Part C: Reading Comprehension. Read the passage. Then circle the correct answer.

Mia and Ben are best friends. They live in Boston and go to the same school. Every day, they play soccer, read books, and ride their bikes together. One day, Ben's family moves to Seattle because of his mother's new job. Mia feels sad because Seattle is very far away. Ben is sad too, but they promise to stay best friends.

After Ben moves, Mia and Ben talk on video calls every Saturday. They send emails, pictures, and postcards to each other. Sometimes they read the same book and talk about it together. During summer vacation, Mia visits Ben in Seattle, and they have fun exploring the city. Even though they live far apart, their friendship stays strong because they always make time for each other.
