Bluecoats Impress in Denton, TX, Continuing Its National Tour

IN ITS THIRD WEEK OF A NATIONAL TOUR, THE CORPS CONTINUES ITS SUCCESSFUL STREAK AS IT PREPARES FOR ITS NEXT CONTEST IN HOUSTON, TX.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

19 July 2024 - DENTON, TX - The Bluecoats Drum & Bugle Corps delivered another impressive performance last night in Denton, TX, as part of its ongoing national tour. The fan-favorite corps now heads to Houston, TX for its next contest. The Canton, OH corps showed a strong showing at the event, posting the following results:

- July 18 - DCI Denton - First Place, 90.500

Following its recent success, the corps continues its Texas tour with a performance at DCI Houston on July 19. This event presents a valuable opportunity for the corps to showcase its talents and sustain its momentum. After Houston, the Bluecoats will travel to San Antonio, TX for the DCI Southwestern Championship on July 20. This leg of their tour is a crucial part of their season, as it helps them solidify their rankings and fine-tune their performance. These efforts are key as the corps prepares for the DCI World Championships in Indianapolis, scheduled for August 8-10.

Before heading to Indianapolis, the Bluecoats will host Innovations In Brass, presented by Solotech, on August 5 at the Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium in Canton, OH. This event is the final regular season competition before the DCI World Championships.
