

Develop a disciplinary-based information literacy e-curriculum for teaching engineering courses at Busitema University

Workshop 1: 2 Days

February 17th & 18th, 2022
Zoom

Date	Session	Time	Topics
Day 1
Feb. 17, 2022	1	9:00 am – 10:00 am	Project overview Information Literacy Concepts What is information? The need for effective use of information What is literacy? Other “Literacy” concepts related to information literacy The information literacy concept A generally used definition Information competencies Library actions that contribute to information literacy Constructivist approach
	2	10:00 am – 11:15 am	Information Literacy and Lifelong Learning Inter-relations of the two concepts Information literacy and lifelong learning Libraries and librarians as partners in an information literacy/lifelong learning team Libraries and librarians as information literacy change agents Big or small, your library has an IL role Programmes and revised curricula are only one potential product
Breakfast – 15 Minutes –must end at 11:30 am
	3	11:30 am – 1:00 pm	International Standards Structure of the standards Access, Evaluation Use of information Information Competencies Information literacy - redefined Avoid taking skills and choices for granted
Lunch – 30 minutes – must end at 1:30 pm
	4	1:30 pm – 2:00 pm	Institutional Commitment Change strategies
	5	2:00 pm – 5:00 pm	Information Literacy Action Plan Philosophy statement

Develop a disciplinary-based information literacy e-curriculum for teaching engineering courses at Busitema University

Workshop 1: 2 Days

February 17th & 18th, 2022

Zoom

Date	Session	Time	Topics
			Mission statement Vision statement Justification Strengths and weaknesses Environmental scan
Departure – must end at 5:00 pm
Day 2
Feb. 18, 2022	6	9:00 am – 1:00 pm	Day – 1: Recap Strategies Objectives and goals Actions
Lunch – must start 1:00 pm & end 1:30 pm
	7	1:30 pm – 4:00 pm	Resources / Requirements Budget Timetable
		4:00 pm – 5:00 pm	Way forward – Planning for Workshop 2 Departure