

Emberton Wire Transcripts

Emberton Wire Transcripts

Made by neonscreenlight. These transcripts were originally made for the purposes of adding image descriptions for my Tumblr blog where I make Whitepine ARG update posts.

Notes:

- These are written by hand, so there may be some mistakes!
- Since they're written by hand, I can only release these so fast. Sorry
- All of these are written exactly as they are in the original edition, typos and all
- [sic] after a word means that the typo was present in the original source
- The font used in this document is called "Atkinson Hyperlegible". Originally I wanted to make a version of this doc that uses that one dyslexia font, but it's not available on Google Fonts

Sources: The Emberton Wire Twitter Account

First Edition (link)

Header: Nobleman's New Expedition [sic]

Text: A stirring story of one Lee Richard Silvers Jr. unfolded last night as he attempted to travel into the depths of Usherwood! mounted on his steed, and holding a sack of hunting gear, he ventured forth into the great unknown of the forest. he claims that he will "tame the vicious lands, and feast upon the wildlife, as he brings the honor of his family crest to the dark forest" godspeed, young man! nothing quite shows the elegance and prestige [sic] of the Silvers bloodline than tracking down and impaling herbivores in their natural habitat.

Header: worker stands up for real men! (arrow pointing to right side)

Text: earlier today, a splendid young worker was just offered a top position in the company board by his superior. he had been working for a little over 11 years and never took a day off, even missing family gatherings so that he could fulfil his duty as a proper employee. what an immaculate example of what a true man is! in his wisdom, he turned down the offer and said "no, thank you for the offer boss, but i'm comfortable where i am right now." and can you believe that? he decided to stay and help his co-workers than what most would have done and taken the easy money. these days, its hard to find hard-working men like this worker, weak men make weak times, and its with the help of this individual that will save us from these trying times. a true man works, and never stops, a real man, will prioritize his duty over any of his fleeting "emotions". a big thank you to all the noble workers such as this man who keep our factories in tip top shape, and show the world what a true man should be like.

Text (left side): in other news, 3 factory workers at the textile mill have died from fatigue and starvation while on the job, 5 others suffer injuries from a faulty machine that wasn't put together properly. the workers these days don't know how to do anything right, they're become weak

women are getting dumber

Header (right side): Mob Of Women Try To Get The Right To Vote

Second Edition \(link\)

Header: Murder at Whitepine!

Text: Murder strikes! Earlier today, a maid was found dead in Whitepine Estate, home of Emberton's largest tycoon and philanthropist, Sir Zombie Hemlocke! The maid was said to have been stabbed multiple times all over her body, with parts of her severed completely. Shocked and confused are the people of Emberton on this day, such a horrible occurrence hasn't happened in this quaint city in decades!

And now an investigation has opened on who could have been the murderer, the dastardly villain who could still be among us!

Our journalists visited the site of the homicide earlier today, to conduct an investigation of our own, but we were met with a bit of resistance by the police and forensics team at the site. But fear not! We at the Emberton wire are committed to journalistic integrity and getting stories to the public, no matter the cost! So without hesitation we pushed past their blatant censorship of journalism, and went into the scene of the crime! Here are some of the raw photos of the victim! (several images of Mysty's body)

Who could have done this? Was it a fellow, jealous maid? An affair gone wrong? Stay tuned for the newest updates of this thrilling case, we will be updating you all every step of the way!

Header: Text corrector hired!

Text: our last few papers had some typos! well we hired a goddamn editor so you can stop sending up angry letters now. it really hurts our feelings and we'd like

Third Edition (link)

Header: Who is the Culprit

Text: Only one question remains in the mind of every Emberton citizen tonight... “Who could have comitted [sic] this unspeakable act?” And rightly so! you, as a citizen are entitled to all the information possible about this case, and we at The Emberton Wire are entitled to get it to you, through any means necessary! Take a look at these servants of the Hemlockes! (image of the servants walking on the sidewalk from bird’s-eye view)

Earlier today there was a public statement issued by the Emberton Police Department regarding the homicide, they reassure the townsfolk to not panic and that they have everything under control. They have not named a suspect as of yet, but based on our very likely assumptions, it is almost definitely has got to be one of the other servants. It’s a take as old as time... another jealous maid, or an affair with one of the butlers? Perhaps a rivalry between the women! Or, one of our favourite theories... all of the servants killed her at once! Perhaps that was why she was stabbed so many times!

We managed to take a picture of the servants outside of the police station this morning, and here we display a premium photo of the potential killers! A rogue serial killer who broke in is out of the question, it must be one of these faces you see before you! Stay tuned for tomorrow’s updates!

Header: Feeling inadequate lately? Companies advise: Try harder!

Text: If you’ve been feeling a little down in the past few days, due to recent events or even just personal troubles, the top companies advise that you focus more on your job! It will help you not only be a better person but be happier

Fourth Edition (link)

Header: top doctors recommend: BEAT YOUR CHILDREN

Text: one thing that all parents can agree on, is that children are horrible vile creatures that can only be tamed through either punishment or a using a lobotomy [sic]. children tend to always whine and scream and repeat the same angsty things every day such as “don’t invade my private space” or “please don’t treat me like an object” or “may i have some extra food?” or “stop choking me” and things of that nature. they never listen to anything the parents have to say, what disrespectful vermin. Most kids don’t realize that they should be treating their parent as their personal god and one who can do no wrong. the parent is graciously blessing them with food and a household to live in without rent! how charitable of the parent, not letting their children become homeless as they deserve. well, we here at the emberton wire have interviewed one children’s doctor on the topic “what is to be done with kids?”

nowadays theres a big fuss being made about good parenting, and treating your children in a so-called “moral” way, but this is simply fake news from the radical left feminists. a good slapping never hurt anybody, and it’s been proven that the more you punish your children, the more obedient they’ll be! People these days like to call it “hitting” or “whipping” your children to fearmonger this parenting style, but i propose we use the word “spanking” instead. you need to spank your children so that they don’t become soft! kids these days are all glued to their novels and it’s rotting their brains. back in my day we got treated inhumanely and never complained, but kids these days feel the need to complain about small things, like being yelled at, and being forced into child labor.

The source of all our woes are children complaining, we should direct all our hatred towards these fragile, young minds. this won’t have any consequences in the future (Don Rosemond has never had a doctoring license but Header: Gay men found near boarding school!

Text: earlier today there were two gay men approximately 6 miles from the emberton boarding school! they were found in an alleyway while they were kissing! that’s right, they were kissing!! disgusting! and so close to the children’s school as well, our most important thing is our children, so we must be on the look out for homosexual men who would molest them in a heartbeat! protect the kids! the men

Fifth Edition (link)

Header: the gory, thrilling case continues! A NEW LEAD IN THE CASE

Text: who could the killer have been?

here at the emberton wire we pride ourselves with our one of a kind journalistic approach! no other fair and balanced news source can hold a candle to our commitment to truth and justice! you, the public, DESERVE to know who did this, and how psychopathic and provocative his [sic] murder was carried out! we will get you every last gory detail of the killing if it's the last thing we do! (image of Pyroscythe and Ivory walking down a town street from behind) today, another lead was found one of our journalists in the downtown area of emberton. sir pyroscythe hemlocke was seen going to and then entering one of the buildings that he works at. while that may be already fairly suspicious of someone of his "type", the single most incriminating piece of evidence here is the maid who is along side him. the photo attached was snapped as soon as they were spotted. what could she be planning? you can see it in her eyes, possibly jealousy? perhaps she wanted the former maid's position? we decided to, in the true journalistic mindset, try and sneak into the building after them and take a few more photos, but we were stopped by the office security, what a bunch of unpatriotic pigs, they might have even been conspiring with the murderer, who in their right mind would not let us get the information to the people? the security officer's name is Jeffery Lancaster he lives at 48 S. Queens ST, unit 322, Emberton, HALE 28399

Header: Redhill's hospital CEO has been murdered

Text: earlier today the CEO of redhill's largest privatized hospital was murdered in broad daylight right outside his headquarters building. this is a horrible, gruesome, and senseless murder of a good man. we are not going to be reporting on this case out of respect for his family, and his legacy that will live forever. violence is never the answer, please do not try to kill our CEO he is really handsome and not bad at all please don't

Sixth Edition (link)

Header: FUNERAL TODAY

Text: today is the funeral of the maid that was brutally murdered in the estate of the very generous mr. zombiedwarf hemlock. there is going to be a short ceremony at the cathedral, and the body is reportedly going to be buried privately afterwards. but fear not dear readers! we will try our best to get the location of the grave so that we can go and do journalistic investigation! perhaps the murderer will want to return to the scene of the crime! perhaps it will be one of the staff as we predicted, and they will want to revel in the glory of their successful kill! we will keep you updated in the following papers! (image of the cathedral mysty's funeral is taking place in)

Header: Mob of Women Try to Force CEOs to Give Them Even More Money!

Text: yesterday, a ferocious mob of women's rights voters tried to brutally negotiate higher wages in their workplace at the textile mill. they reportedly lined up outside the office of the ceos and demanded that they had an interview. in that interview, the leader of the women's rights movement apparently asked for the men to have empathy for the women. what a bunch of horseshit! this vile group of rebellious, and dangerous women should not be allowed to be given niceties by the gracious ceos. they are probably trying to trick the men so they can steal their money!

(Image of a political advertisement: VOTE MCGREGOR - i won't let the world be taken over by women!)

Seventh Edition (link)

Header: EMPATHY: good or destructive?

Text: recently there's been a word circulating in the youth and in the fake press that has a seemingly helpful and nice tone to it: empathy. is this a good thing to practice? or is it actually destructive and demonic? it might be a surprise to you but actually empathy is not as essential as some make it out to be. you might think that giving help to your fellow man is a nice thing and that it will help them, but actually it's not being kind or right at all. having empathy is saying "i agree with all that you say unconditionally and i support you no matter what" you can see how this would turn out to be destructive. take for instance a child who has just stolen food, it might get hurt when you spank it, but if you gave it empathy and didn't spank it, it would never learn the lesson that it truly needed: be obedient. another example: a woman that has accused a co-worker of raping her. some might try to manipulate you and say to "have empathy" and investigate her claims, tend to her wounds and at least separate the two so that they don't have to work near each other, putting the woman in more danger. but if we should have any empathy it's to the man! for most likely being falsely accused and having his entire life ruined! women try to ruin the lives of men all the time! accusing rape willy nilly. she was probably wearing an article of clothing that showed too much skin anyways. you need to go hard on some people. tough love is the best love, and making sure that you discipline people so that they don't get soft is of utmost importance. easy times make men easy, and hard times make men hard.

Header: Pope dies after talking with the vice-prime minister

Text: after talking with hale's vice-prime minister today, the conversation turned to the age of consent laws, the vice-prime minister said they should lower it by 4 years at which pope then keeled over and died. the vice prime minister said he tried to save him with cpr but he accidentally put asbestos on his lips, killing the pope faster. he will not be tried for

Eighth Edition (link)

Header: NOTHING IMPORTANT happened today.

Text: nothing that much happened today, some press outlets like to make a spectacle and a news-worthy show of every little thing that happens. we here at the emberton wire, of course would never commit such sensationalist behaviour. recently there has been rumor of the emberton police department abusing their power in some non-important way. these are all most likely just rumors spread by women and immigrants to try and undermine the great police force in this city. we here at the emberton wire will just call out the facts when we see them. there has been no confirmed crime that has been comitted [sic], one member of the detective branch of the office has been sent on paid leave for a few months for unspecified reasons. we ask the public to not try to harrass [sic] him out of respect for his privacy.

in fact, this officer probably didn't even do anything wrong, and was simply forced to go onto paid leave so that the police department could humor the feminist mob. we here at the emberton wire respect all police officers and their good services that they do for the public. lets [sic] take a moment of silence for this poor officer anyways, in other news, the aristocrat has still not returned from his daring venture into the usherwood forest! he must be slaying all the vile detestables in the region.

Header: Fascist Party Looking to Win Major Seats in Office

Text: the fascist party called the "s.f.p" has recently risen to power within the hale government, and has been voted to get a few more seats! when asking voters why they voted for this party, they said "well, we don't agree with their racism, but they might make our carrot prices cheaper!" hope that goes well

Ninth Edition (link)

Header: NOBLEMAN RETURNS from usherwood, unscathed!

Text: recently, the man of nobility Lee Richards Silver Jr, has returned from his perilous quest into the feared usherwood, in an attempt to tame it, and bear witness to the secrets inside its towering vast tree line that spans almost all of hale. he had originally set off in hopes of finding some wild game to bring back to civility, as perhaps there were even more big and ferocious beasts in usherwood that would help him stake his claim in the hunting and game industry. however upon arriving, Lee Richards Silver Jr, along with his trusty steed, was dragging back the carcass of a stallion horse. he said that he couldn't find any animals in the forest, not one. only finding this horse grazing deep within the forest. not wanting to come home empty handed, he had decided to shoot it so at least he has something to show for his venture into the vast unknown usherwood. upon closer inspection, the horse was wearing a bridle and saddle, with one of the stirrups missing. perhaps this horse was belonging to someone who had tried doing what Lee Richards Silver Jr had attempted, and this man had gotten eaten up by a grizzly beast in the forest... or even something more mysterious could have happened to him! it just goes to show how dangerous usherwood really is! and how brave Lee Richards Silver Jr. is for having went in by himself!

Header: Adressing (sic) the hiatus

Text: last week we didn't publish a newspaper, for we didn't see it fit to write anything on such a sad day. a very good and kind, hardworking man, sadly died on that tragic day a week ago, and we decided to take a break from the newspapers to give everyone time and space to grieve for the loss of, truly one of our heroes.

while on campus, debating with a poor, un-educated and crazy feminist, trying to get him to not support the death penalty for children, he was crushed by a steam roller that had by accident, been left un-braked when parked, and it rolled down the hill, flattening him in one fell swoop. despite there being no evidence that there was foul play involved, we here at the emberton wire, think it was those feminists

Tenth Edition (link)

Header: MURDERER CAUGHT! the feared whitepine slasher!

Text: the police department today announced that they have at last apprehended the fierce whitepine slasher! murderer of one of the hemlocke's maids, and stoker of terror in emberton! the police had galliantly hunted him down, fought with him recklessly, and managed to restrain this beast of a man, before he would be able to continue his vicious slashing spree! these courageous heroes must be worthy of our upmost respect and honor, we owe our lives to these gentlemen! the murderer has been identified and his name is Thomas Debus, son of Kurt Debus, famous luxury watch designer, and owner of the company Watch Out™. his motive remains unclear but we know that he was missing from his father's estate for a few months, and he left a note saying he was "out for blood", as well as all of his father's weapons going missing. but Mr. Debus Sr. thought nothing of it. (image of the person in the Whitepine 10 thumbnail without face scribbled out)

Header: A win for common men!

Text: a massive success for the s.f.p. party as they win in a landslide in the elections! they are now proposing a new, facist (sic) utopia, where traditional values are upheld, and family is first and foremost! the party has elected their chief to be the great McGregor! Mr. McGregor had previously disowned the party and said that he had nothing to do with their actions, and that he was running for himself. but he has now seemed to be working with them, and today has pledged to make this once beautiful country, once again beautiful!

-The Emberton Wire-

NOBLEMAN NEW EXPIDITION

A stirring story of one Lee Richard Trivers Jr., unfolded last night as he attempted to travel into the depths of Usherwood mounted on his steed, and holding a sack of hunting gear, he ventured forth into the great unknown of the forest, he claims that he will "tame the vicious lands, and feast upon the wildlife, as he brings the honor of his family crest to the dark forest" godspeed, young man! no thing quite shows the elegance and prestige of the Silvers' bloodline than tracking down and in-palling herbivores in their natural habitat.

worker stands up for real men!

in other news, 3 factory workers at the textile mill have died from fatigue and starvation while on the job, 5 others suffer injuries from a faulty machine that wasn't put together properly, the workers' these days don't know how to do anything right, they're become weak earlier today, a splendid young worker was just offered a top position in the company board by his superior, he had been working for little over 11 years and never took a day off, even during family gatherings so that he could fulfil his duty as a proper employee, what an immaculate example of a true man in his wisdom, he turned down the offer and said "no, thank you for the offer boss, but I'm comfortable where i am right now", and can you believe that? he decided to stay and help his co-workers so that most wuld have done and taken the easy money, these days, its hard to find hard-working men like this worker, weks men make weak times, and its with the help of this individual that will save us from these trying times, a true man works, and never stops, a real man, will prioritize his duty over any of his fleeting "enemys" a big thank you to all the noble workers such as this man who keep our factories in tip top shape, and show the world what a true man should be like.

Mob Of Women Try To Get The Right To Vote

-The Emberton Wire-

MURDER: A WHI EPINE!

Murder strikes! Earlier today, a maid was found dead in Whitepine Estate, home of Emberton's largest tycoon and philanthropist, Sir Zombie Henclochel. The maid was said to have been stabbed multiple times all over her body, with parts of her severed completely. Shocked and confused are the people of Emberton on this day, such a horrible occurrence hasn't happened in this quaint city in decades!

find now an investigation has opened on who could have been the murderer, the dastardly villain who could still be among us!

Our journalists visited the site of the homicide earlier today, to conduct an investigation of our own, but we were met with a bit of resistance by the police and for ensies' leave at the site. But fear not! noble at the Emberton wire are committed to journalistic integrity and getting stories to the public, no matter the cost! So without hesitation we pushed past their blatant censorship of journalism, and went into the scene of the crime! Here are some of the rauphotos of the victim!

Who could have done this? Was it a fellow, jealous maid? An affair gone wrong? Stay tuned for the newest updates of this thrilling case, we will be updating you all every step of the way!

Text corrector hired! our last few papers had some typos! we've hired a goddamn editor so our stories will be up to snuff! letters now, it really is up to us!

-The Emberton Wire-

WHO IS THE CULPRIT

Only one question remains in the mind of every Emberton citizen tonight... "Who could have committed this unspeakable act?" And rightly so! you, as a citizen are entitled to all the information possible about this case, and we at The Emberton Wire are entitled to get it to you, through any means necessary! Take a look at these servants of the Henlocks!

Earlier today there was a public statement issued by the Emberton Police Department, regarding the homicide, they reassure the townsfolk to not panic and that they have everything under control. They have not named a suspect as yet, but based on our very likely assumptions, it is almost definitely has got to be one of the other servants! It's a take as old as time... another jealous maid, or an affair with one of the butlers? Perhaps a rivalry between the women? Or, one of our favorite theories... all of the servants killed her at once! Perhaps that was why she was stabbed so many times!

He managed to take a picture of the servants outside of the photo station in the morning, and here we display a premium photo of the potential killers! If you're a serial killer who broke in is out of the question, it must be one of these faces you see before you! Stay tuned for tomorrow's updates!

Feeling inadequate lately? Companies advise: Try harder!

If you've been feeling a little down in the past few days due to recent events or even just personal troubles, the top companies advise that you focus more on your job! It will help one thing that all parents can agree on, is that children are horrible vile creatures that can only be tamed through either punishment or a using a lobotomy. Children tend to always whine and scream and make the same angry things every day such as "don't invade my private space" or "please don't treat me like an object" or "hey I have extra food!" or "stop choking me" and things of that nature. They never listen to anything the parent has to say, what distinguishes well behaved kids from bad kids don't realize that they should be treating their parent as their personal god and one who can do no wrong. The parent is graciously blessing them with food and a household to live in without rent how charitable of the parent, not letting their children become homeless as they deserve, well, we here at the emberton wire have interviewed one children's doctor on the topic "what is to be done with kids?"

Gay men found near boarding school earlier today there were two gay men approximately 6 miles from the emberton boarding school that had been seen walking while they were kissing that night. They were kissing disgusting and so close to the children's school as well our most important thing is our children, so we must be concerned for homosexual men who would molest them.

towardays theres a big fuss being made about good parenting, and saying your children in a so-called "wor" ay, but this is simply fake news from the radical left feminists. A good slapping never hurt anybody, and its been proven that the harder you punish your child the more obedient they'll bel people these days like to call it "hitting" or "whipping" your children to fear monger. If spanking works, but I propose we use the word "spanking" instead, you need to spank your children so that they don't become soft kids. These days are all glued to their novels and it's nothing but boring back in my day we got teased humiliated and even cowied by kids these days feel the need to complain about small things, like being yelled at, and being forced into child labor.

In a school where all our woes are children complaining, we should end it all of our hatred toward these fragile, developing minds. This won't have any bad effects on the future. (Don't respond has never

-The Emberton Wire-

the gory, thrilling case continues!

A NEW LEAD IN THE CASE

who could the killer have been? here at the ember-ton wire we pride our-selves with one of a kind, journalist's approach! neither fair and balanced news source can hold a candle to our commitment to truth and justice! you, the public, DESERVE to know who did this, and who deranged, psychopathic and provoked his murder was carried out by me! you get every last gory detail

REDHILL'S HOSPITAL CEO HAS BEEN MURDERED
earlier today the CEO of redhill's largest privatized hospital was murdered in broad daylight right outside his headquarters building. this is a horrible, gruesome, and senseless murder of a good man. we are not going to be reporting on this case out of respect to his family, and his legacy that will live forever. vengeance is never the answer, please do not try to kill our CEO he is really handsome of the killing if it's the last thing we do today, another lead was found one of our journalists in the downtown area of ember-ton, sir pyrosocy the henlocke was seen going to and then entering one of the buildings that the works at while that may be already fairly suspicious of someone of his "type", the single most incriminating piece of evidence here is the naid who is along side him, the photo attached was snapped as soon as they were spotted, what could she be planning? you can see it in her eyes, possibly jealous? perhaps she wanted the former naid's position? we decided to, in the true journalistic mindset, try and sneak into the building after then and take a few more photos, but we were stopped by the office security, what a bunch of unpatriotic pigs, they might have been conspiring with the murderer, who in their right mind would not let us get the information to the people? the security officer's name is Jeffrey Lancaster he lives at 483, Queens St, unit

-The Emberton Wire-

FUNERAL TODAY

today is the funeral of the naid that was brutally murdered in the estate of the very generous mr. zombieduarrf henlocke, there is going to be a short ceremony at the cathedral, and the body is reportedly going to be buried privately afterwards, but fear not dear reader! we will try our best to get the location of the grave so that we can go and do journalistic investigation! perhaps the murderer will want to return to the scene of the crime! perhaps it will be one of the staff as we predicted, and they will want to revel in the glory of their successful kill! we will keep you updated in the following paper!

VOTE MCGREGOR
won't let the world be taken over by women!

-The Emberton Wire-

FUNERAL TODAY

MOB OF WOMEN TRY TO FORCE CEO'S TO GIVE THEM EVEN MORE MONEY!
yesterday, a ferocious mob of women's rights voters tried to brutally negotiate higher wages in their workplace at the textile mill, they reportedly lined up outside the office of the ceos and demanded that they had an interview with them in that interview, the leader of the women's rights movement apparently asked for the men have empathy for the women, what a bunch of dishonest vile group of rebellious, and dangerous women should not be allowed to be given niceties by the gracious ceos, they are probably trying to trick the

~The Emberton Wire~

EMPATHY good or destructive?

recently there's been a word circulating in the youth and in the fake press that has a seemingly helpful and nice tone to it: empathy. is this a good thing to practice? or is it actually destructive and demonic? it might be a surprise to you but actually empathy is not as essential as some make it out to be. you might think that giving empathy to your fellow nan is a nice thing and that it will help them, but actually it's not being kind or right at all. having empathy is saying "i agree with all that you say unconditionally and i support you no matter what" you can see how this would turn out to be destructive. take for instance a child who has just stolen food, it might get hurt when you spank it, but if you gave it empathy and didn't spank it, it would never learn the lesson that it truly needed: be obedient. another example: a woman that has accused a co-worker of raping her. some might try to manipulate you and say to "have empathy" and investigate her claims, tend to her wounds and at least separate the two so that they don't have to work near each other, putting the woman in more danger. but if we should have any empathy it's to the nan for most likely being falsely accused and having his entire life ruined: women try to ruin the lives of men all the time! accusing r ape willy nilly. she was probably wearing an article of clothing that showed too much skin anyways. you need to go hard on some people. tough love is the best love, and making sure you discipline people so that they don't get soft is of utmost importance. easy times make men easy, and hard times make men hard.

POPE DIES AFTER TALKING WITH THE VICE-PRIME MINISTER

after talking with h ale's vice-prime minister, the emberton turned to the age of consent laws, the vice-prime minister said they should lower it by 4 years at which pope then keeled over and died. the vice prime minister said he tried to save him with opn but he accidentally put asbestos on his leg, killing the pope faster. he will not be tried for nothing that much happened today, some press outlets like to make a spectacle and a news-worthy show of every little thing that happens. we here at the emberton wire, of course would never commit such sensationalist behaviour. recently there has been rumor of the emberton police department abusing their power in some non-important way. these are almost likely just rumors spread by women and immigrants to try and undermine the great police force in this city. we here at the emberton wire will just call out the facts when we see them. there has been no confirmed crime that has been committed, one member of the detective branch of the office has been sent on paid leave for a few months for unspecified reasons. we ask the public to not try to harass him out of respect to his privacy.

~The Emberton Wire~

NOTHING IMPORTANT happened today.

in fact, this officer probably didn't even do anything wrong, and was simply forced to go on paid leave so that the police department could honor the feminist mob. we here at the emberton wire respect all police officers and their good services that they do for the public. lets take a moment of silence for this poor officer anyways, in other news, the aristocrat has still not returned from his daring venture into the usherwood forest! he must be staying all the vile detestables in the region.

FASCIST PARTY LOOKING TO WIN MAJOR SEATS IN OFFICE

the fascist party called the s.f.p. have been open to power within the halls of emberton and has been voted to get a few more seats! the public to not try to vote for this party, they will be doing it for us with their racism, but they might make our cars cheaper! hope that goes well

~The Emberton Wire~

NOBLEMAN RETURNS from usherwood, unscathed!

recently, the nan of nobility Lee Richards Silver Jr. has returned from his perilous quest into the feared usherwood, in an attempt to tame it, and bear witness to the secrets inside its towering vast tree line that spans almost all of hale. he had originally set off in hopes of finding some wild game to bring back to civility, as perhaps there were even more big and ferocious beasts in usherwood that would help him stake his claim in the hunting and game industry. however upon arriving, Lee Richards Silver Jr. along with his trusty steed, was dragging back the carcass of a stallion horse. he said that he couldn't find any animals in the forest, not one. only finding this horse grazing deep within the forest not wanting to come home empty handed, he had decided to shoot it so at least he has something to show for his venture into the vast unknown usherwood. upon closer inspection, the horse was wearing a bridle and saddle, with one of the stirrups missing. perhaps this horse was belonging to someone who had tried going what Lee Richards Silver Jr. had attempted, and this nan had gotten eaten up by a grizzly beast from the forest... or even something more mysterious could have happened to him! it just goes to show how dangerous usherwood really is! and how brave Lee Richards Silver Jr. is for having went in by himself!

ADDRESSING THE HIATUS

last week we didn't publish a newspaper, for we didn't see it fit to write anything on such a sad day. a very good and kind, hard working nan, sadly died on that tragic day a week ago, and we decided to take a break from the newspapers to give everyone time and space to grieve for the loss of, truly one of our heroes.

while on campus, debating with a poor, un-educated and crazy feminist, trying to get him to not support the death penalty for children, he was crushed by a steam roller that had by accident, been left un-braked when parked, and it rolled down the hill, flattening him in one fell swoop. despite there being no evidence that there was foul play involved, we here at the emberton wire, think it was those feminist

~The Emberton Wire~

MURDERER CAUGHT! the feared whitepine slasher!

the police department today announced that they have at last apprehended the fierce whitepine slasher/murderer of one of the henlocks's maids, and stoker of terror into the hearts of many here in emberton! the police had gallantly hunted him down, fought with him recklessly, and managed to restrain this beast of a man, before he would be able to continue his vicious slashing spree! these courageous heroes must be worthy of our upmost respect and honor, we owe our lives to these gentlemen! the murderer has been identified and his name is Thomas Debus, son of Kurt Debus, famous luxury watch designer, and owner of the company Watch Out! his motive remains unclear, but we know that he was missing from his father's estate for a few months, and he left a note saying that he was "out for blood", as well as all of the father's weapons going missing. but Mr. Debus Jr. thought nothing of it,

A WIN FOR COMMON MEN!

a massive success for the s.f.p. party as they win in a landslide in the elections! they are now proposing a new, fascist utopia, where traditional values are upheld, and family is first and foremost! the party has elected their chief to be the great McOregon! Mr. McOregon had previously disowned the party and said that he had nothing to do with their actions, and that he was running for himself, but he has now seemed to be working with them, and today has pledged to make this once beautiful country, once again beautiful!