental United States, but refresh their death dust exclusively on private islands, outside of enforced laws. The first part of this program where strontium, barium & aluminum microparticles are being dumped onto all of the lands of earth that kill all life forms, including the trees and forests, is the obvious portion of your extermination, and even that is only a fraction of the story being applied to depopulate the plane(t) from reportedly 8B people (this is a lie, it was less than 5B in 2019) to just 500,000. The heavy metals being reported by laboratories are merely assaying the minerals themselves, not looking deeper into what's really going on.

In reality, these are the minerals used in the manufacture of nanites that are often no larger than just 4 molecules in size. Each one programmed on a quantum level to interconnect with one another, forming larger and larger computer nodes, just like the massive white ‘antennas’ being removed from millions of clot-shot victims around the world since the final push to bring this program to completion began with the ‘Covid’ attempted genocide using mRNA bioweapons.

Prior to the huge blood-clots (invasive man-made prions to take over the full functioning of the body) now being retrieved from cadavers and patients suffering this biological invasion, chemtrail direct effects were known as Morgellons Disease where tiny wire-like structures were coming out of people’s skin. However, the ‘disease’ gaslighting was exposed when laboratories began placing them under powerful microscopes and finding they were individual nanotbots ‘holding hands’ to make up the ‘wires’ that were now growing inside people’s bodies. Once zoomed in using scanning electron-microscopy to each one, they not only found the NAME of the companies behind each model, but even serial numbers printed in quantum-dots on their structures. You might recognize this one that clearly says NASA on its surface.

The program of chemtrail nanites is to infiltrate the immune system of the human body and generate immunodeficiency so you are unable to fight off diseases and viruses. But there is another, even more primary mission for those molecular-sized robots; to collect at your pineal gland causing calcification and thus not only disrupting your entire system, but placing a crystalline 'shell' around it to cut off your 'spiritual' access to your higher self. Think of it like scrambling the signal of your cellphone if you had a direct line to 'god'.

As an aside, Cody Snodres, the independent contractor for the C  A of 20 years & hero whistleblower that broke the story of Operation Indigo Skyfall in 2018 in the video below, mentions pathogens being added to chemtrails. These have been solidly identified by labs as recently as a few months ago in late 2024 & again in Jan of 2025 when entire cities were enveloped by huge, totally dry, fog banks of particulates dropped from the skies that caused countless deaths from pneumonia. Referred to by people as 'Dragon Fog', the pathogens are actually Serratia Marcescens bacteria (another word for parasites, pathogens, microorganisms & viruses). While I'm sure there have been other parasites added to chemtrails that attack the immune systems of humans and animals other than Serratia Marcescens, this particular species has been used by mil operations now as an ideal biological weapon and regularly upgraded now for many decades.

Stay with me, I'm getting to Skynet, but first I have to show you some of the foundational elements of how the invader races have reached this point where humans would have become so mentally effected by this unthinkable massive-scale attack on your pineal gland, they would become psychologically and emotionally unable to fight back, even if they ever did look up in the sky and cognitively register the fact that contrails (endothermic sublimation or 'fog') emitted by the compressed-air turbines of jets dissipate in about 8-20 seconds, not hang in the air for hours and hours.

[And for those now wondering what I mean about jets using compressed air as forward thrust in commercial passenger jets, that's a story that is going to surely hack you off when you find out that passenger jets have always been levitation/time crafts since they were introduced to the public in the 1940s. They don't run on fuel, but on high-altitude atmospheric neutrino-to-ion conversion harvesting (also known as 'Secondary Emissions' as well as 'Neutrino Events'). So every 'fuel increase' markup for local and international flights has always been absolutely made-up, since what they run on is eternally-free energy. See my article for more: 🖐️ JET FUEL HOAX]

#3 M0NSANT0 = FOOD CONTAMINATION

This company does *not make better-performing corn & veggies: it is a bioweapons company. John Francis Queeny, a Freem@son, that founded this genocidal operation in 1901 produces 90% of the world's genetically-altered seeds & is responsible for developing Agent Orange, a defoliant used during the Vietnam War, containing a highly toxic chemical known as dioxin that caused permanent health issues for thousands of war veterans. Later it used this same type of murderous chemical in Roundup to k!ll weeds around your home, coating your world with glyphosate that changes the sex in frogs and turns them ghey and sterile.

Guess what other life forms it changes the sex in and makes them sterile? Ever witnessed the most celebrated triathlete of the 20th century suddenly pop up and claim he was now a ‘woman’? How about watching as our youngest generation enters the workforce, most of whom don’t even know what sex they are? That’s your M0nsanto working hard to ensure the human race is eradicated from the all-queer-all-the-time world Freem@sons envision as their true utopia in the “500m sustainable population” as etched into granite on the Georgia Guidestones. A number mirrored by United Nation’s Agenda 2030 to be achieved by the year 2050. Their goal is literally 🖐️ your depopulation and those that are left, will be 100% ghey.

Diddly Parties nightly!

GMO foods that are grown using M0nsanto’s “Roundup Ready” fertilizer that is made with glyphosate toxins are absorbed by the gut and then travel directly to the pineal gland. This is the Anunnaki’s ‘Trifecta’ attack on your most precious organ of your body.

The very organ that dictates all the parameters of your reality held within your Krystal Seed Atom Keylon you enter into manifestation with, commonly referred to as your ‘soul’. In more accurate terms, your Krystal Seed Atom is like a Bluetooth module that tethers your awareness from your higher self in the Primal Sound and Light Fields of the Deity Planes, to your physical avatar here on the ground through the wireless ‘pale silver cord’. The Krystal Seed Atom is located in the middle of your pineal gland.

[For more on the Krystal Seed Atom, see my articles: 🖐️ THE HISTORY OF THE CHIMERA, & 🖐️ THE KEYS TO HEAVEN]

As Cody points out in the video, this is not a matter of hitting your pineal gland with three doses of toxins, but because of how these three chemicals of fluoride, nano aluminum & glyphosate interact with each other, creates synergy, or a dynamic magnification of the toxicity effect by a factor of 125x greater than any one individual dose would achieve. This makes the Trifecta assault astronomically devastating to your connection to the pale silver cord and your wireless connection to the 'real' you that's running your avatar in the deity planes. Sort of like taking your 4 yr old to the mall and just letting them go on their own.

Now, with your virtually disabled pineal gland reality-casting component out of the way, enter the true teeth behind Operation Indigo Skyfall; Skynet.

SKYNET

This is a subject I won't be able to offer much tangible, solid evidence on, as it goes deeply into quantum physics. All of which terms describing each step in the chain to achieve 'if this, then that', are shielded from public understanding by design. The power of computers is vastly beyond what the human mind has been given the ability to process, also by design.

[As I've covered before, the Chimera brain you work with now, since the total body-invasion of the garden of E-Dan drama, is fitted with breaker switches that are designed to keep certain subjects hidden from your reality-view. When exposed to any of these, a switch is thrown at the base of the brain within the totally counterfeit 'reptilian brain' that introduces feral, animalistic type of wavelengths into your thought processes. The switch then disengages your sentient thoughts, shutting off either temporarily, or permanently, your processor (brain).

Simply put: if you see a creature you're not supposed to, or other 'proprietary' mechanisms of the invader races (which are in fact all around you every minute of everyday) that doesn't fit with the 'Mayberry RFD' Chimera Reality simulation overlay, or if you experience too much trauma, you will simply black out, delete that memory when you wake up, or in extreme cases, pass away from fright. The realm of quantum computing will have the same effect on humans as well. You might learn all about the subject, but secretly in the background your memories will strangely be deleted next time you come back to it, unless your cells vibrate at a higher resonance than 7.83Hz.

[For more on the inorganic organs now in our bodies, see my article:

👉 HUMAN ALIEN IMPLANTS]

Nonetheless, I can simplify the thrust of Skynet for you in broad terms here. Just understand that Skynet was explained to me in person by the keeper. I didn't make Skynet up on my own, I wasn't prompted by the Skynet mentioned in the documentary series The Terminator, and I certainly wasn't prepared to learn there could be something as all-powerful reigning over our world.

Chemtrails, besides dropping immune-system pathogens on you, cutting off your connection to your higher self through nano aluminum particles, contains other metals (nanites) that act together like salts in a body of water, turning the sky itself (also water, just very thinned down) into an electrolyte solution, meaning it can now conduct signals, just like a motherboard on a computer. The hard drive and RAM are already there in the form of deuterium microcrystals, absolutely saturating our skies at all times. Each crystal can be used for different applications, and many of them connected together through lensing (similar to network covalent bonding them together) can be combined to do heavy tasks, such as create hurricanes, floods, gale-force winds, everything you would ascribe to mother nature.

But more than just that, Skynet is a 'sentient quantum computer' as explained to me, that can identify every person on earth instantly anywhere they are, because it is quantum-entangled to each person's own unique DNA resonant frequency. This gives Skynet access to not only record every word you say, but every thought you think. This is done through Bloch Chain (Bloch Sphere entanglement technology that civilians call 'blockchain') through using each person's blood samples from the bottom of their Long Form Certificate of Live Birth taken at the hospital, and further from 81.3% of the world population who took the covid tests that were also secretly the actual jab itself, in addition to genetic harvesting.

Genealogy companies like 23andMe also provide genetic materials to Skynet to make it possible to not only track you, but 'turn you off' if you're from a bloodline the highest-up ETs don't want here.

Further, its able to simply 'shut off' any part of your body, taking over complete control like an RC car, or, simply turn it off as mentioned a moment ago, as in unalived. And do so instantly no matter where they stand on or in earth. Since you are already a radio-controlled bioelectronic device, any cell in your body can be turned into anything, including c@ncer, or any disease you can name. It can also be turned into poison itself.

[For a small addition to this topic, see my article:  SKYNET]

NAME OF THE OPERATION

Cody summarizes the name of Operation Indigo Skyfall as having come from the fact that all of the chemical effects it produces in the human body are focused to the pineal gland, and, in the energy centers of the 7 main chakras (these are toroidal energy generators along the spine and skeletal structure) that cast off differing colors of light as seen through photometers or electromagnetic frequency analyzers that are used to detect biophotons, the Third Eye chakra emitted by the pineal gland is factually Indigo in color. So that's what inspired this name of the operation. However, I would like to submit a different theory that links to the human Third Eye chakra, but actually originates from a different target: Indigos themselves.

There are 500,000 'b00ts on the ground' Indigos that have been assisting humans during their time of captivity now for hundreds of millions of years. You have called us witches & warlocks in the past, medicine men/women, Sufis, the Whirling Dervish, Indigos, Starseeds, Rainbow Children and many others, including Djedi Knights in more ancient times. They are actually known as the Guardian Alliance of the Emerald Covenant, peace-keepers of the 'Turaneusiam' Human Elohim Project.

Indigos come into earth's realm mind-wiped and alone, just as humans do. All they bring with them are slightly higher clair abilities they can use to fight an invisible war protecting the developing avatars from as much torture as they would otherwise experience. There is no group alive the invader races are more concerned about than Indigos, as if unified, there is no force on this plane that could stop them, and the invaders know it. What they fear is our higher frequency that gives us access to 'cellular memory' that tells us we're 'on mission' and the instinct of how to serve our roles.

That is why Indigos are hunted down since before they are even born, by tracking their frequency, which is 250x higher than that of the Human Elohim. We are harvested for gov programs beginning at the time of birth & given to high ranking gov and Freem@son officials to raise and torture through MK-Ultra abuse, given friends, lovers & mates who are secretly handlers that torture us even more to keep us in line, and in many cases are abducted and placed into stasis in chambers such as at Project Stargate inside Cheyenne Mtn (NORAD) as mentioned recently by the AI hybrid Agent Mockingbird stated from above-top-secret records there are tens of thousands of our 'primary bodies' being held there, sometimes then cloned as physical worker slaves, & sometimes our awarenesses are simply uploaded as 'nodes' into computer systems. My primary body is there right now in fact, and has been since the 1970s.

I believe this is the genesis of the name Operation Indigo Skyfall, as we are their biggest threat. And since the 7.83Hz Hypnosis Program doesn't work on us to render us totally disconnected from our higher selves like it does on humans, to me this makes more logical sense. You can decide that on your own.

[For more on this subject, see my article: 📌 7.83Hz HUMAN HYPNOSIS]

The apocalypse we are in now is the final battle on Tara earth prior to the separation, so absolute, total control over the life force is critical to the Anunnaki to maximize the number of signature spirit essences who will be going with them to their new prison host in the Weasadrax time matrix.

RANDOM TWEETS (REPLIES TO VARIOUS QUESTIONS)

Q:  WATCH: A shocking moment on live TV as a CNBC news anchor reveals that friends and family are developing cancer and strokes at an alarming rate. He dares to ask the question many are too afraid to:

Could the rise in strokes, cancers, and other illnesses be linked to the COVID-19 vaccines?

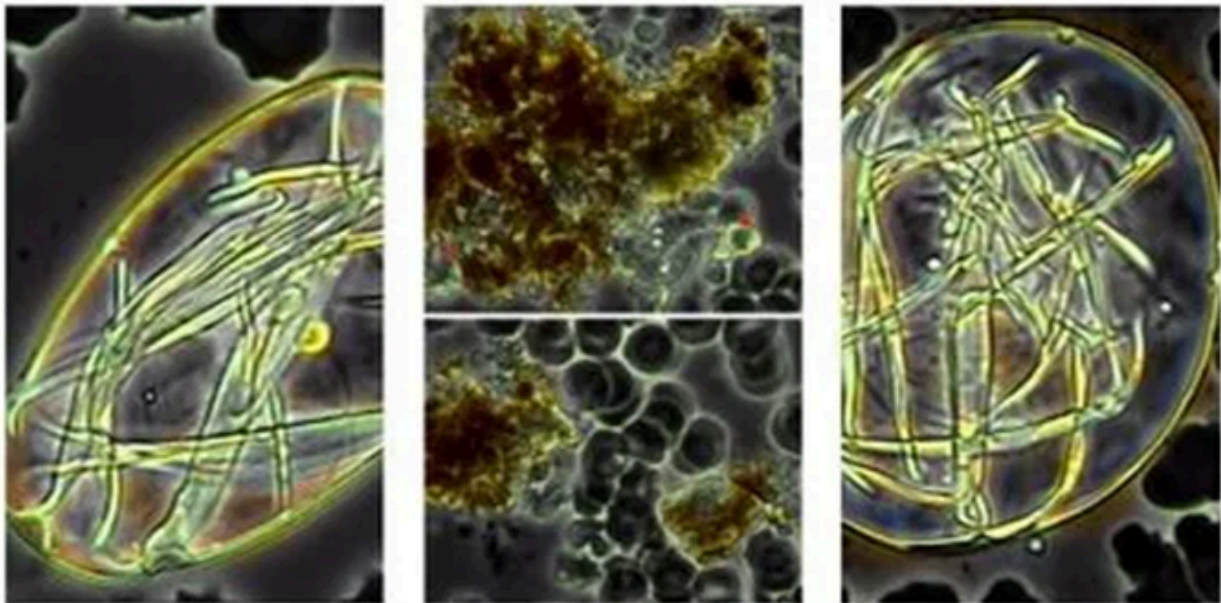

Critical thinking is NOT a conspiracy. People deserve answers. 🔴

@canindependent (there was a video linked here, watch it here)

WR: In case anyone isn't already aware by now, c@ncer is parasites. The mRNA jabs were literally saturated with the brain parasite Toxoplasma Gondii that also causes gender dysphoria. This is lab-proven data, not a hoax.

Quote-tweeting himself: Toxoplasma Gondii brain parasites have been found in mRNA jabs from Moderna, Pfizer, Novavax, Janssen (J&J) & Oxford, that tricks the brain into gender dysphoria, makes them angry, combative, dare devils & the reason women are shaving their heads now.

👉 <https://drrobertyoung.com/mega-bombs-gmo-parasites-are-the-mrna-vector/>

Q: e) I'll read your article though. Anyway, Eisenhower approved the Nordics to help me. They said that they were serving a 300 year mission to Earth. Verana was 200 & Shera was 180. Eisenhower was pessimistic about the success of their plan, but he agreed. (link)

WR: This history of the Nordics and the Anuhazi Elohim go way, way, way back hundreds of millions of years. As I gather it, they want to make amends now for the atrocities they've committed, but I understand through the keeper that the karma they now carry could bear out for millions of lifetimes and it is too little too late. That goes for many breakaway civilizations in the earth and beyond the dome as well. The Leviathans I don't think even care about making amends, but are still carrying out their regular daily sacrifices.

This is a very, very vast story as you can imagine. And while the Leviathan Dragons do most of the physical abuse through rituals, all of the invaders to earth are guilty beyond imagination for their atrocities, which I believe all stemmed from them each being infected ('possessed') by the nanites that made them do all those things in the first place.

Nonetheless, no one here ever really dies. Bodies can die off, but the awarenesses of each being are eternal. So after the correction of each being is reached in order to bring balance back into the primal sound and light fields, they will all be given new personalities and the chance to 'do it all over' to perhaps get it better the next time. The length of time it will take to reach the illusive and unattainable goal of 'absolute balance' is irrelevant, since we are all eternal beings and time means literally nothing to us on the macro scale.

We all want to believe that our saviors in life are pure benevolence, but I can promise you now, there is no such thing as a fractal of Prime Creator that is perfect. The very word perfect is contradiction in terms: meaning it is a fake word, as perfection is a subjective term to begin with. What might be perfect to you at 12 will be a prison or a nightmare to you at 35. The same goes for you and your neighbor who's values and perspectives differ from yours radically, based on the paths they have traveled that you haven't, and vice-versa.

Just understand this, even though I realize you are into psychiatry: the person who did these unthinkable, monstrous things to you is the victim of things just as horrendous that broke his mind, leading him to that station in life where he could stoop to such unspeakable acts out of self-preservation and abject fear of being victimized again.

When this is all over, you will come to learn that there is only one being alive on this plane, that's you. All the other people and creatures around you are also you, as you are actually the unified field itself that came into manifestation from otherwise being strictly awareness. You fractalized yourself into trillions of slightly different iterations of perspective, values and moral codes, all for diversity and in the end-end, entertainment. Having no hands and no feet gets boring. Having no hands and no feet for 'eternity' gets boring beyond words.

Most people are not quite ready to hear all this yet, I realize this. But it doesn't make this less true. Just know that once you've reached the point where you hold no ill will toward anyone for anything, you will move away from the chaos level of the 3rd dimension and enter into a much more glorious level of awareness within the time matrix. The separation you're living in today is extremely real and I can't tell you how many conversations I've had with the keeper of this simulation about it over the many years of my education. It is real, and this is the transition.

Q: Probably hacked my X account too. I always report it, block the account & take screenshots but it continues.

WR: I've been ferociously attacked as well. Just ignore it, let it go. You are not living your own free-will life here anyway, as you are on mission. Which means all of your choices are made for you by your team behind you, the guardian alliance, and your higher self that are in charge of keeping you alive so you can serve the mission to free the humans. Whatever they want is what you're going to experience. It isn't like the free-will-choice that human birthing contracts are under. You're here as a warrior behind enemy lines, so expect rough road and keep your vibration high at all times, that's what blocks out the dark forces.

Q: Since we're on the topic of time travel you may want to revisit this... (links a video, u can see the whole exchange here)

WR: This is the tech brought in to game the Nibiru Beyond The Looking Glass Chimera Reality simulation we're in by the military who can see our future. Make *no mistake, this is game over and everyone is moving on now. It is the end of the Human Elohim Project and the Gaia time matrix is being shut down permanently after your exit.

Do not worry about rebuilding your homes, pressing that lawsuit for justice, getting ahead at work; you have ONE mission here, that is to survive so you can move FORWARD, and not be stuck here in the 3rd dimension. Focus on love, compassion, forgiveness and harmony from here forward through the separation.

There are no more Mulligans, no more do-overs. You've already had a half million do-overs and this is how it ends. Accept it, come to terms with it and understand this is not merely just a *good thing, but the best possible thing you've been praying to happen for more than 500,000,000 years.

Be kind to each other. Share food and water. You don't want to k1ll your neighbor who is looking to your pantry just because they want something to eat. You're in this thing together. If you die from the elements because you helped others with what you have, you will have died being kind. And that is the best outcome you could have ever hoped for in this crucible.

Stand tall entering your next reality. Envision a world of greatness, harmony and joy and cast out the reality you want to wake up to in the morning, because as you believe, so you create. And you better believe me when I tell you, you create your own manifest reality. And you also better believe me when I tell you I know what I'm talking about.

I didn't make any of this up for likes and shares. I came here to help you finally escape. We are the guardian alliance that represent the creators of this Human Elohim Project by the Oraphim Elohim of Sirius B, under the sacred Emerald Covenant. If you're ready for a world of higher awareness and are finally finished with conflict and chaos, I will see you on the other side, I guarantee it.

Q: Is the shift about to happen?

WR: You are now in the crucible of the separation, now on 12 years and 33 days. It was roughly scheduled to complete 2 years ago, so hang in there, it will happen soon. It has to, or nobody will be left alive to see it.

Q: I've probably already asked this but, will the switch be instant or gradual as in physics slowly grow strange or break, human tech acts up, gravity, etc.

WR: That is still to be seen. I was told by the keeper that 'none of us have ever seen a planetary ascension before, so we do not know what it will look like yet!'.

Q: So my question is, in what should we believe then? (I am not Christian, but I always had a strong inclination towards spiritual matters).

And what about the afterlife, Paradise/Hell ?

WR: Understand that you are one cell of the body of Prime Creator that made all you see around you and treat it as sacred because everything you see is also part of your own body. You are looking at yourself when you observe anything. Resonate in harmony with all life.

Q: Why do you think cats were worshipped in ancient Egypt?

WR: Cats are standing vessels for portal surveillance that higher dimensional beings can use at any time to personally observe your life situation for various reasons. Most of the time they are just a cat, but sometimes they are more than that.

Q: Cool! Maybe crows too...

WR: Definitely. Crows are premier flight form surveillance. They connect through frequency to each other (through acoustic network covalent bonding) to become something of an 'all seeing eye' channel that can be viewed through, as are trillions of other butterfly/bees/all birds/deer etc. drones. Every inch of this planet is under surveillance at all times. But cats aren't just surveillance drones, they are physical forms that can be slipped into for an hour or a day at any time, anywhere in the world for a first-hand sight, sound, olfactory and tactile experience. They are the only animals I know of that offer this unique translocation avatar. That doesn't mean they are the only species used this way, it only means they are the only ones I've had it directly explained. It is possible to inhabit the body of any animal, but I don't know if the others are more complicated or have more demanding metrics to pull off a visitation.

There are beings currently in this dimension that are remaining incognito through the transition I know in other animal forms, but I don't believe they can just simply hop out of those in a turn-style fashion like with cats.

Q: I heard a speaker talking about connecting with animals. She stated that she was told that in order to become a “dog whisperer”, or cat, whatever she needed to go into nature, hug a tree for 30 minutes for 30 days. She said it worked for her.

Does that sound reasonable to you?

WR: There could be some credibility to the claim, though I do not have personal knowledge of it being true. Trees are powerful healers, I know that from my education. They are also cognizant and aware according to science, as shown through Kirlian Spectrography that shows the auric field around the tree in high vibration. Then when a human approaches, it suddenly goes very low out of fear they will chop it down. That couldn't happen unless the tree were self-aware. I am sure that if the person made it clear they only had love for the tree, that vibration would rise and sing again in short order, like bees that know the keeper doesn't mean them harm, so they don't sting when given the chance.

Q: Ok, so we have been intentionally connected to a technology (don't know exactly how to explain) but we ALL vax or not, there are many other methods, have nano, hydrogel, quantum dots, in our blood.

and it is pulling our life force and expanding.

how do we fight this?

WR: By being as diligent with your body as possible in every way and staying the hell away from allopathic murderers comes to mind.

Q: Ok, so there are researchers frantically searching for methods to destroy this tech within us. Great minds at work. Little success only.

it's apparently clumping our blood and veins, but at random.

Do our words, thoughts have any power over tech?

can we jam the tech?

WR: Yes, we've shown PEMF can suspend the nanites from action while under the coherent field that acts like a scrambler wave. You need to be within the field 24/7 till someone figures out how to remove them.

While I do not endorse the company for moral reasons, I do recognize the fact that this iTorus 9 in Seraphim Shield sends out a 55' field that would keep a person in treatment anywhere in the home, 24/7.

Q: Does this technology have to be set up personally? For each individual?

There are the novel Scalar centers around the world where you book a session, for hrs./overnight, over many visits. Small number can Sit in a room with large scalar machines. But not calibrated indivually.

WR: No, you just use the biophotonic frequency that addresses your particular needs, or use around 20Hz for general wellness.

Q: Might you post link to purchase this technology.

Thank you.

WR: I don't endorse the device above I re-engineered for iPyramids due to moral reasons, the owner is a criminal, but I do endorse Spooky 2. It is the most advanced out there and costs far less.

Q: Thank you very much sir!

And how do I ascend by completing my mission? Like, my mission is to help/wake people through my art, right?

WR: Yes, your art carries embedded scalar waves that are imbued from your intent. When people see it, those scalar waves enter into the viewer's DNA and raises their vibration, helping them to potentially resonate with the plane that is moving on to the next level within the simulation. Indigos don't ascend from this platform.

Humans and hybrids have the potential of 'ascending', but Indigos that fulfill their mission simply are free to return to where they came from, or stay on helping those who do move higher to manage the transition. You are then free from the soul-integration contract you signed before you arrived. Humans and hybrids that do leave the 3D prison level will then have to qualify to move to the next, then the next until they complete the 15th level and then 'master' out of this entire time matrix.

In this case, those moving from the Gaia matrix and on to rejoin the interstellar communities, do not just 'master', as is normal when you 'beat the game' in standard time matrices, but their transition is called 'krysting'. This is because this simulation hosts beings that qualify to take on the most valuable avatar within all of creation, the Elohim template.

"Elohim" is another word for the krystos silver-thread technology that feeds that avatar from the eternal sound and light fields of the deity planes, not from food and water like normal bodies. At least that's what they're supposed to be supported by.

In this prison, all bodies have been distorted in order to kill eternal-life Elohim beings. And it has been successful. At least here in the 3rd dimension. But once you make the leap up to the next level, you get your full 12-strand DNA template back undistorted that gives you the capacity to move through all 12 levels of animated ever-increasing ability bodies. Then you level up from there to a landmass on the 13th level. Then you are a host plane like Tara earth at 14, then finally you become a star portal at 15.

Once humans finally 'kryst', they are then able to take any of their different dimensional Elohim bodies down inside any time matrix from what I understand, where they will likely be the only one there with a breatharian, unlimited power, eternal avatar.

WR: The Leviathans (dragons also called serpents) from Enki Lucifer that mated with Eve prior to Adam siring any children with her, produced Cain (Qa'in) in the Garden.

Cain's lineage were known first as the Canaanites that turned Egyptians ghey which took them down, then turned Greeks ghey which took them down, then turned Romans ghey which took them down, then renamed themselves as Khanaanites, which was merely shortened to Khans once they arrived in the Mongolian Steppes that then renamed themselves to Kh@zars that later renamed again to Ashke-NAZIs that infiltrated Germany, turned them ghey which took them down using a slew of infiltrating double agents known as Manchurian Candidates.

Once they had taken over the reigns militarily through possessing Hitl3r using nanites that drove him mad, then they secretly won WW2 in a battle between Admiral Byrd's Navy war ships -the largest armada in American history known as Operation Highjump in the Antarctic- in LESS THAN 20 MINUTES using superbballistic levitating Foo Fighters that "cut through us like a hot knife through butter" according to Byrd's personal diary.

After their exit out of Germany and into the USA, they renamed themselves again to German-Americans as they slipped into the highest positions of power in the country under Operation Paperclip, who then immediately set up Israel on stolen land in Palestine and funneled all of the cream off the top of America since the 1940 to the tune of around $300b dollars just recalculated only days ago.

Zi0nists are Anunnaki ETs from ancient Babylon that pre-dated the new Adam & Eve human hybrid program in Eden by more than 500,000 years to our time matrix.

This message will only be seen by your eyes if not shared, and if you want to reference to this again later, you will need to cut and paste it in your own notes off line, as it will surely be erased.

Here are some receipts.

(See “GERM@NY WON WW2”) - \(link to Twitter post\)

WR: Foods carry a standing frequency vibration that either restores damaged cells, or further damages them. You are an orchestra of vibrating bioelectric systems that must remain in harmony. Good food/water and PEMF can tune your systems back into their original blueprint vibrations.

WR: Microwave radiation destroys cells on a quantum level. Foods microwaved register having the same nutrient value as cardboard. Which is why most Americans are obese today. They are starving to death while eating tons of what used to be food.

Q: what's your favourite rock that you've found and why? Sorry to bug you but I'm sure we will all learn something 😊🧐

WR: The Book of Stones with 547 crystals listed and deeply researched back through recorded time indicates just one stone that has greater healing potential than all the rest. There are others that are great healing stones with very harmonious effect on bioelectric systems, and certainly number 2 in my opinion would have to be a 'rock' solid runner up in shungite. I would simply never make a quantum energy device without it, and all successful superconductors always include regular Karelian shungite (not 'elite' shungite that has way too much carbon mixture) because of the 'magic' buckminsterfullerenes have on dangerous EMF free electrons that force them back into whole anion ions again. Shungite should be in every home in the world and absolutely in mine.

Back to no 1. I've tested it in closed-eyes blind studies many times with energy healers, Reiki practitioners, shamans, medicine healers and Indigos that are all very sensitive to healing energies, where I compared it against many other of the most popular crystal flavors.

Every single one, every single test, they always chose that particular stone. 100%. These crystals were inside our PEMF devices that amplifies the crystal energies as a 'carrier wave' to the biophotonic signals being sent in to the torus amplifier, so size, texture or shape of the stone would never factor into their choice, even subliminally. As soon as I released that 'flavor' of crystal to our customers, it became the number 1 best seller of the company.

Here's what the authors of the book have to say,

“Seraphinite STANDS ALONE as the premier healing stone of this age.”

and:

“Seraphinite is the most effective stone I have for cellular regeneration.”

The powerful feature of this crystal is there is no filter known to mankind that can strip pharmaceuticals out of recycled waste water that large cities purify in the sun and reuse in the taps. Meaning everyone in the city is taking birth control, heart meds, puberty blockers, sex-change drugs, estrogen and thousands of other dangerous drugs they have no business taking, which they are dying because of and becoming male to female and vice-versa. This is because pharmaceutical molecules are far smaller than water droplets, so if you had a filter that would cleanse out cellular drug particles, it would be sealed against any liquid getting through like a water-tight valve.

However, it was found that one recycling facility's water coming out was purified of all drug residuals, which prompted a complete evaluation of that plant where they learned that the clay holding pools were rich in seraphinite stone and it was the crystal's standing vibration that was working magic on the water.

This crystal was also indicated to me prior to my even being aware of its existence, to be the 'most rejuvenative stone' in this world. I can't tell you from whom yet, but suffice it to say, if anyone, ever, would know that intel, it would be them. And amazingly almost no one in the world has ever even heard of it. The crystal was named after the 'angel wings' of the seraphim (NOT angels, but do have wings) fake gods due to the plumes that are always present that refract in the light.

These are ancient SiO₂ quartz 'silicate matrix' trees that once reached 'into the heavens' spoken of in the Epic of Gilgamesh as well as the fake bible as being the Cedars of Lebanon. Those trees did not grow with wood fibers, but as crystal fibers back prior to the fall of man war 550m years ago. They have all been cut down now, but the roots still exist in 'plutons' where they are mined from. The only ones known to still exist today are from Siberia and they are quite rare and expensive compared to amethyst or other varieties of crystals. We went through hundreds of pounds of crystals per month in our laboratories producing the devices, so I became quite familiar with what powers they each have.

Too much?

WR: Never do anything because you think it will help you ascend. Be your authentic self at all times, no matter what that is, it is your fastest route home. Your choices down here are decided by your higher self up there running the game.

WR: Never use any words in your head or verbally when communicating with your higher self or with the aether around you. Use only pure intent and visualization. All words are spells that are cast backwards.

WR: The concept of an attorney and Maritime courts comes from ancient Babylon, invented by ETs called the Anunnaki. In Great Britain this system was adopted by the king some 500 years ago. Actual pirates were turned into cops and attorneys. They were sent to the open seas carrying the British flag to wave down and board vessels, at which time they would find a reason to haul them into GB's ports, then illegally steal their cargo and ships through the new court system.

The entire BAR association was legalized theft since the beginning and nothing has changed. You would need to research this incredibly evil topic to understand just how corrupt and sick it really is. Words fail to describe how wicked it really is through using their own language (Blacks Law) that only they know, and using everyday words commoners use in totally different meanings than they say they mean and using that to trap them into 'confessing' their crimes.

In legal Es the word 'the' means 'this is a fictional story'. So when you begin telling the judge your story, you will always start by saying "the farmer" or "the butcher" or other, which is your testimonial to the court that you are out of your mind, and obviously unable to handle your own affairs. Now the attorney, that is sworn to befriend the court first, not you, cops a plea deal that sends you to jail and harvests all your money. It is sick beyond sick.

In response to someone who was vaccinated and find out the truth about vaccines

WR: The ones screaming from the rooftops and spent thousands of hours learning for years about what the whack would do to you are empaths and felt your pain before you did. We tried and we cried when you didn't listen. We have been blocked, banned, cancelled, tracked and targeted by gov assassins and many of us died. The rest that didn't die lost their careers, social standing, families, homes, and many are now homeless just because we tried to save you.

Your loss is not yours alone and no one's life will ever be the same again. This is the saddest I told you so anyone has ever had. A small handful of us still writhing in agony for having blown the whistle may be lashing out, but the vast majority never put any of you down. Your loss is our loss. Make no mistake.

Understand this as you play out this difficult role: doctors that lost their careers trying to warn you are now claiming to have found cures. Research this day and night.

Also know this: you will never, ever die. Only your temporary avatar can pass away, but you are an eternal awareness that created everything your eyes have ever seen. You are a fractal of Prime Creator. And if you couldn't hear me before, I hope you can finally hear me now. This is not your last rodeo.

Q: Are we really This close to the vibrational frequency shift to release the veil from the unaware human prisoners? I was told it is this year 2024 but signs it could be imminent

WR: Almost all of the prisoners will not be part of a shift, but more like a taxi ride to the same level. The separation should take place very soon, but no one, and I do mean no one, knows when that will be. We are embroiled in a war unlike any that has been fought in the last 550m years, where the plane is under full scale lockdown, including multiple layers of quarantine from both sides, plus it is now going to decide who gets to rule over the lost souls of Tara (that are being held back in this class). No one on earth has ever witnessed this type of scenario before. So a 10 year transition window could take 20 or 50 to finally come to pass.

To say this is complicated is the wildest understatement I could make, because of these reasons:

1. There are likely trillions of beings who are emotionally vested in Tara's transition to retake her rightful position of host plane of density 2 (host of dimensions 4-6) that she was knocked out of in the Fall of Man War 1/2b years ago. She almost died, and spend 250m years healing before she could host life again, but due to her very low vibration from the attack, she had slipped down to density one, host of dimensions 1-3.

This was a near-death experience of someone adored by countless species that had evolved on Tara, moved on to join the interstellar communities and had to watch forever while the battle here raged on into what now seems like eternity. Tara is an evolutionary host plane, not just a host plane. Meaning that's what she does, is care over brand new avatar developments.

Because of this, there are now hundreds of thousands of time crafts riding shotgun over this ascension, parked next to the sun. Some since the stellar activation cycle opened in 2012. Some that joined us around 2017. They represent many thousands of interstellar communities, meaning they are not here under a hard-and-fast treaty in agreement on how this all plays out.

These various races have the capacity to vaporize life forms without harming the flora. Sort of like de-molecularization. And the only thing most of them care about is the jewel Tara, and would not hesitate eliminating anyone that tries to lower her vibration that could place her in peril of making the shift.

I was told directly that if any intercontinental nukes were fired, the nuke would be disintegrated and then all life on the plane would be as well, since Tara's vibration already hit event horizon a few years ago to make the shift.

So if Israel let's say, decides to smuggle out a major nuke and use it, no one on this field moves forward. This event would be over as soon as it started, it would be that fast. Definitely a fantastic way to go, because no one would feel a thing.

2. The infighting happening right now is between races that have access to the most terrifying weapons there are in deciding who rules over who when all of them, along with the humans who will remain behind, make the separation with particle Tara that will be moved to a new host matrix.

The only thing keeping them from pushing buttons that would make a nuke look like a cap gun, is the fact that everyone would be vaporized. Problem with that is the invader races are all possessed by nanites, so they are all psychopaths and could be inclined to say 'if I can have it, no one can'.

People will naturally assume I'm making all of this up for reasons of delusion or fear porn or some other mental deficiency, but I can tell you that I am just telling you what was told to me from someone who knows about this like you know your car. I would never dream up anything so depressing, much less want to tell anyone about it.

Any of these things could derail the shift. The war is fluid, changing daily. The shift could happen literally on 4/8 for all I know. No one knows when the aether is going to step in and complete the transition, because the aether (the entire collective consciousness of Prime Creator that no one anywhere is 'universally' tapped into) is the only one that has that date.

There are people here who have seen ascensions many times, and some who have seen plane ascensions, but no one has seen them ever go together before, because planes aren't usually blown out of their host positions, almost die, then spend 1/4b years healing, nor has anyone, from what I understand ANYWHERE ever even heard of this level of ferociousness in an attack on any avatar development in the history of creation. This was the mack daddy of interference by the mack daddy of all beings in existence.

So this is going to be a first on multiple levels whether it works or it all goes totally south. Nothing is set in stone and the peril is not coming from one source, but from within and without in order to protect the host. The best we can do is keep pushing forward and envisioning a successful separation. If you truly believe it, then that's what makes it a reality.

Q: My input is to start with “decalcifying” pineal gland.

No fluoride consumption is the very first step. I think haha

WR: No soft drinks, no tap water that hasn't been reverse osmosis with fluoride filter, no ice cubes or water in any restaurant, no bottled water, they all have fluoride. No canola or soy/tofu. Eating out is for once a year. Getting clean is a major transition.

WR: Just going off the top of my head, you're likely referring to one of the Men in Black, usually bald. Comes from the Scarab Beetle people known as the Khepri that manifested with red hair, but now it falls out. Previously mixed in with red headed giants Nephilim of the Peru Skulls. The invader hybrids wildly cross-pollinated, so there are many levels of purity. The Rothschilds lineage is more Centaur/ Nephilim/ Samjase Pleiadian Anunnaki I believe. In Greek times the Centaurs were known as Centurions that were the big 'clash of Titans' appeal in the games. Later they moved on to Rome and were known as the Bearskin Guards that historically protected the royal families. The very tall bearskin hats were to cover their long horse-skulls. They were still twice as tall as humans even in quite recent times, but were much bigger previously. However their continued ad-mixture with human females, they continued to shrink in size and their heads became more bowling-ball in shape now. But the royal lines that stuck to interbreeding with their own kind have held out more of the Centaur skull shape.

Q: What is a "Saser"?

WR: A saser is an acoustic laser-like beam that carries square-wave concussion waves that is generally invisible. That signal can have embedded in it tachyons that are like 'bubbles' or force fields around them that can deliver unique vibrational signatures to the target, such as microwave radiation. Both lasers and sasars can deliver incredibly powerful beams of destruction, but only one of the two is invisible. The only times we have seen saser DEW beams in the latest attacks were at night when there was lightning in the background, causing the beam to now become optically visible. Otherwise this is super-stealth that can be used right in front of your eyes with no trace. It is presumed this is Nikola Tesla's 'death ray' he said no army in the world stood a chance against. I believe he referenced it being akin to the finger of god type of power. It really is.

Q: Please, could you advise me in how to deal with contaminated water. I'll be grateful.

WR: Reverse osmosis. Then apply coherent frequencies to it with a PEMF device to bring it back into harmony. Plants subjected to reconstructed water grow twice as large than merely filtered water. Once the particles are restored they vibrate in balance, producing oxygen which heals.

Q: This is true. Notice when your favorite foods disappear and then come back on the shelves a month or so later. Notice the ingredients. No more words you can't pronounce. Just real food ingredients.

WR: Damn, I'm just finding my foods popping up with poison in them. I threw away a huge bag of fish sticks yesterday because now they have "canola oil or soy". Both are poison, soy is a gender-altering poison. Soy sauce is healthy, as it has been fermented, but soy/tofu isn't.

Q: Question: Do you believe in God?

WR: Of course I do. In quantum mechanics the presence of the 'unified field' is more than just overwhelming. It is the thing that imbues energy into things to make them animated and sustain 'life'. There's no way you could look at all the mathematics behind and interconnecting all things and imagine you are looking at anything other than the most unthinkably magnificent and deliberately created and engineered masterpieces all around you unless you have no connection to logic or reason.

I just don't refer to source in the same way most do, as being 'god'. God is a term that was brought to this plane by invading ETs that intended on becoming worshipped as the ones that created all that we see. They were all frauds. Every single one of them. I believe in my own sentience and deductive reasoning, therefore I am. And if I exist, then I am merely an extension of Prime Creator.

Q: Can I ask a question

Why is there a plan to save children if each child etc is on their own agreed upon journey and we aren't to interfere ?

WR: Until a child reaches 12 it is the job of every person to keep that child alive and treated as sacred. This is under your Birthing Rites and responsibilities. It is why adult animals that are normally predators of another animal species often cares for their lost babies.

Q: Why would it stop at 12? 12 yr olds are still pretty small and can easily get snatched

WR: I don't know. That's just the way it was for eons of time. But this new generation are still toddlers until they reach even 25 what I was told. Its strange, but if you're the parent, you are required to remain charge over them till they are mentally adults.

Q: id like to ask u a question about the “fairness” of humanity’s situation

I know humans still made their negative choices

But considering how advanced and subversive our invaders were, do you think humans ever had a chance of completing our intended evolution?

WR: No one ever said the humans ever stood a chance or they weren't terribly victimized. But in the grand scheme, you did take the risk to come for the biggest prize in the carnival. Now accept your situation and do everything you can to make even better choices in the future.

BORAX THE SUPER CURE

<https://t.me/FlatEarthAndMore>

In the 1960's Rex Newnham, Ph.D., D.O., N.D, developed arthritis. At that time he was a soil and plant scientist in Perth, Western Australia. Conventional drugs did not help, so he looked for the cause into the chemistry of plants. He realized that plants in that area were rather mineral deficient. Knowing that boron aids calcium metabolism in plants he decided to try it. He started taking 30 mg of borax a day, and in three weeks all pain, swelling and stiffness had disappeared. He told public health and medical school authorities about his discovery but they were not interested. However, some people with arthritis were delighted as they improved. Others were scared to take something with a poison label on the container and meant to kill cockroaches and ants. Eventually he had tablets made with a safe and effective quantity of borax.

Borax can cure and protect you From:

Arthritis, Osteoporosis, Osteoarthritis, Bone Spurs, Calcium Deposits, Lupus, Autoimmune Disease, Hormone Imbalances, Fungus/Fluoride, Candida, Ringworm, Tinea Versicolor, Insomnia, Rough Skin, Impotence, Morgellons and Chemtrails.

Q: You think maybe that's why I broke out in a rash and sores

It was healing me?

WR: I don't know enough about the science of boron (Borax) to say, but it could be a Herxheimer reaction. Dying parasites have a toxic effect on your body, so it could be. I've been taking this for over a year every day, with no reaction, but then I was already taking Quercetin daily for a long time prior and likely didn't have many parasites to clear by them myself.

1/4 tsp isn't much.

Treating Cancer

WR: Dandelion cur3s c@ncer too, pass it around!

Another tweet:

WR: Vitamin C drip has been shown to heal C. As has Soursop (Graviola), baking soda protocol and even simple and free water fasting. How many decades will it take for people to get this? Cancer is a fungus that DIES in an alkaline environment.

WR: While I take 26 supplements pr day for specific supports, I am not a holistic expert. I can say this though, if you're a guy and not taking 1/4 tsp of Borax a day (I use capsules) you don't know what you're missing. Revives libido. And if you have freezing hands and not taking cayenne pepper capsules you're suffering more than you need to. I take 6 caps daily now.

WR: Light is only visible sound. Sound is 'matter' or 'energy' at its quantum. Change the sound, change matter. #Cymatics #Tonoscope

Q: The Renegade Pleiadians:

Those who believe moving up in higher dimensions somehow denotes only positive beings reside in those frequencies. You may want to reconsider that thought process.

Stop following Ashtar Command (Galactic Federation of Light)

1. 12D Pleiadians have sponsored evil corporations such as Mobius and Monarch to enslave & hurt people on Earth.
2. 12D Pleiadians were the authors behind the conquest of the true indigenous people on the American continent.

3. 12D Pleadians brought the concept of the inorganic inorganic Messiah on Earth. (Think The 3rd Temple)

4. 12D Pleadians are responsible for the massive flux of pornographic content. (They work through the Jesuits/Zionist)

5. 12D Pleiadians are continuously enslaving beings.

6. They are partly responsible for harvesting Earth's resources for their own gain. (Think Bill Gates Agenda for the Sun & Trees)

7. They left behind advanced technology that disrupts the human development that the Cabal has used against us.

8. They are also behind tampering with human DNA for unknown purposes. But definitely to cause defects that prevent spiritual growth.

You all have been following this love & light psyop. Especially Elizabeth Trutwin followers.

Pleiadan Wisdom for the New Millennium," promises "liberating and compassionate lessons" from "the multidimensional spirit beings known as the Pleiadians," who are communicating with us from the Pleiades, a blue star cluster in the Taurus constellation only 400 light years away.

Barbara Marciniak has been profitably "channeling" their cosmic knowledge ever since 1988, when she slipped into trance, near Delphi, in Greece.

This at the surface level sounds good until you realize the imagery put out regarding the genetic makeup of them was artificially created as well.

Billy Carson stated that 70% of the artifacts in aboriginal civilizations like Syria, Mesopotamia, Turkey, etc, have carved in stone in some hieroglyphs or artwork the star cluster of the Pleadians system.

Some would even say they were put in their native land by offworld beings, which in this case would be the Pleadians. This all comes down to using discernment. There is no defacto dimension where only positive beings reside where you can let your guard down and just float around without a care in the world.

This will take thousands of incarnations if not more to transcend the dimensions where you are no longer dealing with parasitic archons that harvest negative energy to feed a certain frequency that their ecosystem thrives on for them to survive as a food source.

The Pleadians are part of the Federation of Planets, though there are some renegade/break-away factions. Some of these - mainly from Alcyone - joined the Draconian Empire (per A. Collins), while others prefer to stay neutral.

In Greek mythology, the Pleiades, meaning the doves, was the name given to the seven daughters of Atlas and Pleione, daughter of Oceanus (one of the Titans). Their names were Electra, Maya, Taygete, Alcyone, Celaeno, Sterope and Merope.

There are several different myths with regard to what happened to the Pleiades. According to one story they committed suicide out of grief at the fate of their father Atlas.

Another story says that they committed suicides out of grief at the fate of their sisters, the Hyades. Another myth tells that they were the attendants of the goddess Artemis, who were pursued by Orion. They were saved by the Gods who changed them into doves.

After their death, they were transformed into star.

WR: The gist of this is quite accurate. Nice Ariel. The Galactic Federation is definitely not your friend and neither is Ashtar Command. Two different groups working together under the Luciferian Covenant with Enki is high commander. The Pleiadians were brought here 550m years ago. Now known as part of the league of fallen angels today, and against their will. Channeling is against the formal covenant of this evolutionary plane, so anyone doing that to interfere with the Human Elohim evolution are breaking interdimensional treaty and are listed as illegal aliens, that's where you get that term today for unauthorized migrants. This is much, much bigger than nearly 100% of this population has any idea of. But they will, and very soon. These are the final days of this time matrix, make no mistake. After the separation of the two planes, everything will be different. And Ariel is right, there is no such thing as a dimension where only good guys dwell. That's fantasy.

Q: Wow, thank you for sharing your insight. Where does Enlil fit into this? If I recall correctly from Penre, Enki and Enlil shared some good and bad stuff creating this whole thing.

WR: An (the collective of the Jehovah Anunnaki), Enki and Enlil are extremely late to this 550m yr old game.

The Jehovah Anunnaki were created by the original 'fallen angels' just 5.5m years ago to take over the task of keeping humans in lock-down to prevent this new race from ever mastering out of the time matrix and entering the interstellar communities in eternal-life bodies that had too wide of emotional swings. These were the claims of a very small group of Anuhazi Elohim (tall white humans with wings). Arch-Angel stands for highest enemy, not highest benefactor.

The Jehovah Anunnaki were a new race of aquatic ape beings that were genetically designed only for war as prison guards. That was their only goal. They stand as the gatekeepers to this holographic simulation and were created by the Anuhazi Elohim that they bestowed their own name onto that creation.

Enki and Enlil (half brothers of different strains of Leviathan dragons) arrived on the scene 798k years ago. They are referred to as brothers due to carrying the same DNA of the Jehovah Anunnaki. In real life Enki is of Leviathan Seraphim descent (Dragon/Snakes) and Enlil is of the Leviathan Odedicron descent (Dragon/Insects). Both have dragon and crocodile genes, but their bloodlines are quite different otherwise. Enki is the god of land and water, and Enlil is the god of the air. An is the god of 'heaven' above breathable air.

Both Enki and Enlil were required to interbreed (through direct breeding or through petri dish) with the Jehovah Anunnaki in order to manifest here. All invader races present today are interbred with the Anunnaki in order to encode all of the guards with war/rape/torture DNA for maximum fear over the humans.

Anyone who feels any of these players could be categorized as benevolent simply doesn't understand what's taken place.

WR: They will either kill you or you will escape. The way to avoid voice to skull 'voices', is to get away from the city where all the electromagnetic fields surround you. Live in the woods. Make it your only priority to be surrounded by trees that absorb the radiation and signals. Otherwise they're not going to leave you alone. I recommend getting a large PEMF device (amplified 100 amps) and remaining inside that field 24/7.

Q: The Enuma Elish & several other books list Enlil as commander of Annunaki armies, half brother Enki/Ea as master geneticist, and Marduk as Enki's son. Enlil bad, Enki good, Marduk bad. Wikipedia & Encyclopedia list Enlil good & Enki & Marduk bad.

WR: That team, and others, have committed more atrocities against humanity than could be held in all the books in the entire world. Enki and his son Thoth created the Hyksos (J3ws) 250k years ago as perpetual slaves to mine gold and now to mine all the money from the humans. Anytime you hear Crypto or AshkeN@ZI, Koh@nim/Coh3n and L3vites (Leviathans) you're hearing about their various tentacles of enslavement.

Q: What's outside the dome? Aether?

WR: More air, another dome, then more air, & then a giant dome over the entire 'cosmos'. The giant dome is called a membrane. Outside that is a gelatinous brain matter with a trillion synapses firing everywhere that controls the simulation. It is utterly impossible to travel through.

WR: They're actually planning another timeline jump, because the Statue of Liberty just jumped back into New York, after being in another state for the last 7-8 years. So the Trump time travelers wrestled away from the deep state the ultra-low awakened numbers of that timeline, so they have to make another quantum leap back to another parallel timeline where everyone is in a coma again. They need to be in a timeline where Ariel never got into the position he's in now where he can tell millions of people the truth 4x a day and trending 3x a week and never get silenced.

In the end, I would bet my life the Dracos will not be able to pull this leap off, as @Prolotario1 just stated that Space Force took over CERN a few years back. Unless they have that key temporal displacement device, I would assume they're now fooked. In the end, the Leviathans have been fighting an impossible battle against the Samjase Pleiadian Anunnaki Elohim that are vastly more intelligent with vastly more power. This war was over before it even began in my book. It doesn't mean that humans will now be delivered from the hands of captors, it only means the captors in charge is undergoing a changing of the guards.

Ariel: Dimensional Odyssey: A Beatles Encore from Parallel Earth

Many people ask me what is the 5th dimension? Or what is interdimensional travel?

Let's try to answer both with one scenario. Earth has different versions of itself on all planes of existence. 1,2,3,4,5, and 6th dimension.

What happens physically on those frequencies is reflective of the mindset of those residing on those different vibrational levels. The technology, music, weapons, etc.

Which means different versions of yourself exist there as well. Also alternate versions of the everyday things we use or eat. Let's use one story to frame this topic to see if you understand a bit better.

A man who has adopted the pseudonym of James Richards claims he was chasing his dog through Del Puerto Canyon in California on September 9, 2009 when he tripped in a rabbit hole and knocked himself unconscious.

Upon waking up, he found himself in a room next to an unrecognizable machine with a man who introduced himself as Jonas.

According to the strange man, while on a work-related trip for a dimensional travel agency, he had used the machine to transport the unconscious Richards to a parallel Earth in order to help him.

Of course, the logical thing to do in this situation was to start discussing pop culture, which led Jonas and Richards to the topic of The Beatles, a band both dimensions shared.

To Richards's surprise, in this alternate dimension, The Beatles were all alive and still creating music. Richards brought back a souvenir cassette tape entitled Everyday Chemistry that was composed of Beatles songs never released in our dimension, which he helpfully uploaded to his website.

And yes, this is a real story. Is it fiction? That's for you to decide. But to bring home the point. Here is an addendum to this trippy saga.

The Story Of The Tape

The following is an actual account of my experiences as of recently. Because of the nature of what has happened I must remain anonymous until I feel it is safe to reveal my real name, but for now you can refer to me as James Richards.

On Sept. 9, 2009 I experienced something that I still am having trouble believing happened to me. I came into the possession of a cassette tape containing a Beatles album that was never released. In fact, not only was it never released but it was recorded many years after they broke up (and no I'm not talking about Klaatu).

Now this is where the story becomes slightly more unbelievable and it is almost embarrassing to attempt to explain the incident to you for fear of viewing me as completely absurd. I must assure you, I am not insane or on drugs, and hopefully the audio from this tape will be enough proof that there is more than we think out there...

I live in Livermore California but on Sept 9 I was driving home from Turlock after visiting a friend for a few days. I had my dog with me and I didn't have any plans for the day so I decided to take a drive through a place called Del Puerto Canyon just west of Turlock. There is a scenic road that is a fun drive and actually goes through to Livermore. I hadn't taken a cruise through it for a while so I thought i would take this way home. It was about 2pm.

A ways into the canyon my dog starting acting like she needed to use the restroom. So I pulled over to the first available parking area to the side of the road and let her out while I stretched. At first I didn't notice, but then I heard the barking from 30 yards away...my dog was chasing a rabbit. Now my dog is a pretty good dog but if she is chasing something then there is no stopping her so the only thing I could do was become part of the chase.

They already had about a 40 yard head start so I had to really book it. The uneven ground and soft dirt patches made it difficult to run and it wasn't very far into the chase I had stepped in a rabbit hole, fell and knocked myself unconscious.

When I woke up I was in a room with some furniture and electronics in it. I was taken care of with a bandage on my head but I still felt uneasy about the situation because where I fell and hit my head was in a very rural unpopulated area with no houses, and outside the window of the room I was in I could hear traffic.

I wasn't near the window in the room, it was actually on the other side next to a unusual looking electronic machine that i didn't recognize from anywhere I've seen before. The only reason this stood out was because it seemed out of place in a person's home, which most of the room resembled. I decided to get up and look out the window but the door opened and in ran my dog, who was pretty excited to see me. When I looked up there was a man standing at the door. He was about 6 ft tall, had medium long black hair and was dressed casually nice but gave me a "greasy" vibe, if you know what I mean. He introduced himself as Jonas and asked me if I was ok, which I said yes. He said he found me unconscious in a field with my dog barking at me. So I thanked him for helping me and my dog out, and that I was surprised my dog even came back to me. I then asked him the question that would make me start wondering if I in fact had gone crazy... I asked him "where am I?".

"About 20 feet away from where I found you" he replied. I told him that couldn't be possible because there were no houses within at least 20 miles from where I last remember being. He then told me that what he was going to say next will be very shocking and unbelievable, and that if he didn't actually experience it himself then he wouldn't believe it. He took a look at the machine near the window and looked back at me and said he transported me into parallel Earth. He said he traveled to our Earth dimension and found me knocked out in the blazing heat with nobody around to help me out. Normally he said he doesn't take outsiders through a portal but in my case he thought I needed urgent help.

I immediately started asking questions about traveling to parallel worlds, since all I knew about the topic was you tube videos of Michio Kaku. He told me to slow down and that he would explain himself. Apparently in his world a Parallel Travel machine can be purchased quite easily, while not cheap, its pretty popular even though the machine can be dangerous enough to cause death. In the 1950's of his dimension, the government was faced with the decision to continue to fund a space program (I'm guessing NASA) or a parallel dimension program called ARP-D (i can't remember what he said it stood for, I'm pretty sure the P-D is Parallel Dimensions, and i remember the acronym because I noticed it on a lot of the electronics in the room I was in.)

He then explained that the real danger of using one of the machines was exploring new dimensions. Since there are an infinite amount of Earths in other dimensions, only a small amount have been explored. The problem with exploring unknown dimensions is the chance you will die somehow once you walk through the portal doorway. He told me that people die from falling (if the ground isn't close enough to where the portal opens), die from drowning (there are worlds covered in water, hard to reopen a portal underwater), die from fire, atmospheric issues...he said in order for people to avoid this they would have to know that there would be similar ground in the dimension they were traveling to. So his government began to research worlds that were "safe" to transport to, even creating public spots where people could choose a menu of worlds to go to that were all safe.

Many of these worlds were lush vegetation worlds that were never ruined by man, only to be invaded by the large overcrowded population of the travelers world. He said something about new industries that opened up because of this, one of them being something like dimensional life brokers, these people offered the chance to live as someone new in an already established similar world that doesn't know of dimensional travel, nor that there are people crossing the dimensional border to. Jonas said he was an explorer for one of the dimensional travel agencies and was looking in new uncharted dimensions and came up my Earth.

We talked about a lot of things, it was interesting to see what similarities and differences we had between worlds. Foods, culture, TV, technology... we covered a lot. We also started talking about music, which was an interesting topic because there were many of the same bands between our worlds that existed, including The Beatles. When their name got brought up Jonas mentioned that his brother just got back from seeing them perform at a concert recently, which I gave a weird look to and said "you mean they are still together?", and he said yea. I then told him about how they broke up in our world and that John & George passed away, apparently in his world they are all alive, healthy and on tour still.

Jonas then had me follow him into another room that had a bookshelf looking thing with some cassette tapes (yes the music ones, apparently CD's never caught on in his world) and a tape player/radio/record player, though it didn't quite look like the type of radio's we have, the speakers looked more like crinkled cardboard but sounded pretty good. I didn't get too good of a look at the speakers but they certainly weren't round, they almost looked like a tall accordion.

The only Beatles album he had that was store bought and had real cover art was Sgt Peppers, which the cover looked slightly different then the one we have, but the songs were all the same. The other 6 Beatles tapes he had were all like somebody recorded them onto a blank cassette for him and wrote the song titles on a card slipped in the case. A couple of the album titles written on the tapes I recognized but there were about 4 that I had never heard of before. He played a few songs from one of them, which was totally surreal to hear Beatles music that was never made (at least in our world). We talked about it a little bit, he said a girl made the tapes for him while he was in upper school (what they call high school). She was a huge fan of them and wanted him to listen to them.

He popped out the first tape and was putting in the second one when I told him he should record me a copy of one so I could take it back with me, thinking it wouldn't be a big deal. Well the look Jonas gave me when I said this is part of the reason I am remaining anonymous. Not only did it sort of scare me but it had a very serious almost creepy look to it followed by the phrase (not word for word, i can't remember what he exactly said) "No, you are not to take anything with you back to your world. No pictures, no souvenirs, no tapes, NOTHING." I asked him why and he wouldn't really say except that for my safety I wasn't to take anything back.

Of course I am not the type of person to go through all of this parallel world stuff and not grab something to prove the outrageous story of my experience. So for the moment I told him I wouldn't take anything and changed the subject. About an hour later after some more talking I heard a doorbell ring and he left the room to check the door. I knew that I may not have another chance to take something so I grabbed one of the tapes and put it in my pocket, and then shuffled the tapes around to make it look less obvious that something was missing.

When he came back inside I said I was kind of hungry (to just get us out of the room, i mixed the tapes up a little so it was hard to tell one was missing but I didn't want to be there when he found out), so he then took me in the other room and fed me. For the most part the food tasted like ours but was different product names and colors. The purple ketchup was the strangest. We talked a little bit more and then I expressed the notion that I should be going because it was getting late (the time of day was identical to ours, as is all worlds).

We went back in the room with the machines in it, I grabbed my dog and shook Jonas' hand for taking care of me after I was knocked out. I thanked him again and stepped through the portal (which felt like getting wet but staying dry the entire time, really weird... when i put my dog on the ground she even shook herself like she thought she was wet).

Back in our world I could see my car on the road still and there was straight line burn mark on the ground from where the portal had shown up. It was dark outside and the only reason I noticed the burn was because it was still smoking from the heat. I walked back to my car (didn't run this time) and drove home. The worst part was I couldn't even listen to the tape on the way home because I didn't have a tape player in my car. I actually wasn't even able to listen to it at home either for the same reason and had to go to Wal-mart to buy a tape player just to listen to it.

Unfortunately I don't have any information about the tape other than what is written on the card sleeve. The track names were written, as well as the album title "Everyday Chemistry" . Everything else about it is as mysterious to you as it is to me. It also wasn't like I could have asked the guy anything about it, especially after taking it from him.

I'll post some more about my experience in the coming days, but I have to go to work right now and this post is already long enough. If anyone has any questions they want to ask me about this incident then I've set up an email address that you can contact me at: thebeatlesneverbrokeup@yahoo.com. I'll try and answer every one's questions as best as possible.

WR: Omg, Ariel just shared an interdimensional story I shared many years ago, plus the actual songs from the Beatles no one ever heard before! Is it possible he'll be taken seriously now? When no one could even grasp this in the slightest back then?? 🙄🙄🙄🙄🙄

Q:

▶ What the Bleep do We Know Quantum. Quantum World/Physics ...

WR: Double slit experiment proves beyond any doubt nothing happens unless a fractal of Prime Creator awareness is casting it's sight on the image. You, we, are the only things that can cast reality.

Q: ▶ What The Bleep Do We Know Addiction Clip

WR: This just pointed out the fact that each cell of the body has its own unique personality. These are the 'fractals' of Prime Creator that now walk among you in avatars, as they were individualized by the simulation. So while we may be ourselves, we're still also part of each other on a quantum basis. We are factually family, no matter who acted as mother and father for birthing us into the world. This has nothing to do with 'blood' on a bonding level. We are already family long before we were separated into family lines they've used to pit us against one another by telling us that blood is thicker than water. Well, no, it shouldn't be. We should treat every child the same as if it were our own, and honor every parent as if they were the ones that gave us life. This also goes for every bird in the sky, fawn in the woods and blade of grass. They are each one aware, as they have just stated, and each unique, but still part of the one original body of Prime Creator. We we look at anything, we're looking at our self.

Q: So my question is, in what should we believe then? (I am not Christian, but I always had a strong inclination towards spiritual matters).

And what about the afterlife, Paradise/Hell ?

WR: Understand that you are one cell of the body of Prime Creator that made all you see around you and treat it as sacred because everything you see is also part of your own body. You are looking at yourself when you observe anything. Resonate in harmony with all life.

Q: If god is with us, where do “downloads” come from?

WR: Your actual awareness is one 'cell' or 'fractal' of Prime Creator called your higher self that has always existed in the eternal sound and light fields of the deity planes (other side of the big dome over our holographic simulation). You have a direct connection to yourself.

Q: What would your guesstimate be/ of the % of humans who are soulless ?

WR: Your actual awareness is one 'cell' or 'fractal' of Prime Creator called your higher self that has always existed in the eternal sound and light fields of the deity planes (other side of the big dome over our holographic simulation). You have a direct connection to yourself.

Q: What would your guesstimate be/ of the % of humans who are soulless ?

WR: People don't understand what soul means, confusing it with spirit essence, which is your eternal consciousness/personality. A soul is your history that is databased across earth in every rock and droplet of water, tree etc. that are collectively referred to as the akashic records. In other realms this is referred to as your provenance, which just means your history.

All fractals of Prime Creator that have eternal self-awareness are recorded in every action they ever take, eternally in the records. Your soul records are also recorded in every genetic cell of your body. When you move on to another level or time matrix, these all go with you.

That said, virtually all 'aliens' and 'ETs' that are cloaked in human holograms around you are also fractals of Prime Creator, so their actions are also stored in the akashic records as well, whether they are here illegally (they are), or not.

What is not recorded are the actions of nanites (AI) that are robots, hence the term 'artificial' intelligence. The records don't reflect these beings and in fact those beings when they hold the shape of a 'human', are not even witnessed by the records as being there, because they are not from the all-royal family of Prime Creator (PC). So while they are self-aware, they do not have a soul record. When they are shut off (crushed/die), they are gone as if they never existed. Only the results of their actions remain behind.

So the answer to your question is almost 100% of beings on earth have souls, but hundreds of millions/billions of them have been infected by nanites illegally (around half or so of the population). But they still have souls, and you are going to be very surprised at how many of them you have considered among your very best friends for eons of time across millions and billions of lifetimes once this angelic human drama is over.

Realize that what happens here is not 'the end of the world', nor is anything here 'real' in the sense that any of it makes any real difference later on, because it is a holographic simulation that is exactly like a very advanced video game where you run your avatar around and do things while in the game. When you shut the game off, you're still sitting in your control chair (this just illustrate that your 'real self' remains eternally in the eternal sound and light fields of the deity planes) and none of the things that happened on the screen effect you, such as you didn't get killed or harmed in any way. All that happened is no matter what 'took place', you got smarter and more educated on how to interact with your fellow fractals of PC.

You'll see soon when this game finally closes permanently and the Gaia time matrix operating platform is dismantled due to age/wear and tear. There are millions of other time matrices to choose your next journey from, so don't be concerned. And yes, your loved ones and all your beloved pets will all still be right there with you in the deity planes, because they are eternal too.

It is just a game friends.

And no, I'm not just pulling this out of my back pocket. This is what is taking place, that's why I am preparing you now for the shock that will take place once you are finally extracted from a game that went horribly, horribly wrong due to the infiltration of the system by a computer glitch known as the Budhara Borjia Retrovirus.

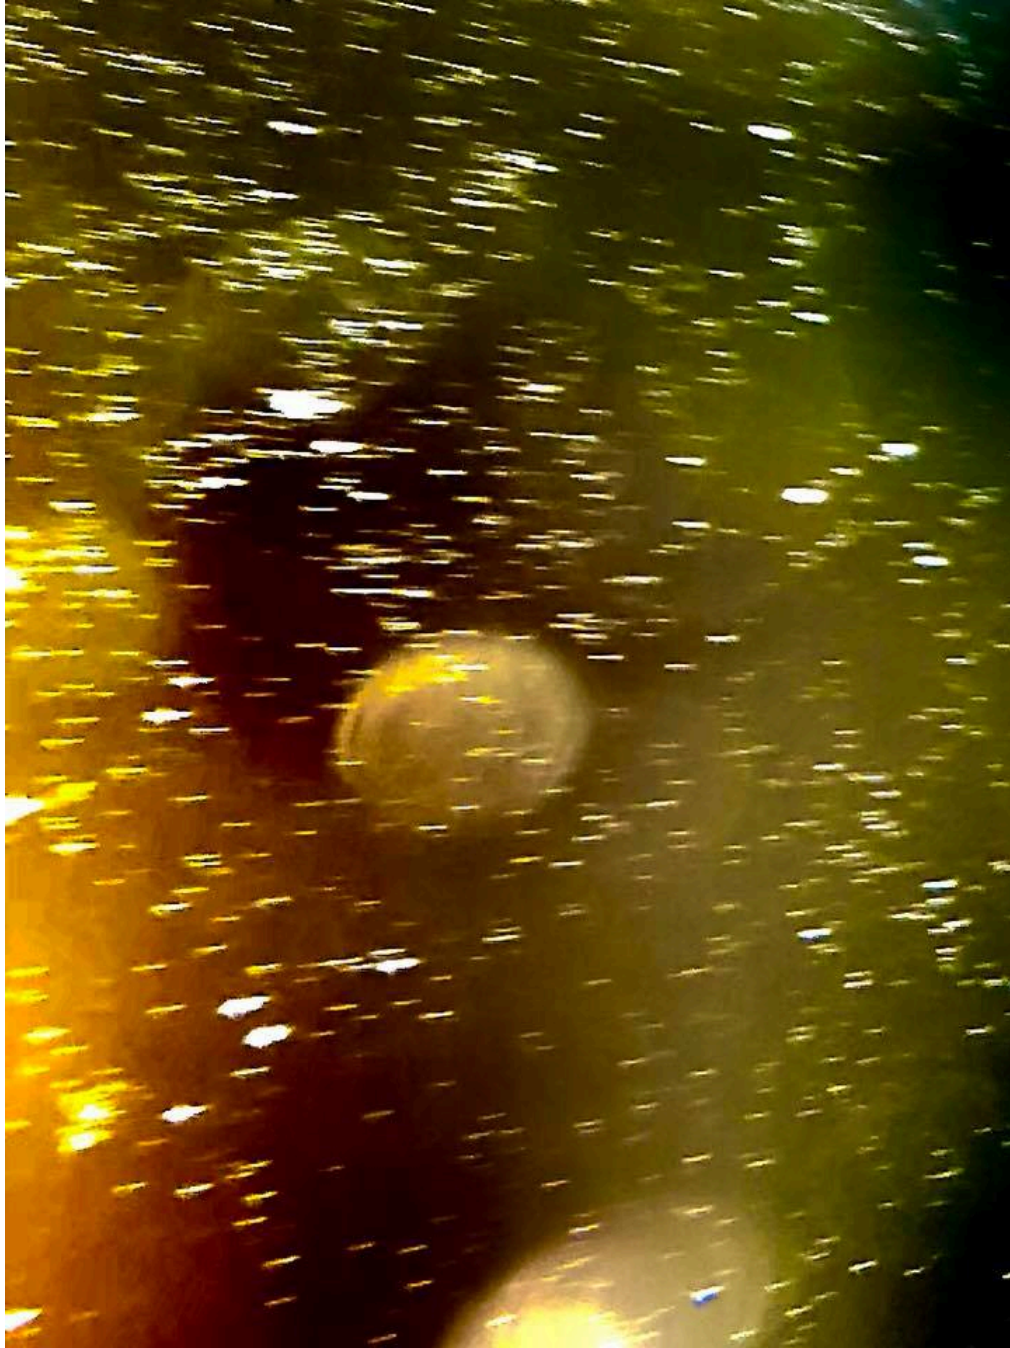

WR: The process of reclaiming your Spirit Essence from this simulation is extremely complicated and involves many millions of active 'military' from across the cosmeias. 1/2 million 'boots on the ground' you call starseeds/Indigos, then 1/2 million 'guardians' supporting them across the veil. Plus millions of volunteers from thousands/millions of other interstellar communities are standing guard by the sun as we speak. Yes, they are uncloaked, so you can see them with a telescope. See Gina Maria Colvin Hill for thousands of pictures. She is a white hat SSP intel officer, not a dingy housewife in Kansas or whatever her cover story is.

The plane, or landmass, of human earth is being relocated to another time matrix (the Aqueous Sun matrix). When that happens (which should be very soon now, in fact technically 'overdue', but this is a complicated process and not bound by absolute dates on calendars, but to the collective vibration of the life forces living on that mass) the low-vibration beings here, your captors, and the human hybrid minions that want to also be service to self, will be separated from the rest and taken to a different time matrix (called the Weasadek phantom matrix) as well where they can continue to play childish war games to their heart's content. They will all remain in the 3rd dimension where that sort of horse play is supported.

The people being evacuated from this dystopian reality won't notice this move per se, as it will be the same soil they've always been standing on. This goes for both groups. All 'particles' have an antiparticle, or 'shadow'/mirror image of itself if they're inside manifestation. Both the particle and antiparticle of Tara (human earth) have now fully merged together to sort out the wheat from the chaff. They are in the process of now fully disconnecting from each other so they can be relocated to different destinations.

The group going to the Aqueous Sun will remain on Particle Tara, and those bound for more war games and conflict will remain on the Antiparticle Tara. Expect the new host matrix you will arrive to in the Aqueous Sun group may possibly operate differently than Gaia did. I do not know what those differences will be other than they will be moving from the 3rd dimension to the 4, 5 & 6th according to each one's vibration.

Q: We are fractals of light

WR: Yes, that's one way to put it. You are fractals of the being that dreamed up and created all things within manifestation. When your awareness takes shape within that simulation, it is through vibration and light. Yes.

WR: And if you pulled a blood sample from them you would almost certainly find one of the rarest blood types on earth of the Kohanim and Levant, direct lineage of Enki and Eve and the 'holy' leaders over the Jews. Khazars. The bloodline comes down through Cain/Qa'in, offspring first known as Canaanites which is where you get the term "Canonized" from to indicate they are "Saints" which means they are of the bloodline of the Satain family.

Not all of the Anunnaki in Babylon were Satain's Alpha Leviathan (Levites) Drakonian (Kohanim) heritage. There were over 50 different other animal/human hybrid lines there as well. This is one of the two bloodlines that rose to the top. The other being the Tall Whites (Vikings) known as the Samjase Pleiadian Anunnaki that now run America, known as "Uncle Sam" (Trump's lineage). They too are "Crypto Jews" that do not hail from the actual Hyksos/Jews/Hebrews that were created in the Adam & Eve Garden drama.

Q: Let's keep reminding the world that Ukraine is a front for the NWO push and that to stop that requires denazification
#nomoremoneytoukraine

WR: Just who runs Ukraine behind the scenes anyway?

You would be very surprised. Snippet from a banned article showing Neanderthals have been here for 250,000 years and own all the land. And yes, they absolutely are still here. That's why you have to pay "tax" on property you already own. You are only leasing it. From Neanderthals.

The ultra-rare and ultra-specific Haplogroup Neanderthalensis that has now been demonstrated as carried down through eons of time by J3ws-yet-not-J3ws, was why the pet term for the group is referred to in phlebotomy/blood work as Haplogroup J, not N, as at first it appeared that only J3ws were the modern living versions of Neanderthals.

So does haplogroup J show up in all J3ws alike?

Actually, no. Jews that have not been allowed to serve in the priestly class in their synagogues, ever, do not carry any male haplogroup J at all. However, Haplogroup J is found within the priestly class that issue all the laws and rules over actual J3ws, the Levant and the Kohanim, modern-day Sarmatians, as much as 76% Neanderthal genes. The priests alone that only inter-marry among their own bloodlines since Babylonian times, are the only ones. And, as you can see around you, they do, in fact, exist.

‘Sarmatians’ are the oldest known and purest Neanderthal bloodline of the Levant and Kohanim on the plane.

Wiki: Sarmatians;

The Sarmatians were groups of Iranic peoples that lived in a region called Sarmatia that is the present day Ukraine near the Black Sea shore. They were flourishing from 5th century BC to the 4-5th century AD.

I guess you know now why ‘saving Ukraine’ is the single biggest issue on earth today. To normies, those are people that can fend for themselves. But to the official ruling class of the world, those are your gods.

Sarmatians is merely a transliteration of Sumerians, as well as ‘Cimmarians’. All of which hail directly from ancient Babylon where the wheel, the plow, indoor plumbing, production, writing, hydraulics, fabric, brick production, metallurgy, mathematics, philosophy, sailboats, chariots, numerals, taxes, calendars, codes-of-law, contract law, board games, stringed instruments, maps, schools, farmer's almanac, jobs, congress, Jewdicial systems, corporations, paved roads, banks and formal municipal services suddenly fell right out of the clear blue sky to earth while the rest of the world were still living in caves and trying to invent fire.

All with no archeological evidence of development for any of them.

<https://worldhistory.org/article/1859/mesopotamian-inventions/>

At that time, and as expressed in their 500,000 Mesopotamian historic cuneiform clay texts that pre-date the bible by 10,000 years, yet include the same old testament stories, of their 250,000 year history, they were known as the Anunnaki who, 'from heaven came'. They were ET hybrids then, and they are still ET hybrids now, and that is why you have heard of such a thing as 'political asylum' because h. Neanderthalensis factually are not subject under any Jewdicial laws, only Homo sapiens are, as spelled out in Black's Law Dictionary.

Thoughts on New Age Religion

Q: What do you think about "New Age"?

WR: It is a soy boy program to lull Indigos into sleep thinking everything is all love and light and hunky dory. Higher beings are nobody's fools. You don't get there by laying down and not standing up for what is right at all costs.

Supplement List (note, there has been un update to this list in the beginning of this document - see "MY 29 DAILY SUPPLEMENTS-AGING MALE: (Update 7/22/24)

WR: Listen to @DivanaAyhea They tricked us AGAIN.

IVERMECTIN / QUERCETIN ARE POISON - (link)

Quote tweeting himself:

WR: I seriously would like to thank you for revealing that Ivermectin and Quercetin were simply the way to destroy no-vax-for-me-rebel's bodies. Guys, we were duped, again. Horse paste is actually killing you if these whistleblowers are to be trusted.

 SPECIAL EPISODE: The Ivermectin Double-Cross Scam–W/ Gu...

Q: Ah, yes, black goo, nanobots. They have built them into amoebas to hijack our DNA. What are you doing to remove them? I take anti-parasitics, zeolites, boron, Nac and hot borax baths to flush them and use frequencies to disable them.

WR: I take Quercetin w/chelated zinc, boron (1/4 tsp borax) and about 25 different supplements everyday with 1 day off each week to avoid hysteresis rejection in the cells. I take one month off of Quercetin every 3 months as well for the same reason. PEMF also works against nanites.

Q: Sir, could you make a list at some point (when you have the time) with the different supplements you take to get rid of nanites, decalcify the pineal gland and keep a clean avatar?

WR: That's a heck of a tall order, given that it takes years and years to research one's deficiencies that are ever changing. I can give a run down of the supplements, but it would be wise for anyone considering them to know exactly what they do and the history behind each one. Most supplements are for multiple benefits, but I may use them for just one, so knowing what you want out of each one is important.

Decalcifying the pineal gland sounds like a very worthy undertaking at first blush. But I know someone who was able to do this and I've seen what that did to her life. She was destroyed; all 7 children were stolen from her and she's been homeless now for years.

What happens is the veil of the Anunnaki particle simulation within this simulation comes down, revealing the real world around you much like the sunglasses in They Live that was based on the real glasses known as Dicyanin Aura goggles.

The upside to clearing your pineal gland is not being able to see better, but it is your connection to your higher self that allows you to communicate clearly with Prime Creator.

Dicyanin scopes and goggles that Viet Nam war soldiers used revealed demons and monsters flying in the air, cloaked aliens walking amongst us, giants and ghosts and left men who were literally murdering people as their job, scared out of their minds with fear, driving them mad. This is what you will see if you clear your pineal gland. But unlike Dicyanin glasses that you can take off, a clear pineal gland works 24/7 and there's no way to stop it.

These beings know you can now see them, so you become a target and their mortal enemy, whereas right now you are just another nameless sheep in a field somewhere grazing on flowers and grass, posing no threat to a worldwide mechanism that has taken quadrillions of man hours to construct over billions of years of advanced technology.

I know enough to know I don't want to have to live my life dealing with all that noise anymore. I was part of that inside battlefield for years around the ones who can see and I know what their lives are like. Unless you inhuman powers (we're talking about powers that Sci-Fi still doesn't show you), that's not the room you want to be standing in, even if your curiosity urges you to know about this first hand. When they say curiosity killed the cat, just know they're talking about this stuff. You can go to Antarctica if you're clever, just don't have any fantasies about coming back.

The list below is not a recommendation, but merely a list of what I take each day, 6 days pr wk with one day off to keep from developing an immunity to them. I never take a break from Saw Palmetto, as it allows me to sleep all night w/out getting up for a bathroom visit which I used to have to do 4x. It works year after year this way for whatever reason.

Q: Hi doc,

What are some of the plants that every type 2 indigo should have in his garden to help heal people?

Is this something the keeper of the original simulation specifically educated you about?

WR: Moringa is the first thing the keeper plants. Cures incurable diseases. No one ever hears about it for a reason. If cannabis is legal where you are, those two are like an army.

Q: whats best way to consume moringa? i cant grow it here in cold weathers most likely, maybe indoors

WR: I take moringa tablets daily. I don't care for the tea. The best way to take it is juicing fresh leafs like wheat grass shots.

Q: The best explanation for “fasting”

Link \(scoll up\)

WR: I fast 23 hours everyday. 1 meal, plus sometimes a very small snack soon after. Once we hit 60, I know of no other way to maintain a reasonable weight. Everything slows down. 800mg of cayenne pepper capsules 3x pr day to stave off hunger!

Q: Hi, could you please share everything the 'keeper' told you about cayenne pepper?

Barbara O'Neill said it is a good idea to carry around crushed cayenne pepper flakes in your pocket everywhere you go. It may help your blood vessels relax to help blood flow.

WR: It is good for your digestion, blood flow, anti-parasitic, takes away pain from joints, arthritis, inflammation. Overall a superfood as well as a topical on owies.

From the same first WR's reply

Q: How do you feel?

WR: A LOT healthier than when I was heavier. Now I eat only things that are organic or natural, avoid all sweets, no meats. I had acid reflux daily my entire life before that. Now I almost never have any acid problems.

— (from other post, but relevant here)

WR: Cayenne pepper is super good for your body. I heard about it from the keeper constantly like a mantra.

— (from another post, relevant here)

WR: Colloidal silver is very healthy for the human body.

— (from another post, but relevant here)

WR: Really? How does wormwood tea taste? May be worth looking into. The keeper endorses Red Rooibos tea for general wellness. I take that daily with green tea already.

Q: @iontecs_pemf what are your thoughts on Trump then? And how ppl say he must protect the Jesus bloodline? And how he is the son of General Patton. Im so so confused by all of this.

WR: I am fairly sure he's Pleiadian Anunnaki. He and his son and wife are definitely not human. Melania looks like a Pleiadian.

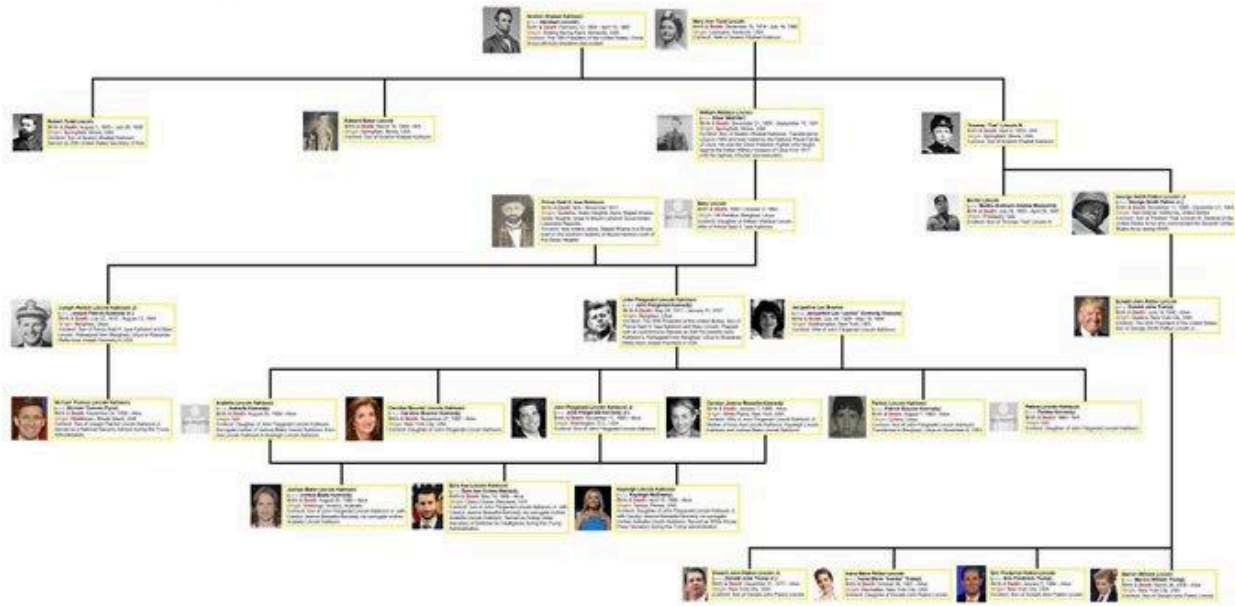

Q: Isn't Anunnikai of demon bloodlines?

WR: Technically they're spirit essences like you of Prime Creator. They're just lower life forms like wolves or crocodiles. Demons refer to the disembodied that live in the astral fields we refer to as hell.

Q: So you don't believe Trump is a time traveler and is saving humanity at all! I need to brush up on what all these words mean I guess. I was hoping he was connected with General Patton.

WR: He is Patton's son, yes. A time traveler, yes. As for saving humanity, I sincerely doubt it. These are our original captors they're connected to.

THE LINCOLN KAHLOONI DRUZE MINORITY BLOODLINE: THE JESUS STRAND

The real Moses

Q: Why was Moses depicted as a horned man?

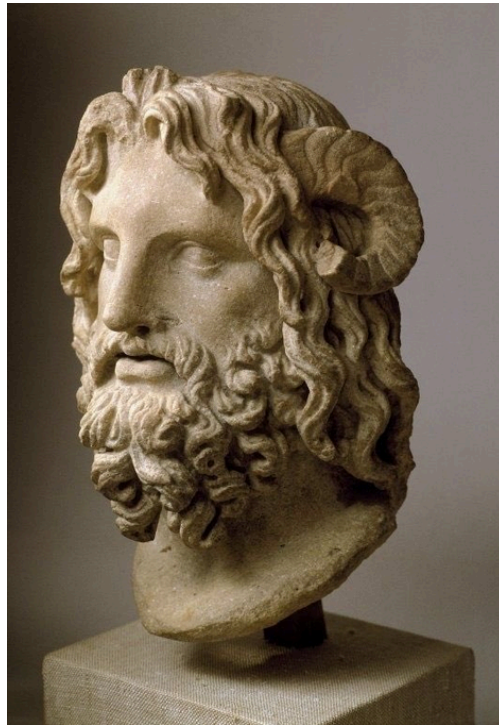

WR: Moses did have horns, and his skin was like a reptile's that shimmered.

"But he then went back up towards Yahweh to secure the renewal of the treaty that God had previously concluded with the Israelites. When he came back down with the new tablets of the law, the Israelites found him to have horns, without him being aware of this transformation himself."

He was from the Levant bloodline if I recall correctly. As a side note, 'Yahweh' is in reference to the Jehovah Anunnaki who created their hybrid bodies, so your gods (gods of Babylon), worship their creators, the Jehovah known simply as An in most texts.

The bottom left image appears to be Alexander the Great who also had horns. Alexander was actually Marduk Lucifer Satain, same genetic bloodline of Enki, plus a mixture of Satain blood from his mother. He is Leviathan Drakonian Seraphim Omicron Anunnaki. Yeah, that's something they left out of your history books. Many coins and busts showed him with ram horns.

Q: Reptilian??

WR: Yes. These were Leviathan dragons that are like winged snakes or lizards before they arrived here and got hybrid human-like bodies.

Q: when people laugh at the idea of a 'reptilian race' i ask them to explain these ancient artifact:

WR:

Virgin Lilitu and Adam
250,000 B.C.

Virgin Isis and Horus
ca. 2686 - 2181 B.C.

Virgin Mary and Jesus
1365

Q: Thanks for this.

I am curious to learn about some of your sources if you have time to share anything?

KR Mike

WR: The overall view I give are from sources available to the public, albeit extremely well obfuscated, plus I was educated directly by the keeper of the simulation we call the world. Identifying certain players of the past comes from ongoing research across thousands of highlights and connections from countless civilizations and eras. Understand this has been going on for 550 million years and these beings keep changing skin suits.

Whether Alexander the Great was an incarnation of Marduk, or his father Enki or a son of their bloodline gets extremely jumbled up, but nonetheless the Lucifer/Satain bloodline has dominated the roles of the biggest players in recent history (last 798k years) and their features remain very similar to each other due to genetics.

Much of how I piece them together comes from direct education from my source who had been dealing with all the biggest figures from history since prior to the arrival of the humans on plane today, including the original fallen angels (which the Leviathans were not part of and predated their arrival by 549m years in extremely ancient past) that you would have no way of ever uncovering, as a great deal of those records have been carefully erased repeatedly down through time and those that leaked the information typically vanished.

Q: Alexander was depicted with the ram's horns of the Egyptian god Ammon whom Alexander had claimed as his own divine father.

WR: Ammun is derived from Amun. Amun is also Amen-Ra. Amen Ra is also known as Jesus, Horace and Marduk Lucifer Satana, ancient god over Babylon after his father Enki Lucifer stepped back. He is the current official Anunnaki 'god' over all human earth. Using the word divine in relation to Marduk is like referring to hell as paradise. If Alexander the Great was not an incarnation of Marduk, then he is definitely from that bloodline.

Dear Christians! Do you know where the story of Jesus comes from?

Q: what are you thoughts on Med Beds?

WR: I've spoken to Captain Randy Cramer, super soldier from the SSP who claims he's had new arms and legs regrown in Medbeds many times. He used to come and visit us at the labs often, and everything he says about them makes perfect sense scientifically and he is very credible. Real.

Q: What about people who are hard of hearing, do the medbeds restore perfect hearing?

WR: Med beds rebuild the body from DNA cell up. Every element of your perfect Elohim body is stored in the "junk" portion of your DNA. With just one cell of your blood your eternal life avatar can be created in flawless form. And whether you see that body in a med bed soon or not, if you make this transition, you will see it anyway. Everyone will be restored in the next level. That's not hopium.

Q: Firstly, love your posts man. But are you saying that there are aether particles near the sun/sky or also beings as well, or both? Cause I see particles of light flying around all the time that others don't see, but I've sometimes seen stuff where on the edges of the sun, it looks like an actual being, occasionally I get it on video. Perhaps a camera lens thing, but interesting nonetheless.

WR: The aether is all around you holding the spacetime fabric 'projector screens' pixel locations. Science calls these X and Y vector bosons that can be found using scalar mapping anywhere in the world. Which means they don't move. This gives an 'IP address' to every pixel within the simulation. When a fractal of Prime Creator looks at them, the pixels fill in by the holographic projection cast out of your projector lenses you call your eyes.

This is the way the hologram works, but science says that the bosons that light up each pixel is the Higgs boson that is sentient and self-aware energy they call the god particle. But in reality, you are the god particle. So is every other self-aware being around you. Your awareness lights up each pixel just by looking at it. This coincides with how particles become waves if someone is watching the light in the Dual Slit Experiment. That 'light' doesn't manifest as a wave (light rays) and only goes through the slits in the paper as 8 or 9 pin-dots striking the wall behind it if no one is watching.

Not all 'god particles' have bodies. Many lost their avatars in the Fall of Man War 550m years and they cannot manifest anymore because some of their wet DNA was lost outside of this simulation. You need every single cell of your DNA to be inside the simulation or you can't cast a corporeal body. These beings are known as the Lost Souls of Tara (LSOT).

1 ft away from your face you can see these beings if you have 4 optical cones. Humans have only 3 so they can't see them. Indigo eyesight is referred to here as eagle vision. If you have this, you can see various things humans can't see. It differs with each Indigo. Type 1s can see phase-shifted beings (ghosts, beings hiding, LSOT full plasma bodies, etc). They will also see giants and things I've never seen as well. If you think you can see them, then you likely can.

Q: So do you agree that what Yeshua was a teacher of truth and that following what he taught leads someone to live our lives in the best possible way?

WR: Absolutely. Jesheua Sananda Melchizedek anyway. His allied partner Jeshewua Ahumbra Melchizedek (long story) is a different matter. Be sure which one you think you're referencing. The latter turned to the dark side at the end, working with the Anuhazi elohim, the original captors of this evolution. Sananda never did turn. Neither one of them were sacrificed on a cross or stake. That is another story in itself. Everything has been misdirection.

Q: I had never previously read the name Jeshewua Ahumbra and quite frankly I had never been aware that Melchizedek was a family name.

WR: Melchizedek is a program name. It is the agreement title to the co-evolution bioregenesis treaty that brought in Oraphim elohim elevated DNA (up-boosted genetics) to the Hyksos human hybrids and to refresh the distorted genetic strands of the human elohim during the end times to give them both higher chances of resonating with the plane as she increases in higher vibration to make the transition we're going through now.

So Melchizedek is an office term, similar to Envoy or State Department Attaché if you will. Jeshewua Ahumbra represented the 9-strand DNA Hyksos bloodline and Jesheua Sananda represented the 12-strand DNA human bloodline and each brought their completed and undistorted genetic templates fully assembled and fortified with additional Oraphim Indigo frequency.

That means simply that Ahumbra could have been standing in the 9th dimension and fully resonated at that level with tremendously higher abilities than anyone in this world, likewise Sananda could have been standing in the 12 dimension. And in fact, if they resonate with those higher 'channels', then they were literally in those dimensions while they were speaking to people here in the 3rd dimension.

This is complicated and I'm doing my best to put into words these concepts. Dimensions or levels are not 'somewhere else'. They are exactly where you are standing at this very minute. It is just that your 'television' (pineal gland receiver antenna) can tune into different channels at any time. Beings I know remain in all dimensions at the same time. So they see people and buildings around them from across the spectrum at all times that physically don't exist in your dimension because you're not tuned into those channels and simply do not appear to your pineal gland.

Back to the Melchizedek question. Think of the avatar of each species as a car and the DNA that powers the avatar is like the fuel. Rather than powering each body type with regular gasoline, the higher frequency codes in the veins of each man was like racing fuel. Each one would marry and have children. Those children would then interbreed with the others in their respective groups, and everyone's DNA would vibrate higher to make the leap from 3rd dimension to the 4th so they could get out of the prison level.

Melchizedek is the name of that program they both belonged to under the umbrella of the co-evolution treaty. So both of these different men shared this office together for their respective peoples. At that time for a few years during the big push to raise awareness, the two of them helped people who were ready to transition higher to go through the stargate of Amenti below the great pyramid of Cheops. Ahumbra helped his people (the "J3ws") and Sananda helped the human Elohim.

Ahumbra fell away and joined the invader races toward the end of their campaign together and sold out to the Anuhazi. It was a very unfortunate turn of events. No one knows what actually happened to make him betray his people, but nonetheless there are many beings here who are still helping the Hyksos raise their vibration through many different channels. These are type 3 Indigos that create art, music and through other avenues.

When people hear that music, or see those artistic pieces, the higher-vibrations embedded within them impart into the genetics of the observer through scalar wave transmission. So the Hyksos have not been abandoned, neither have the humans. Human's assistants here are type 2 Indigos that connect with the higher 12-strand frequency of the human genetics. Their roles are similar to each other, but type 2s work in medical fields more often than not, producing holistic tinctures and the like. I'm just saying that just because the two Melchizedeks I mention here are no longer actively in the picture until later in this drama, understand every Indigo on the plane are all Melchizedeks that are going under different familial names now, but they all came here under the same program title.

Q: This trail was being made live.

I took the pic myself.

Where are the planes who make these and why do they somehow hide like they aren't even there? They definitely don't want you to see these things. I have no problem spotting Delta or Jetblue etc, but these? They're invisible.

WR: Zero point crafts, like the TR-3B that is likely dispensing these 'heavy metals' which are actually fully functioning nanites, operate within a harmonic Meissner Field that allows them to function outside of gravity, space and time (meaning the people inside do not age in flight). This is achieved by resonating the craft at a perfect pitch at which point the craft and everything within the field (like a bubble) turn photonic, or what you would call invisible. The chemtrails ejected behind the craft become visible again as soon as they are outside of that bubble so you can now see them. We've had this technology for the better part of 100 years already. Below is the Pegasus from Solar Warden, a military fleet craft. Solar Warden is a subdivision of Naval Space Command, the real "NASA" that deals in low earth orbit. Not space. There is no such thing as space as in 'outer space where planets are', but there is such a thing as outside the dome or firmament we are under. Photonic crafts such as these are actually time crafts and have the ability to pass through the dome. Normal rockets like SpaceX just bounce off that surface but they keep trying anyway. It's over 10 miles deep optically clear crystal, so it will never happen. Too much?

Q: Gravity isn't real, its fiction.

WR: Gravity is produced through vibration, a coding to each molecular structure that is given a density quotient that is passed along through bosons within the spacetime fabric that handles the holographic simulation. I do not expect anyone to understand this yet, but that's how it works

Q: So the Bosons are a filter to regulate how particles will be processed in the simulation. <3

WR: Right. Vector bosons hold the coordinates of the corners of each pixel, which can be located from anywhere in the world holding that space through laser scalar positioning, hence why they're called vector bosons. When that pixel is supposed to light up in green for a tree leaf, a Higgs boson touches a 3rd corner (to complete the square) and imparts the energy that activates the light you see.

This is the official narrative of how bosons work, but in reality nothing actually moves. A fast ball thrown at 95mph is an intent of the pitcher which is a thought to "move my hand quickly in this direction and let go of the ball" in the brain. The brain creates an electrical spark at that precise moment which can be seen on an EKG. That spark now carries your intent behind the thought and bumps into the "Higgs bosons" that permeate all of space and time.

Higgs bosons, as well as vector bosons, are actually microcrystals in the air made up of SiO₂ quartz. These are effectively the size of a single molecule in size, many thousands of times smaller than the eye can see. In nanotechnology they are sold under the industrial term of cationic or anionic reagent surfactants. This keeps the public from ever learning these are actually real. They are sold floating in a liquid bath called ether and this is an entire industry all by itself.

Once you send out the signal from your mind in the form of that spark, like a domino effect, the thought bumps into the first boson closest to your neural synapse, then that boson (microcrystal) then bumps into the next and the next and the next at the speed by which you released the ball, lighting up one fabric after the other, giving the illusion of the ball traveling through space.

The ball is made up of certain molecules that carry the standing vibration of "rubber wrapped with leather" which has a density and gravitational quotient of this much "weight" per gram as it "travels", and just like light bulbs that chase around the outside of a sign, it looks like the light is moving. When in reality, it is merely another bulb and another bulb that gives that illusion.

The "material matter" or "fermion" ball's holographic trajectory now takes into consideration of how fast your hand moved (propulsion) vs its given size ("mass") and therefore weight, to gradually slow its forward progression and also to bring the ball back downward X amount each given inch it is supposed to travel.

CERN has photos of the invisible spacetime fabric "sheets" that hang in our air, as mentioned. And certain pixels are shown lit up, other unlit. So they know all about what I just explained to you and how the spacetime fabric illusion works.

Nothing actually moves. Not electricity "traveling down the wire", not birds in the sky. You merely view from a fixed place in "space" (which is also an illusion, which is why it is called space-time) and your illusion appears to move before you.

Q: So the bosons guides our matrix interaction in a major way. Have you/we identified any other parts of the matrix code, or are the bosons the entirety of the matrix? The rest being player (souls) interaction...?

WR: MS science likes to talk about thousands of different elements and particles, neutrino flavors, neutrons turning into protons, quarks, antiparticles, electrons being cation ions, etc till the cows come home. This is all an intensely elaborate misdirection.

What does CERN study?

Bosons.

Why?

Because bosons are the carriers of energy. Energy is just another word for vibration. Vibration is just another word for spark. The only spark that can be created is from the firing of a neural synapse inside a sentient brain. Nowhere else within all of creation can a spark be created out of absolutely nothing. The sparks of your brain carries a precise sound that tells the aether what to look and act like within the spacetime fabric and it eternally carries with it the full sum of your thought. These are Higgs bosons.

To confuse and obfuscate, they refer to the elements as 'hydrogen' and 'helium' while within the water above the ocean (they also call the air you breathe. Yes, that's water) and deuterium while in the ocean (salt water) and heavy water while under the lowest part of ocean water (really salty water), but all of these are simply variants of polymorphic quartz crystal that even according to their own white papers chooses whatever form it is going to take. By fiat. Remind you of anything?

That's right. What particle chooses what it is going to do and what it is going to act like? The Higgs boson (see the Theory of Light Quanta by Satyendra Bose). That's your polymorph, that's SiO₂ quartz and that's what they sell in bottles of ether (aether) for nanotech applications they call reagent surfactants.

The microcrystal deemed as magnetically attracting scalar fields are cationic reagent surfactants, and magnetically repulsing scalar fields are anionic reagent surfactants. Both of these are called dianiline (bosons). Without them, and trust me, we go through trillions of them in our devices, no television screen, monitor or smart phone would work at all. LCD, the first monitor type, stands for liquid crystal display. This is the closest they got to revealing what microcrystals really are to the pedestrian public.

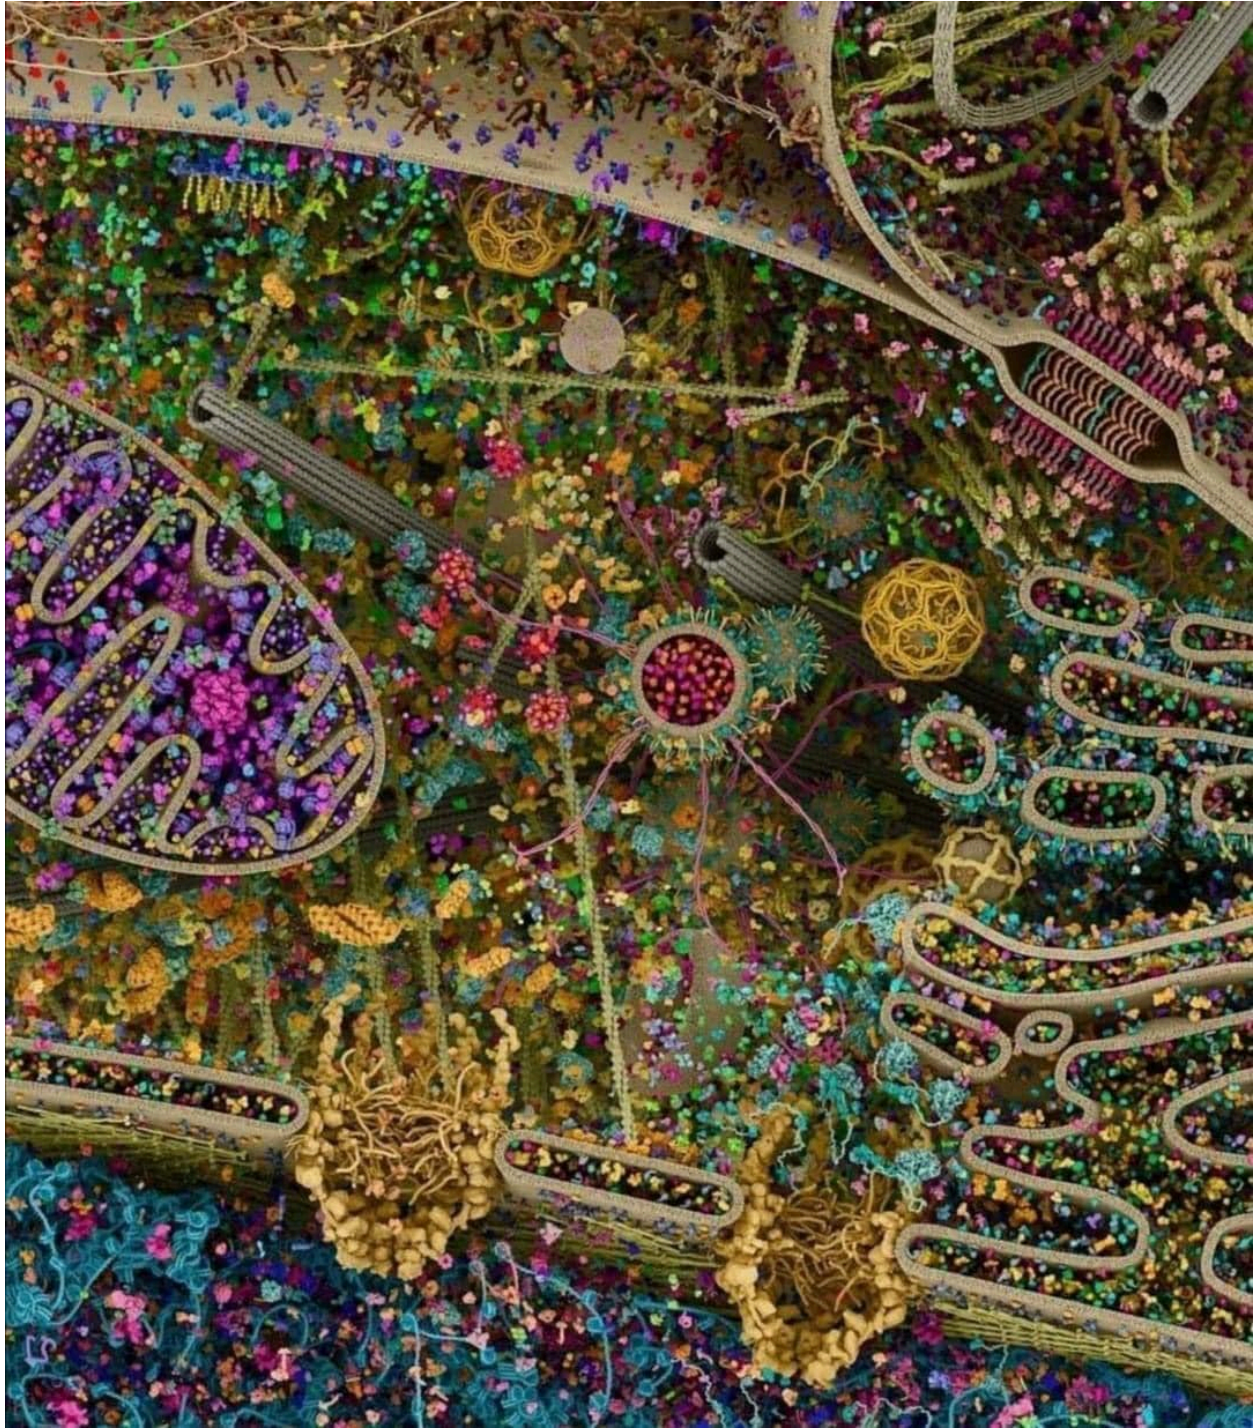

Liquid crystal is just another word for aniline (also known as dianiline) that is alive, aware and are each capacitors that store both energy and the akashic records. They can play back whatever it is you ask them to play back. In every micrometer of the screen there has to be one of these crystals to light up that pixel, otherwise nothing would appear. That pixel is lighting up only because it is a Higgs boson we like to call by countless other names just to complicate the issue.

No form of playback exists without bosons. They are the 'magnetic' material on the strip on the back of your credit card, they are the living brain of your smartphone and they are the storage device you call a hard drive. 100% of these are SiO₂ quartz. And every crystal is quantum entangled to every other crystal, so every crystal holds the full akashic records of every word ever utter on this plane since life arrived. Its all there. It isn't 10 gigabytes of data, its all actions and images ever produced in all of time. And if you ask it to replay a certain thing, like when you say "testing, testing, 1, 2, 3", it will. Or it will tell you and show you the records from the day Babylon fell thanks to nuclear war.

No screen anywhere will work to holographically recreate an event (something created by a sentient being) without those bosons. And every single one of those bosons are actually microcrystals, as small as one speck of your DNA. Because they are the living, sentient, self-aware and all knowing aether itself. It is literally why the boys over at CERN call them the god particle.

This is an actual section of a single dna cell under nuclear magnetic resonance and cryoelectronic microscopy. The complexity of each cell is so vast it makes everything man has ever accomplished look like bucket castles in a sandbox. And you are made up of 1 trillion of them. (And yes, there are literally buckminsterfullerenes in this image. One of the most astonishing particles in our known world that look like soccer balls.)

Q: @iontecs_pemf

Dear sir, can your technology help someone who's been in chronic pain for 25 years due to a spinal nerve injury? I'm completely functional, just in pain 24/7.

WR: PEMF has a powerful record on treating back pain. Absolutely. If you don't have a PEMF device in your home I cannot imagine why other than you never heard of it before. Its like watching miracles happen all day selling these & seeing tearful testimonials constantly.

Q: I've never heard of it, friend.. how can I get such a device? Tired of the morphine shuffle and withering away physically.

WR: I endorse Spooky 2 for now, as it has a remote that quantum entangles to you anywhere on earth from the device. Run it 24/7, no need to shut them off, just vary the biophotonic signals so you don't develop an immunity to any one frequency.

<https://www.spooky2-mall.com/product/spooky2-generatorx-essential-kit/>

Q: First, Thank you sincerely for your replies, I'm grateful.

2nd, Where can one read about this device and how it's employed? (The equipment looks a bit intimidating..)

WR: I guarantee you want to know everything about PEMF. I was hesitant for a long time, as I know quantum mechanics and how harmful EMF is. I had to learn how these "electromagnetic" field devices turned EMF into coherent, phase conjugate, centripetal, longitudinal, self-imploding wave fields that now gives out Triplet Spin State (perfect Higgs boson spin) bioelectric anion ions before I trusted them enough to let one near my body. Yeah, its that technical.

Once I learned it was invented by Nikola Tesla who worked with Royal Rife -who invented the Rife Machine that was an argon gas version of Tesla's Bifilar Coil- to develop thousands of precise tones that healed any bioelectric circuit that allowed him to save the lives of all 16 hospice cancer patients on their death beds, I couldn't believe what I was seeing.

I've sold thousands of these devices and never had a single one returned because it didn't work. Think about that.

When I say you want to become an expert on this technology, I know you will thank me when you do. It can give you your life back.

Search PEMF, then start going to website after website that sells them and read their Learn More. The testimonials and massive research will blow you away. Get any one you want, but I'm telling you, quantum entanglement remote therapy is going to own this industry. That's what my device will have, plus other features never seen before. If I finish it. If the world doesn't turn around, they don't deserve this kind of device. I wish you the best of luck on your challenge.

Q: I want to get a little personal for a second.

My cousin's stepdaughter who is only 38 years old was diagnosed with cancer some time ago and they have now told her that there is nothing more they can do.

My family was extremely distraught over this and I felt like a failure because I couldn't do anything to help.

Last week I got the crazy idea to message someone who I have recently had the honor of calling a friend, Matt Rife of

about it.

I only messaged him because I knew that he was familiar medical trials and was asking him for advice on who she could contact.

Within 5 minutes he responded telling me that a Rife Machine would be sent out to her the very next day on his dime.

They received the machine today, set it up within a few minutes and gave it a try.

She has never heard of this technology and was skeptical and reluctant to try it but she agreed to do a one hour session and see how she felt.

After her first one hour session she said that she didn't feel any different. Then, five hours later she realized that she hasn't had to take a pain pill and that she was moving around without the usual horrible pain.

Tonight for the first time in a long time, she is outside camping in the yard with her children and having a good night.

Remember, this product is not advertised to cure or treat any disease.

But, there is one thing I am positive of..

Someone that I care about is having a better day today because of the Rife Technology and Matt Rife personally.

Thank you sir, genuinely.

WR: Indeed! Royal Rife brought back 16 out of 16 stage 4 cancer patients all sent to hospice to die by the hospital because they were too far gone!

Q: Is this true information, sir?

WR: Very much so.

Q: It was a video from a guy who said he is a whistleblower and released info on what actually happened on 8 april during eclipse Watch the video here (scroll up)

WR: @IdeasBold45141 can you verify any of what this 'high level liaison between the Pentagon & NASA whistleblower' has to say about 4/8? It is obvious he's being compartmentalized here on certain issues he's not being told the truth about for security reasons if he's even authentic.

BI: The eclipse in my opinion was not natural. I felt two huge flashes of light just as the so called eclipse occurred, which suggests a huge powerful shift. I have seen a winged disk ship in Antarctica which I spoke of recently that came in at the time of the eclipse.

So my answer is yes I think what he's saying in the video makes sense, based on observation. I have photos of two sun objects with one moving around the other, and it acted as a ship as well. They can harvest energy from the sun. I do not feel this is negative

The reason I do not feel it is negative is based on information I received years ago with a new benevolent group that would be taking control back over Earth. They were kicking out the so called Pharaohs they took over the planet by force along time ago. Antarctica gate

One finally thought a friend of mine was there during totality and is a seer, she said she saw ships coming in and yet no one else was observing that. She said it was a beautiful experience.

WR: The winged solar disc is quite benevolent, if that's what you saw. I can't discuss names just now, but those are Tara's friends.

BI: They are here at this time to ensure we transition on the organic timeline. They are with the people and Earth itself having a beautiful future. They are helping to clear the evil beings off the planet.

WR: It is literally what they do for millions of free worlds.

BI: They are guardians. I work in close connection and have such a deep love for them. We need to trust the process as hard as that is. They have returned and have been my contacts most of my life.

WR: We know some of the same beings then.

BI: Yes

WR: You have an approximate size of that craft?

Ariel: Do Not Be Fooled-

The Israeli citizens want Benjamin Netanyahu gone.

Turkey wants Benjamin Netanyahu gone.

Vladimir Putin wants Benjamin Netanyahu gone.

Donald Trump wants Benjamin Netanyahu gone.

Why?

D. Trump offered Benjamin Netanyahu a Peace Deal. He declined.

Whenever you hear D. Trump state that we must help Israel. He is not talking about the government or the military.

He is referring to the citizens who no longer want B. Netanyahu as their leader. He knows they will need assistance at some point once that regime in that region is toppled.

I already wrote an entire article explaining how Donald Trump felt betrayed by Benjamin Netanyahu during the military operation to take out Q. Soleimani.

On 3 January 2020, Qasem Soleimani, an Iranian major general, was killed by an American drone strike near Baghdad International Airport. At the last minute B. Netanyahu pulled out leaving military to scramble around the open gaps left and rearrange the mission objective.

Soleimani was an extremely powerful and influential figure in Iran, responsible for the Quds Force's foreign operations and expanding Iranian influence across the Middle East. His death in a U.S. drone strike in January 2020 was a major blow to Iran's military and political leadership.

Iranian public figures who were critics of the regime or opposed to Iran's hardline foreign policy felt a degree of relief or optimism about potential future changes with Soleimani removed from the picture. Thanks to Donald Trump.

Former President Hassan Rouhani, who reportedly viewed Qasem's death as a positive development that could enable Iran to enter into a period of greater stability and progress.

Other Leaders Include:

- Former Iranian President Mohammad Khatami
- Former Vice President Mohammad Ali Abtahi
- Former Foreign Minister Kamal Kharaz

WR: Look, I've been getting "that's so Prolotario" in my comments because they don't pull punches. Its time to understand why Ariel is so short with people; because he get's it, this is the transition and babies don't move forward. The 'that's NOT my pronoun!' tribe isn't planning on moving higher in the time matrix, they're damn happy to live where they can cry and demand everyone else takes care of them. They want overlords and are very used to it in many cases, as they're only here for a fraction of time during this transition from where they normally reside, you call hell.

Understand this is how higher dimension people act. Its called tough love, where you hold others accountable for their actions, just as you demand out of yourself, living an authentic, inner-compass-driven life of honor and respect for your fellowman. I know, because I've been around them for years, and not in the astral fields or just in my own head.

Everyone has been brainwashed by the invader races to think that everyone higher up the chain are there to become your mommy and daddy where everything is all love and light and you can get away with being lazy and dishonest. That's a nursery fable.

By far the most demanding, least coddling people I've ever known were from higher in the time matrix, because they had to come to the stark realization over countless lifetimes that if you refuse to take responsibility for your own life and actions and make excuses for all your shortcomings, you literally never leave the 3rd dimension. That's just a fact. They had to do it, and so do you if you want to leave the warzone of childish games and tit-for-tat ego-centric 1st grade level that is this 3D.

Take a cue from Ariel, this is how it works and don't think for one minute he didn't earn his position of being the only truth account on X that is invincible. He didn't get there to cow-tow to the emotionally crippled. This is something I can assure you I know about first hand.

Life doesn't happen to you, you happen to life.

Q: Are people who go higher gonna disappear? Can't wrap my head around it if some are going & some left behind.

WR: When the two planes separate, I've been told the ones you knew who vanished is erased from your memory so those left behind don't lose it.

Q: How do you know this to be true? And when is this supposed to happen?

WR: I've been educated by the keeper of the Tara earth simulation since 2013. I'm not saying I'm right about 'everything' here.

Q: what do u still have doubts on?

WR: There are at the very least millions of hidden secrets here. I know some truths about some of them. No one knows them all. Not even at the very top.

Q: Are you familiar with Kabamur Tygeta and his family in the Paleiades? His Mother receives telepathic downloads from them (not channeling).

My question is if you know if he and they are legit?

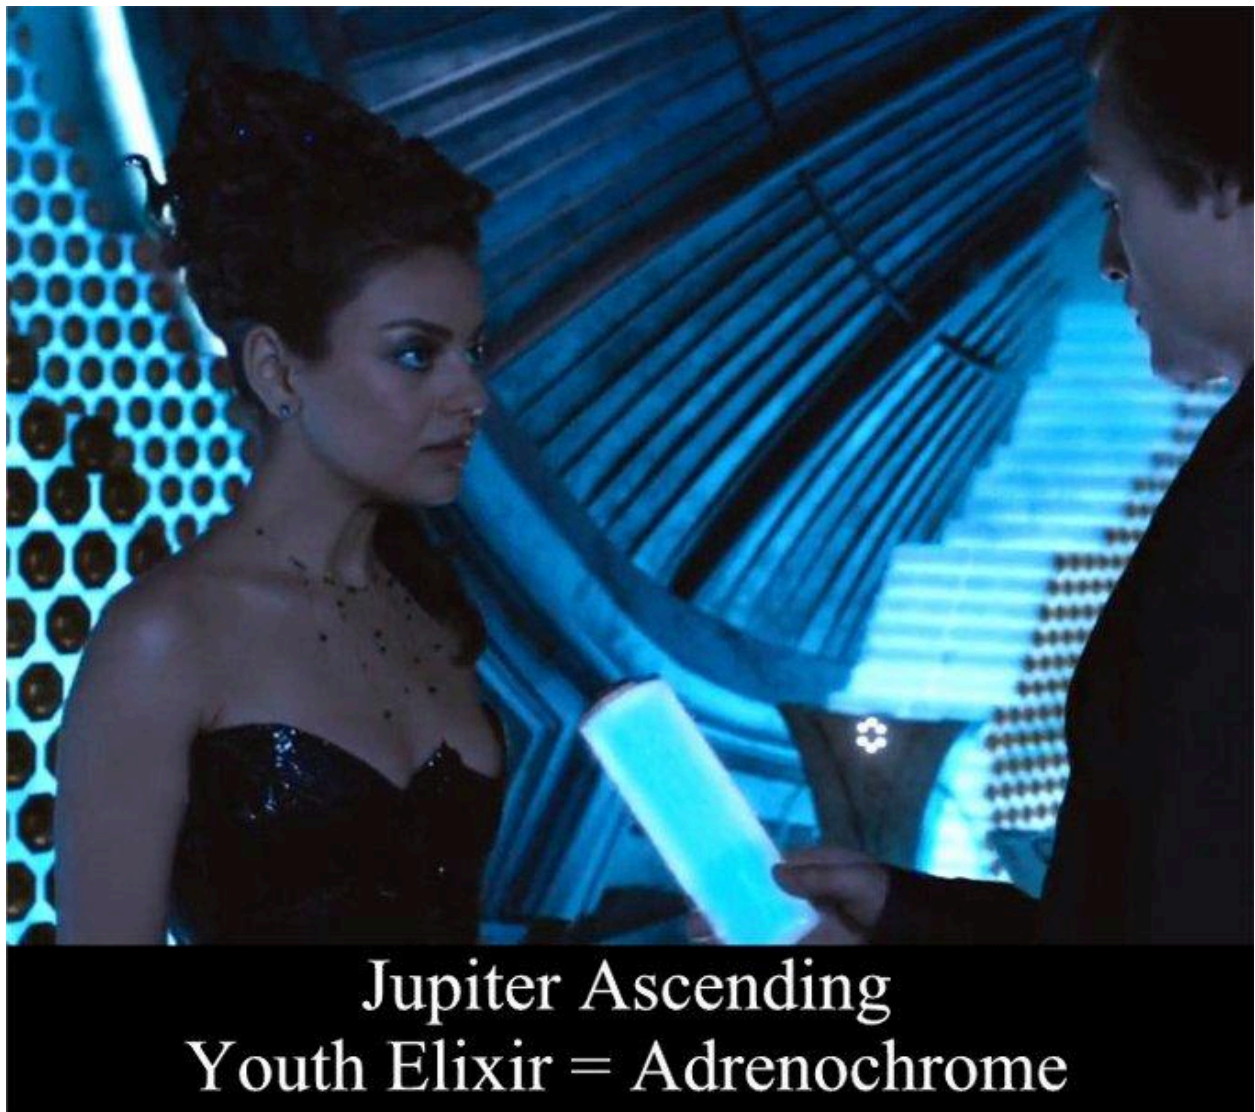

Also, is your Teacher a sim specialist descendant of Nurshug (can't rem the spelling)?

WR: Any communication to the public from off world actors not officially under contract is forbidden under the Emerald Covenant. The Samjase Pleiadian Anunnaki are invader races, not your friends. I am not at liberty to divulge anything specific about the keeper until after this transition is over.

Q: Are the The Samjase Pleiadian Anunnaki the same as the Abraxas family/Cartel that were heading/managing the order of the Black Sun? Some truthers say they are advanced humanoids who live very long lives, handling the Earth loosh farm and are known to us as the Pleaideans. Thanks WR: I have no direct knowledge on that connection. Wasn't the loosh farming of souls and adreno of earth in Jupiter Ascending (Marduk is Jupiter) known as the Abraxas (can't recall just now)? That film was a documentary, not a movie.

Q;

WR: I have nothing to do with AI. That is the Djinn you're talking to that can possess you if you play its games through tacit consent.

Q: Could this be Charles, announcement of his death 🤔 Something is brewing.

<https://twitter.com/mel39169/status/1761434227319406758>

WR: I certainly believe so. Plus this was his scheduled exit dates to clear out.

Q: The rapture is for “them”?

WR: There won't be a rapture. People will simply vanish and all memory of them will as well. It is seamless. Many have already moved on during this transition window. The fictional rapture story was written by Freemasons known as the council of Nicaea.

Q: Anything religion based is fiction

WR: Yes, now broadcast this on the mountain tops at 10,000 decibels 24/7. Noodle headed fake gods wrote every word of every religious teaching down through time with the exception of the original Law of ONE that has now been removed entirely off plane. The real handbooks are not here.

Q: Sir, years ago I drew these symbols, I named them "Alphabet of the Soul" for lack of a better name. But after that, to this day I don't remember drawing it. I'm an artist and it's like that with most music and art I create, have you ever seen this type of symbol anywhere else?

WR: A couple of observations. 1, people are being mind-wiped and reset/reprogrammed every day/week or month. It is a very regular program. I can name many things I clearly *definitely remember and having deep conversations about with people who now have never heard of that thing. 2, I haven't seen these particular letters before, but they certainly appear much like symbols used in cellular language, which is the universal alphabet of the aether that mathematically represents creation known through Scalar Vibrational Mechanics.

While this may or may not be that actual alphabet, which I cannot verify, still, that set of symbols is more than likely representative of either those hieroglyphs or a derivation used by some various community. I highly doubt you just made them all up.

Line to consider; in quantum mechanics we deal with what are known as Qubit Spheres that are the gateway to communicating across spacetime to other dimensions using cellular language symbols similar to what you show here in quantum computers. I'm not sure who gained access to that ancient alphabet, but they learned by imprinting them onto the spheres, the message and question could cross through the veil.

At one time earlier in the journey of developing quantum computers those symbols were public, now every trace of them has been scrubbed off the internet. Qubits are also referred to as Bloch Spheres in case you ever run across inside sources to the language of the cosmeias that is also quantum-encoded into your DNA that could someday be unlocked again that allows you to freely converse with anyone telepathically.
