The 7 Roles at a Glance

Before diving into each one, here's the full picture of who belongs on a BIP team and what they own:

- The Classroom Teacher owns daily implementation across the primary setting
- The Special Education Teacher owns IEP alignment, specially designed instruction, and cross-setting coordination
- The Behavior Specialist or School Psychologist owns the FBA process, plan design, and ongoing coaching
- The Paraeducator owns in-the-moment consistency across all the settings where they support the student
- Related Service Providers and Specialists own alignment across their specific service contexts
- The Administrator owns the conditions and structures that make implementation possible
