

V2 ON SECOND PAGE

Hello _____,

I hope this email finds you well.

My name is Victor, and I've been a _____ subscriber for a while now.

I have to say. I'm impressed and thankful for what you and _____ have created to help people achieve their health goals through personalized nutrition.

I'm surprised that fewer people than I like know about your brand.

I'd love to help you deliver your message even further.

I specialize in crafting messages and communicating in a way that engages and inspires, primarily through social media.

With your dedication to making a difference and my skills in delivering persuasive messages, we could make a great team.

Can I send you some of my work of free value?

I'm excited to hear more about your vision for _____ and how we can work together to make it a reality.

Best regards, Victor.

Subject: L-Supps Made Me ITCH To Say This...

Body:

Good day, Jared!

I came across L-Supps on Facebook back in 2020.

I was mind-blown how a simple quiz could personalize my workout supplements. Since then, I have been a subscriber for a long time now.

Huge kudos to you and Billie; I cannot imagine a healthy and active lifestyle without L-Supps.

Also, congratulations on launching L-Supps in Walmart stores nationwide!

I think it is by far the BIGGEST accomplishment you have made. <confetti emoji>

As mentioned above, you have fantastic workout supplements, but I was shocked to see your Tik Tok, Instagram, and Facebook followings not reflecting that.

Let's schedule a time to talk about why.

Imagine being able to reach more potential customers with compelling social media content and then turning those viewers into not only customers but long-term subscribers of L-Supps.

I attached rough drafts of your ads' potential Instagram and Facebook posts. If you have any questions or to schedule the call, please reply to this email.

I look forward to working with you to elevate L-Supps to new heights!

Cheers,
