PRIVACY NOTICE

By means of this Release, the Author(s) (as specified in the Release; “I”) want to inform you about the processing of your Personal Data necessary for the fulfilment of your Release. Below you will find information on what kind of Personal Data will be collected from you, how it is used, for which purposes it is used, with whom it is shared and which rights you have regarding the Processing of your Personal Data under the General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”).

1. Definitions

Personal Data: means any information relating to a natural person who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, or an online identifier.

Processing: means any operation which is performed on Personal Data, such as collection, recording, organising, structuring, storing, adaptation or any kind of disclosure or other use.

2. Purposes of Processing

In this section, you will be informed about the Personal Data the Author(s) Process, the Purposes they use the Personal Data for and the legal bases for the Processing of your Personal Data. In order to fulfil the Release, it is necessary to transfer your Personal Data to a publisher of the Springer Nature Group and its licensees and other publishers, where the Work and its Associated Works including the Material and your Contribution will be published (see 3 below). Thus, the Author(s) also inform you about the Processing by such publishers.

2.1 General information concerning you (e.g. your name, address, sex and age as well as in some cases bank information and information regarding the paid remuneration) will be Processed as far as necessary for carrying out the Release, particularly for the preparation and the publication of the Work and its Associated Works written for an academic/professional audience. The legal basis for this processing activity is Art. 6 (1) 1 lit. b GDPR, or, as the case may be, a provision in national law allowing the processing for journalistic purposes or the purpose of academic, artistic or literary expression.

2.2 Information relating to the Material and your Contribution (e.g. transcripts, your photograph, film images/recordings, voice and sound recordings or other identifiable footage and copies of this material) will be Processed as far as necessary for carrying out the Release and fulfil promotional and advertising needs in accordance with the Release, particularly for the preparation and the publication of the Work and its Associated Works written for an academic/professional audience. The legal basis for this processing activity is Art. 6 (1) 1 lit. b GDPR, or, as the case may be, a provision in national law allowing the processing for journalistic purposes or the purpose of academic, artistic or literary expression.

2.3 Information concerning you or relating to the Material and your Contribution (e.g. transcripts, your photograph, film images/recordings, voice and sound recordings or other identifiable footage and copies of this material) will be Processed as far as necessary for compliance with a legal obligation (e.g. tax law requirements). The legal basis for this processing activity is Art. 6 (1) 1 lit. c GDPR, or, as the case may be, a provision in national law allowing the processing for journalistic purposes or the purpose of academic, artistic or literary expression.

2.4 Information concerning you or relating to the Material and your Contribution (e.g. transcripts, your photograph, film images/recordings, voice and sound recordings or other identifiable footage and copies of this material) will be Processed as far as necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. The legal basis for this processing is the legitimate interest in being able to exercise the rights under the Release and the defence against any legal claims in conjunction with this Agreement (Art. 6 (1) 1 lit. f GDPR), or, as the case may be, a provision in national law allowing the processing for journalistic purposes or the purpose of academic, artistic or literary expression.

3. Data Transfer and Disclosure

As far as required for the performance of the Release, particularly for the publication of the Work and its Associated Works written for an academic/professional audience, your Personal Data will be transferred to a publisher of the Springer Nature Group, their respective agents and licensees and other publishers of the Work and its Associated Works. The legal basis for this processing activity is Art. 6 (1) 1 lit. b GDPR, or, as the case may be, a provision in national law allowing the processing for journalistic purposes or the purpose of academic, artistic or literary expression.

In this case, your Personal Data may be transferred outside of the country in which it is collected. Please note that other countries may not provide the same level of data protection as your country of origin. To ensure that the transfer does not disproportionately interfere with your rights and freedoms, the so-called EU Standard Contractual Clauses have been concluded with recipients outside the European Economic Area. The EU Standard Contractual Clauses can be viewed here: https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/data-transfers-outside-eu/model-contracts-transfer-personal-data-third-countries_en.

Springer Nature may engage third party companies and individuals to facilitate, manage and help with promotion and advertising campaigns. Below is a list of functions and services which may require the use of third party companies and individuals:

- Advertising services;
- Analytics services;
- Hosting and content delivery network services;
- IT services.

These third party companies and individuals are only allowed to use the Personal Data shared with them for the specific task they have been hired to and for no other purposes. Any processing by and transfer to these companies and individuals is based on Art. 28 GDPR in conjunction with a data processing agreement that is concluded with them. In case a third party company or individual is based outside the European Economic Area, the EU Standard Contractual Clauses are also concluded with them (cf. above).

4. Data Retention

Your Personal Data will be retained as long as required for the performance of the Release and potentially indefinitely.

5. Data Subject Rights

You may, depending on the specific circumstances, be entitled to exercise the following rights free of charge: (i) information whether your Personal Data is retained and (ii) access to and/or (iii) duplicates of your Personal Data retained, including the purposes of the processing, the categories of data concerned, and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the data are disclosed and where possible, the envisaged period for which the personal data will be stored, or, if not possible, the criteria used to determine that period; (iv) if the processing is based on Art. 6 (1) 1 lit. f GDPR (Sec. 2.4 above): Object at any time, out of grounds relating to your particular case, that your Personal Data shall be subject to a processing.

In case you want to exercise your rights vis-à-vis the Author(s), please use the contact data mentioned in the Release. If you want to exercise your rights vis-à-vis Springer Nature, please send an email to dataprotection@springernature.com
