As of 2023, she is 20 years old.

What did she do?

In June-August 2023, she has been recently exposed for roleplaying very inappropriately with the evidence shown by KYL3 (thanks bro you're the best) with a 14 year old (at the time) named RyanRoyalty. (Trigger warning: sexual roleplaying.) The link on her YouTube bio Message @Ryan Roya...

What Ryan is saying is that SRA liked him since the beginning, and has been sexually roleplaying with him. Having a relationship being an adult and a minor is a red flag and it's just sickening.

Only one specific friend of hers was confused, causing a discourse to everyone here

This does not excuse the actions of what SRA did, anyone can get groomed on the internet regardless.

Still saying that it was Ryan's fault... smh

There's a video I made about more screenshots of us talking to SRA ourselves, and basically acting dumbfounded like she didn't just diddle a little kid's toes: the SRA situation THE SEQUEL!!!

Ryan's experience with SRA (2024)

We talked to Ryan in a gc in February, and discussed about how she (and her friends) fucked him up mentally.

Ok

As like I have to fight for you both but I was used so Cris tryna Make me get hated but not them

SRA's shitty responses to the situation

Refusing to take advice

See those vent posts you just saw? She deleted all of them, and refused to get off the Internet for good, announcing that she has returned, and that her mental health continues to deteriorate.

Her Community post was deleted LMAO!!!

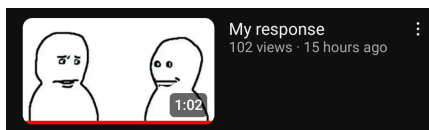

In March 2024, she confessed and admitted (finally) that she groomed him in discord. But still, she keeps making new discord servers with minors in it.

Resolving the issues

After the response video I created was public, we decided to not beef on YouTube and decided to be civil towards one another in discord.

Making a discord group chat, we have all told Cris about our problems and how to solve them easily. Then, I apologized for what I did to SRA in 2022 BEFORE the pedophilia exposing issues happened.

Since then, finally, everything is in good hands. We hope that SRA can change as a better person, and be more mindful to other people younger than her. The same thing should go to minors as well.
