

Star Diocese of His Holiness Maximilian Singularity VI

"Jamył Sarum Wanted Alive"

Proclamation 8a - Jamyl Sarum Wanted Alive

YC 117, August 21 1840 hrs

Today's attack on the Titan 'Seraph', destroyed by a Drifter Armada is a tragic loss for the Amarr Empire. The Seraph had an estimated crew contingent of about 5,000 souls and rescue efforts are underway to rescue and/or recover the crew as of this writing.

This singular Drifter attack was focused on the Titan, piloted by Jamyl Sarum 1, Empress of Amarr. While the fate of Empress Jamyl Sarum, is presently unknown, witnesses observed the Local Message that Drifters were scrambling her pod, and subsequent destruction.

However...

It is too early, and inappropriate to grieve for the Empress at this time, as no physical body has been discovered. A similar Jamyl 'false death' has happened once before in Amarr history, as she had lost the ascension trials and her ship and capsule were destroyed in public view.

It is therefore suspected by myself and members of the Sixth Empire, that Jamyl Sarum, maybe alive. It is our hope that she is alive. The Sixth Empire, wants more than ever now that Jamyl Sarum be discovered, and that she be remanded into custody to face the eight charges against her.

It is our belief, that there remains the possibility that Jamyl Sarum, has taken refuge in medical clone bays provided in collusion by her overtly devout, extremist supporters within PIE and CVA... located within the Providence Region.

We ask all that are loyal to the Amarr Empire and the Amarr People, to seek out Jamyl and return her safely to our Golden Empire in all good haste.

UPDATE - 2214 hrs: Lord Pomik Haromi, Court Chamberlain of the Empire, has since released an official statement on behalf of the Amarr Empire, that he has confirmation that Jamyl Sarum was “killed in action”. While this announcement is a development of grave consequences, it shall be remembered by those of us that have wept in mourning for Jamyl Sarum, and held services for her once before. There is an old adage, “Fool me once, shame on you, fool me twice, shame on me.” If indeed this is the final-final death and end of Jamyl Sarum, then it is not just a loss to the Amarr Empire, it is a loss to True Justice. Her charges that she has brought peril to The People still stand. There is a high chance that she has taken refuge in Providence Region by her Jamylist extremist supporters.

Again... it is our hope that she is alive, and shall face her consequences.

/s/

Max Singularity VI

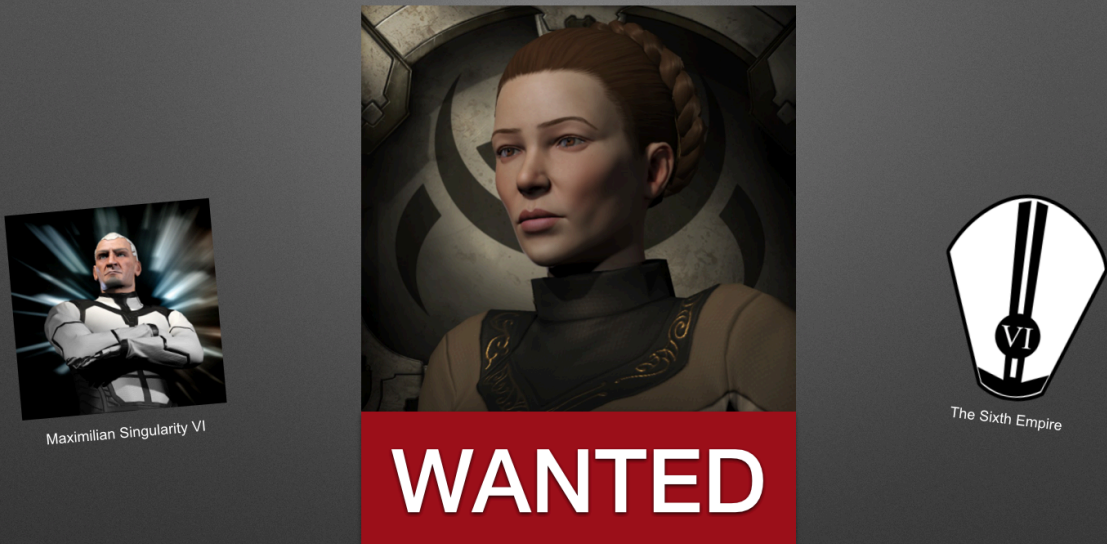

Reference:

Proclamation 7 - Inquisition YC 117 - Charges Against Jamyl

goo.gl/JdPzYb

Media:

Jamyl Sarum Wanted Alive

Missing after destruction of her Titan. Subject maybe taking refuge in clone bays in Providence Region. Recover and remand into custody for charges against the Amarr Empire.