

Listen to six people talk about what they wish they could buy.
Complete the following script with what you hear:

Jeanie, United States

One thing 1. [] is actually a new home for my mother, because she has done so much for me in life and I feel like I'd like to do something really special for her. Aside from that, as far as for me personally I'd like to have enough money just 2. [].

Naomi, Australia

I wish I had enough money to buy a new car. Actually the car I drive around now is a 1983 Subaru wagon which is full of rust, but it does go pretty well. It's smooth and the engine sounds nice but 3. [].

Mark, United States

If money were no object, and money were not a problem, I would like to buy a boat. That's sort of my dream, one day, I will have enough money and I will buy a boat. There's something about when I'm on the water in a boat I just feel completely relaxed, yeah, and definitely, that's 4. []. In terms of anything smaller, or something that I could buy these days, maybe a plane ticket to another country cause I really like to travel.

Simon, Canada

One thing that I would like to buy if I had enough money, or if I had enough money to buy something 5. [], which would mean that I got a lot of money to basically to be the king of a place. You know some people like to buy houses. I want to have an island.

Ruth, England

I'd probably say a ticket to go around the world and enough spending money as well but you know, that would be amazing but every time I want something and I buy it, then I want something different so 6. [REDACTED], I would come back and I would want a new car, or I'd want a house so I say a trip around the world but probably that might change.

Barbara, Australia

Something I really wish I had enough money to buy is my own computer 7. [REDACTED] with a printer and possible a scanner. At the moment I just have to go to the Internet cafe, or use the computers in my guesthouse, and often they don't work. As a matter of fact, today they are not working and if I go to the Internet cafe, that's expensive and troublesome 8. [REDACTED] to buy my own laptop computer.
