

Guide for Medical Content Writing Task

Brief to the task

This task involves writing a script on a medical topic for a video course. Please choose one from the following:

- Chest pain
- Headache
- Shortness of breath
- Abdominal pain

Please use the template below as a guide. Feel free to include other sections or to exclude any sections that you deem unnecessary. When writing the content it is important keep the following in mind:

- When writing the script, you'll have to deliver the content in a spoken word format for your video sample
- Use accurate medical literature
- Reference any sources that you use
- Ensure the script is aimed at your target audience which is... [specify the audience]
- Include any visuals such as pictures, illustrations that help explain a point or section

Course Template

Section Title	Visuals	Script Description (sections must be a minimum of 100 words and maximum of approximately 500)
Introduction
History		Include relevant parts of the history
Examination		Include relevant examinations to perform, and specific signs to look out for
Investigations		Bedside tests and other relevant investigations

Differential diagnosis		Consider factors that tend to one diagnosis over another
------------------------	--	--