

Mallory Travis – Arts Representative

September 17th to October 1st

- Began my third year of university.
- Attended the UPEI Club Fair
- Spoke with workers at the Consent Week booths in the W.A Murphy Student Centre
- Discussed upcoming society events with English students.
- Attended pep rally at Fox & Crow and the UPEI Women's Soccer Game
 - Go Panthers! 🎉❤️
- Discussed issues that Political Science students are having with waitlisted courses with a Political Science faculty member.
 - Some Political Science students are struggling to graduate on time due to the extremely long waitlists for required courses.
- Began the conceptualization process of my councillor initiative.
- Gauged Art students' opinions in the Dawson Lounge regarding their courses and any concerns they may have.
 - Quality of the SDU building (No A/C)
 - Lounges need more amenities (coffee machine, better microwave)
 - More class availability
 - More electives (more variety and choice)
 - The price of replacing a student ID is too expensive.
