Chicago Public Schools Set to Host Third Straight Chicago Public League Basketball Championship Week at Credit Union 1 Arena, February 5-8 & 10, 2024

The Chicago Public League will showcase all varsity division championships and select sophomore championships at the exciting home of the UIC Flames!

CHICAGO–The Chicago Public League (CPL), in partnership with Credit Union 1 Arena, will once again host the Chicago Public League High School Basketball Championship Week at Credit Union 1 Arena (525 S. Racine Ave. Chicago, IL 60607).

Last season, CPL crowned eight city champions in exciting fashion, as student-athletes were able to showcase their talent in the exciting environment of a college basketball arena. This season, CPL is proud to once again be able to award eight city championships as well as host select playoff games during Championship Week.

Championship week begins on Monday, February 5, 2024, and will continue through February 6-8, before culminating on February 10, 2024.

The Girls Red Varsity City Championship and Boys Red Varsity City Championship will be broadcast LIVE on CW26 Chicago.

"We are excited to once again highlight our student-athletes in their most important games in an incredible environment at Credit Union 1 Arena," said CPS Sports Administration Executive Director David Rosengard. "Our goal is to provide WOW moments for our student-athletes and programs. We cannot wait for the tournament to begin and to crown our champions in boys and girls high school basketball."
