

The Trump Show

Between 2020 and 2021, the BBC broadcast a 4-part documentary series called, 'The Trump Show'. Speaking to people from inside Trump's team during his time as President, as well as political commentators, and journalists, the documentary looks at Trump's triumph in winning the Presidency, as well as the issues he faced while Commander in Chief. Today, you'll watch episode 3. This episode looks at Trump's last year in office, including his impeachment and the challenge presented by COVID-19. As you watch the documentary, fill in the blanks of the statements below.

Mick Mulvaney was President Trump's _____ of _____ between 2019 and 2020.

Trump discussed the possibility of the United States wanting to _____ Greenland.

'Sharpie-gate' involved Trump using his pen to extend the potential impact radius of a hurricane to include the state of _____.

_____ was the Democrat which Donald Trump seemingly was the most afraid of in the run-up to the 2020 election.

_____ Bolton was Trump's _____ between 2018 and 2019.

Mary Jordan of The Washington Post claimed Trump asked the President of Ukraine to "_____ " and then, "you'll get your aid".

Trump claimed the allegations against him were a _____.

In a press conference, Mick Mulvaney was seemingly acknowledging that there was a so-called _____ between the USA and Ukraine.

On _____ September _____, Nancy Pelosi - the Speaker of the _____ of _____ - announced the start of an "official _____ inquiry".

Pastor Mark Burns says that Trump placed "two Conservative Justices" on the bench, and claimed that Trump was "pushing to put the _____ back into _____".

In _____ 2019, the impeachment process begins in the _____ of _____.

Miles Taylor says Trump likes to use "_____ whistles", which is why many Republicans chose to _____ Trump through the impeachment process.

On voting on whether to convict Trump, the Senate voted _____ Guilty and _____ Not Guilty.

On 4th February 2020, President Trump delivered his _____ the _____ address, and claimed that, "the _____ is yet to _____". At the end, Nancy Pelosi ripped up Trump's _____.

On 24th _____ 2020, Trump led a press conference to order a relaxation in _____ restrictions, claiming that, "our country wasn't supposed to be _____".

In _____ 2020, _____ was murdered by a white Police Officer. The footage sparked protests in cities across the US, including _____, _____, _____, and _____.

TEACHER ANSWERS

Mick Mulvaney was the President's Chief of Staff between 2019 and 2020.

Trump discussed the possibility of the United States wanting to buy Greenland

'Sharpie-gate' involved Trump using his pen to extend the potential radius of a hurricane to include the state of Alabama

Which Democrat was Donald Trump seemingly most afraid of in the run-up to the 2020 election? Joe Biden

John Bolton was Trump's National Security Advisor between 2018 and 2019.

Mary Jordan of The Washington Post claimed Trump asked the President of Ukraine to "do him a political favour" and then, "you'll get your aid"

Trump claimed the allegations against him were a witch hunt

In a press conference, Mick Mulvaney was seemingly acknowledging that there was a so-called Quid Pro Quo between the USA and Ukraine

On 24th September 2019, Nancy Pelosi - the Speaker of the House of Representatives - announced the start of an "official impeachment inquiry"

Pastor Mark Burns says that Trump placed "two Conservative Justices" on the bench, and claimed that Trump was "pushing to put the prayer back into schools"

In October 2019, the impeachment process begins in the House of Representatives

Miles Taylor says Trump likes to use "dog whistles", which is why many Republicans chose to back Trump through the impeachment process

In voting on whether or not to convict Trump, the Senate votes 47 Guilty and 53 Not Guilty

On 4th February 2020, President Trump delivered his State of the Union Address, and claimed that, "the best is yet come". At the end, Nancy Pelosi ripped up Trump's speech

On 24th March 2020, Trump led a press conference in order to relax social distance restrictions, claiming that, "our country wasn't supposed to be locked down"

In May 2020, George Floyd was murdered by a white Police Officer. The footage sparked protests in cities across the US, including New York City, Detroit, Los Angeles, and Washington, DC