The Board received a petition signed by residents in the neighborhood around Codder's tavern, complaining about the noise and behavior of patrons. Mayor Hogan said he is aware of some problems there, but Police Chief Crowe said two of his shift sergeants reported the problems were occasional and not prolonged. At Chief Crowe's suggestion, the Board instructed him to send a letter and copy of the petition to Codder's, to ask the business to police itself.

The Board noted receipt of a request by RBI Sports Pub to have live musical performances in its fenced-in back yard on Aug. 19, 2006. No official resolution was deemed necessary. The business is reminded to have the music move inside the bar by 8 p.m. that night.

The Board noted receipt of a request by Mary Ellen Smith of 117 Hornell St. for a stop or yield sign at the Buffalo/Taylor street intersection. It was forwarded to Chief Crowe for review.
