

Semi-Finals, Match 1 (Buck Naked Match)

Scarlett vs Lola Vice

Mike Rome: "The following contest is a Buck Naked match, where the only way to win is to pin or submit your opponent, after they have been stripped bare."

Lola's music hit and out she came pointing at the camera, before doing her signature hip shake, she continued down the ramp, before dancing her way around the ring, Lola then got on the apron and did her sensual dance, before doing a quick hair whip, she then got into the middle of the ring and did her shadow-boxing taunt, before spinning and smiling at the camera, Lola then finally got into her corner and waited for her opponent. Scarlett's music played and out she came with her back turned as she was surrounded by her usual fog, she then turned around as she walked slowly and sensually to the ring while giving Lola a quick smile, she then moved her hands up her body before stopping at her neck, she then slowly walked up the steps and stared at Lola, before doing her signature sinister smile, after finally getting in the ring she did her signature scream, before finally getting into her corner for the introductions.

Rome: "Introducing first from Miami, Florida LOLA VICE!!!"

Lola then did her version of Eddie Guerrero's signature taunt towards Jaida, before going back to her corner to allow Rome to continue.

Rome: "And her opponent from Chicago, Illinois, SCARLETT!!!"

Scarlett then did her "come here" hand gesture and got into her corner, as the ref called for the bell.

DING!!! DING!!!

The match started off with a lock up that Scarlett got the upperhand in as she pushed Lola into the corner and after a few seconds of holding Lola in the corner the ref separated them, which gave Scarlett the chance to deliver a cheap shot to Lola by slapping her across the face, Lola went to retaliate as she went to slap Scarlett back, but the ref pushed her back and this gave Scarlett an opening as she ran up for a Standing Hip Attack that sent Lola falling down onto her butt, Scarlett then backed up and ran up for another Hip Attack, but Lola rolled out of the way and that caused Scarlett to crash into the corner, which allowed Lola to hit a quick Spinning Heel Kick to Scarlett, she then unloaded with punches to the stomach that caused Scarlett to try and fend her off, but Lola kept the punches coming and that caused Scarlett to slowly fall down onto her butt, which led to Lola backing up and doing her Booty Popping Taunt, before she ran up and delivered a Hip Attack to Scarlett, she then quickly tried to strip Scarlett early and she surprisingly succeeded as she removed Scarlett's top, which revealed her

American Flag styled bra that revealed a lot of cleavage, Lola then tried to take off Scarlett's bra, but she fought out of it by kicking Lola, before she kicked her back into the center of the ring, Lola then quickly went for another Hip Attack that Scarlett was able to avoid as she rolled out of the way and that caused Lola to crash into the corner this time, Scarlett with her chest bouncing around went over to Lola and gave her some punches of her own, but it didn't last long though as Lola pushed Scarlett back a little, before she pulled her face first into the middle turnbuckle that knocked Scarlett loopy. Lola backed up and ran back with another Hip Attack, only this time it was to the back of Scarlett's head and that knocked Scarlett loopy as Lola quickly stripped Scarlett of her boots and socks, so now Scarlett is barefoot while Lola is running away with this match as she hasn't been stripped of any clothing, she quickly grabbed Scarlett and rolled her back into the middle of the ring, before she went for a Spinning Roundhouse to a kneeling Scarlett, who was able to duck the kick and quickly roll Lola up, before she stood right back up and spiked Lola's head into the mat with a quick Piledriver, she then quickly rolled over and drove Lola into the mat again with a Canadian Destroyer that knocked Lola out, Scarlett then used this to her advantage as she yanked on Lola's top and soon it came flying off, which revealed her pink, white & blue bra that barely showed any cleavage due to the bra covering most of her chest, but Scarlett then decided to try and get the mental advantage over Lola as she slowly and sensually removed one of Lola's bra straps, she then did the same thing to the other one and with Lola still out from the Destroyer Scarlett looked around smiling before she let out a sinister chuckle as she yanked Lola's bra right off, which revealed Lola's small bare chest and as Scarlett swung the bra air Lola regained consciousness and quickly felt a breeze across her chest, she then looked down and shrieked as she quickly covered her chest with her arms, while Scarlett threw the bra out of the ring and turned around to laugh at Lola, but Scarlett's laughter was a mistake as it refueled the fire in Lola as she put her arms down and jumped to her feet. Scarlett looked on in horror as she was not expecting Lola to overcome her discomfort so quickly, Lola then ran up and once again delivered countless punches to Scarlett, who slowly started to slide down the ropes and as Lola stopped throwing punches Scarlett fell down onto her butt while up against the ropes, Lola then bounced off the ropes and delivered another Hip Attack and that caused Scarlett to fall to the outside of the ring, Lola slid out of the ring and followed Scarlett towards the ring post, she waited for Scarlett to get on her feet and that's when she went for a Spinning Backfist, but Scarlett ducked it and that caused Lola to almost break her hand on the post as it collided with the it, Scarlett then quickly kicked Lola's hand back into the post and that caused Lola to hold her hand in pain, but Scarlett kept the attack going as she grabbed Lola's arm and slammed her hand off of the ring apron, she then quickly pushed Lola head first into the post that knocked her loopy as she backed up into Scarlett, who quickly locked in the Kross Jacket that Lola fought out of as she was able to turn herself towards the apron, before she lifted her legs and bounced off of the apron and that caused Scarlett to ram the back of her head into the barricade. Lola stumbled to the apron to regain her bearings, she then looked back at Scarlett, who was still sat up against the barricade, so Lola shrugged and ran back for another Hip Attack this time squishing Scarlett against the barricade, which caused Scarlett to fall over onto her side unconscious, Lola then taunted Scarlett.

Lola: "Time to show off your Chi-Chi's Chiquita."

Lola then quickly rolled Scarlett onto her stomach and untied her bra straps, before she rolled her onto her back and she quickly whisked Scarlett's bra off, which revealed Scarlett's big bare chest in all their glory as Lola tried to take Scarlett's bottoms off, but she fought back by repeatedly slamming Lola's head off the barricade that led to Lola falling onto her back holding her head, Scarlett smiled as Lola was knocked loopy, but the smile soon faded as she looked down to see that her chest was exposed, she quickly ignored it as she's not embarrassed of her body being shown off as she shook her body around for the crowd to see and the crowd cheered as her chest jiggled with her body, but this was a mistake as Lola had enough time to get to her feet so when Scarlett turned around Lola quickly knocked her out with the Buenas Noches, she then quickly unbuckled Scarlett's belt and then she rolled her onto her stomach and that's when she slowly and sensually shimmed Scarlett's bottoms off of her big butt and then past her thick legs, before she gave them one last yank and the bottoms came flying off of Scarlett's legs, which revealed her big butt that was barely covered by her pair of blue panties with white stars on them. Lola then looked down at her exposed chest again as she chose to try and one up Scarlett as she did her version of Eddie Guerrero's arm shake again and that caused her chest to jiggle, even though they were small compared to Scarlett's chest, but just like Scarlett she wasted too much time as Scarlett was able to crawl to the ring post and use it to help her get up on her feet, she then turned around as Lola ran up and went for another Spinning Roundhouse and Scarlett ducked it, which caused Lola to connect with the post as she fell down screaming and holding her foot in pain, Scarlett then waited for Lola to get on her hands and knees as Scarlett ran up and stomped on Lola's hurt foot, which caused Lola to scream and hold her foot again. Scarlett then quickly took advantage of the situation as she removed Lola's boot and sock from her hurt foot, before she jumped and stomped on Lola's exposed foot that caused her to scream in pain once more, Scarlett then quickly removed Lola's other boot and sock and now Lola was barefoot, but that was about to change as Scarlett grabbed the top of Lola's bottoms and tried to pull them down, Lola fought out of it though as she was able to send Scarlett back with a few elbows to the face. Lola slowly got on her feet as Scarlett came from behind and tried to take advantage, but Lola backed her off again with some more elbows, she then went for another Spinning Backfist that Scarlett was able to counter as she grabbed Lola's hand and quickly smashed it up against the post again, which caused Lola to hold her hand in pain as Scarlett backed up and measured Lola up, before she ran up and took Lola down with a Spear, she then quickly picked Lola up and threw her back into the ring and as Lola slowly regained her bearings Scarlett slid into the ring, before she bounced off the ropes for another Spear that Lola was able to counter with a knee to the face, she then went for the Buenas Noches again, but she wasn't able to hit it as she put all of her weight onto her hurt foot, which caused her to fall to a knee and tend to her foot as Scarlett took advantage by quickly dropping Lola to the mat with a Fisherman's Neckbreaker, she then rolled over and lifted Lola back up, before she spiked her head down into the mat with a Cradle DDT that knocked Lola out as Scarlett sat up and smiled. Scarlett then slowly and sensually crawled over to Lola's unconscious body, she then rolled Lola onto her stomach and grabbed the top of her bottoms as she slowly and sensually pulled the bottoms down Lola's big Latina butt and then down her big Latina thighs, Scarlett then gave another sinister smile as she yanked the bottoms off of Lola's body and now Lola is just in her matching pair of blue and pink panties, but Scarlett wasn't done as she wanted to end this match before she ended up completely naked, so she grabbed Lola's panties and quickly tried to take them off, but right when the panties were half way down Lola's butt she shot back to life with a stiff back hand to the face that dazed Scarlett, which gave Lola a chance to get to her feet and as she leaned up against the corner Scarlett ran up for a Body Splash, but Lola sidestepped and that caused Scarlett to go face first into the top turnbuckle and as Scarlett turned around Lola learned her lesson from earlier as she put all her weight onto her good foot and connected with a Roundhouse, before she doubled back with a Buneas Noches that knocked Scarlett out as she crumpled to the mat, but Lola fell to the mat as while due to her still using her bad foot for the move, so she sat on her butt and held her foot in pain. Lola stayed on her butt for a few more seconds, before she got to her feet and limped her way to Scarlett's unconscious body, but thankfully for Lola she was still completely knocked out as Lola slowly got down to a knee and grabbed the sides of Scarlett's panties and she wasn't wasting anymore time as she quickly got the panties past Scarlett's big butt and soon Lola gave one more yank, which caused the panties to fly off of Scarlett's body and now Scarlett's big bare butt was completely exposed, which was good news for Lola as all she has to do now is to pin or submit Scarlett to win the match, but there was still some bad news as unbeknownst to her Scarlett was mostly conscious, so when she rolled Scarlett over to pin her she countered by a finger poke to the eyes and that caused Lola to stumble backwards, but it gave Scarlett time to get to her feet as Lola ran back towards Scarlett, who started to get desperate as she pushed Lola back, but she then went for another spinning kick as Scarlett tried to block it and that's what Lola wanted as she delivered a Spinning Back Kick to the gut, she then went for a Sunset Flip that Scarlett was able to counter into a Dudebuster that knocked Lola out as her body was spread out in the middle of the ring, while the bottom of Scarlett's naked body was all over her chest as she just smiled at Lola's situation, Scarlett wanted to savor the moment, but she had some panties to remove, so she got to her feet and rolled an unconscious Lola onto her stomach as she grabbed the top of Lola's panties again and due to Lola still being out there was nothing that could stop Scarlett as she slowly and sensually pulled the panties past Lola's big Latina butt again and after she got them down past her thick thighs Scarlett made one last pull and the panties came flying off and now Lola's big bare Latina butt was revealed, which now means Scarlett also only needs to pin or make Lola submit to win the match. Scarlett then sat on Lola's back as she lifted her head up with her hair, she then locked in the Kross Jacket, before she rolled onto her back and wrapped her legs around Lola's waist as the ref came to check on, they were about to call for the bell, until Lola showed signs of life as she tried to fight out of the Kross Jacket with multiple elbows to Scarlett's side and this caused her to loosen the hold, which gave Lola the chance to power out of the move as she was able to deliver a few elbows to Scarlett's face and that caused Scarlett to release the hold completely, Lola used this time to roll towards the ropes that she used to get to her feet as Scarlett ran up to her, but Lola tripped her and that caused Scarlett to go throat first into the middle rope, she then walked up behind Scarlett and locked in her own submission in that being a Sleeper Hold that she quickly sat down for as she wrapped her legs around Scarlett's waist this time, now it was Scarlett's turn to fight as her arms flailed around trying to get out of the move, but it only caused Lola to tighten the move in and soon Scarlett was about to pass out and give Lola the win as the ref went to check on Scarlett and before they were able to call for the bell, the lights went out. After a full thirty seconds the lights came back on and Lola was spread out in the center of the ring as Scarlett sat in the corner, she then got to her feet and lifted a unconscious Lola up to her feet and then Scarlett spiked her head down into the mat again with another Canadian Destroyer that knocked Lola out as Scarlett slowly and sensually crawled over her lifeless body, before she covered Lola for the pin with her bare chest in Lola's face as the ref got down onto the mat and counted the one, two, three, this would end the match and give Scarlett the win.

Scarlett slowly got to her feet and got her hand raised as Lola was still spread out in the middle of the ring, but Scarlett wasn't done as she picked up a still knocked Lola and dragged her over to the ropes, she then hanged Lola's head across the middle rope as she stepped out onto the apron and repeatedly slammed her butt into Lola's face, but after ten butt slams Scarlett grabbed Lola by the hair and forced her to kiss her left bare cheek and after ten kisses she hopped over to the other side of the apron and she started to slam her butt into Lola's face again, only this time it's her right cheek and after another ten butt slams she forced Lola to kiss her right cheek, Scarlett wasn't done though as she gave Lola one more butt slam, before she got into the ring and made Lola choke on the rope as she sat on her with her big bare butt and while Lola choked on the second rope Scarlett gave Lola a hard spank to her right cheek that jiggle greatly, she then gave Lola a spank to her left cheek that also jiggle greatly, Scarlett then rained down spanks to each of Lola's cheeks and after ten hard spanks to each of Lola's cheeks Scarlett got off of Lola, before she bounced off the ropes and jumped on Lola's back again with her big bare butt that caused Lola to bounce off of the ropes holding her throat as Scarlett quickly threw Lola into corner, before she ran up and delivered a Hip Attack and quickly turned it into a Stinkface, but it didn't end Scarlett's way as after a full thirty seconds of being in a Stinkface, a desperate Lola bit down on Scarlett's butt and that caused her to scream as she jumped off of Lola and rubbed her sore butt, Lola then took this opportunity to slide out of the ring and slowly limp her way up the ramp as an angry Scarlett screamed at her. Lola soon had tears streaming down her face as she was not only stripped naked, but she was also forced to kiss Scarlett's butt and on top of that a cocky Scarlett rubbed salt in the wound as she did Lola's signature booty popping taunt, soon NXT went off air with a still crying Lola staring down Scarlett, who was still taunting her with her own move.
