

Directions: I want to support you as best I can this year, so I want to learn as much about you as you are willing to share. Answer the questions as honestly as you can.

Your Identity: I will do my best to honor your identity and how you want to show up in the world.

Your preferred name and pronunciation (if you have different names/ pronouns for home or here, please indicate that)
Pronouns
Anything else you want to tell me about your identity- race, ethnicity, religion, hobbies, work, goals, etc. What is important to you?

School and You:

How do you feel about school in general?
What makes you excited about school?
What worries you?
How well do you feel the school supports you?
What do you need this year from the school (and me) to help you be successful this year?

How you work:

Where you sit. Are there any special considerations for where you sit? For example: Do you need to sit closer to see or hear? Are there any people that you know you will struggle to be on task with and need to sit separately? Are there any people you feel bring the best out in you academically and you would like to sit with?
Speaking is a big part of this course. How do you feel about group discussions, whole class discussions, Socratic seminars, group presentations, and individual presentations? Do some modes make you more or less comfortable?
What do you think is your greatest strength in terms of work habits (school or elsewhere)?
What about your work habits would you like to improve the most?
Is there anything about this course that you are worried about and would like support in?
