Genesis 3 Smash 4 Crew Ruleset:
- 5 players must be selected and will be locked before a region battles (must be from the official mains & subs list)

- all 5 players are locked to 1 character per round (Region Vs Region) and captains must share whom those are at the before the region battles

- Each crew may select their lead player. If an agreement on starting match cannot be made, a double blind pick may be called.

- The first round is played out normally like the first round of a singles game. 3 stocks, time limit is off.

- The first stage must be agreed upon a starter stage from the Genesis 3 Crew Battle Starters (attached below)

- The losing crew selects a new player. The winning team bans a stage; the losing team counterpicks stage.

- The winning player starts the game by SDing to the number of stocks he finished with previous game.

- This continues until one crew runs out of players.

Coaching:
There will be no coaching allowed during a game. Players may having coaching between games. Players are always allowed 3 minutes between games for this purpose in addition to ordinary time constraints.
