New York, New York 10038

Dear Mr. Shtivelman:

Re: Steve N Benjamin
Our File No.: CA1-ZTZ-WZN

This law firm has been consulted by Steve N Benjamin regarding your actions

Mr. Benjamin informed this office that he handles your asset-based loans and compensates Tip Top Capital commission payments. Per Mr. Benjamin, a client contacted him and indicated that you and Christopher Rosa had been badmouthing him.

Accordingly, this law firm demands that you immediately cease and desist. The making of false and defamatory statements concerning Mr. Benjamin and his business with intention to harm its reputation and financial interests constitutes trade libel. By contacting Mr. Benjamin's clients and impugning his reputation, you have engaged in business interference. The entirety of this matter constitutes an unfair business practice in violation of California Business and Professions Code because of your unscrupulous conduct.

Mr. Benjamin has been advised as to his legal rights and remedies regarding this matter should you fail to comply with his demands. This includes the filing of a lawsuit in which Mr. Benjamin would seek declaratory relief, damages, and reimbursement of his costs. Be advised that this letter is not meant a complete or exhaustive statement of Mr. Benjamin's rights and remedies for this matter. It is strongly recommended that you comply with the demands of this letter. You may direct any response in writing to la@parkstan.com referencing our file number.

Nothing in this letter should be construed as a waiver of any of Mr. Benjamin's rights or remedies in this matter, all of which he expressly reserves.

Very truly yours,

PARKER · STANBURY LLP
