

Grammar Review - Conditionals

Instructions: Work with your partners to complete these grammar exercises.

Task 1: Put the verbs in the correct form using either first or second conditional.

- If I _____ (win) the lottery, I _____ (give) all the money to you.
- If you _____ (go) out, _____ you _____ (get) me a newspaper?
- If I _____ (find) a wallet on the street, I _____ (not keep) it.
- Person A: "I'm going to drive to the city today."
- Person B: "I _____ (not do) that if I _____ (be) you. You might get stuck in traffic. Take the train instead."

Task 2: Look at the table below. How many sentences can you make? Write them below.

If I ...	Were Had Knew Didn't know	The answer, The president, You, A millionaire, The time,	I'd I wouldn't	Tell you Travel the world Work for world peace Tell the truth Accept the job Help you Ask the teacher
----------	------------------------------------	--	-------------------	---

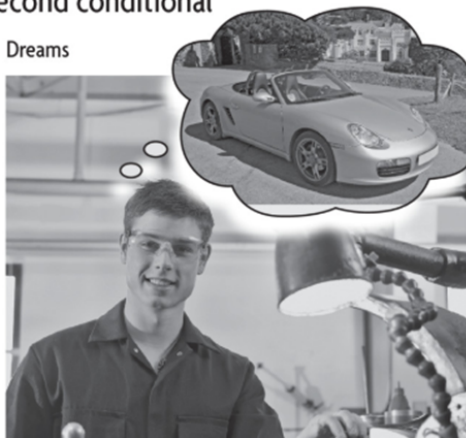

GO TO PAGE 2 TO COMPLETE YOUR NEXT TASK.

Grammar Review - Conditionals

Task 3: Jaimie works in a factory. Read about his real life, then complete the sentences about his dreams.

Second conditional

6 Dreams

Jamie's real life

- He lives at home with his parents.
- He gets up at 6:00 a.m.
- He drives an old second-hand car.
- He works ten hours a day.
- He never goes on vacation.
- He usually wears scruffy jeans and a T-shirt.

1. "I 'd live in a lovely big house."
2. "I _____ at noon."
3. "I _____ a Porsche!"
4. "I _____ long hours - just four hours a day!"
5. "I _____ to Hawaii!"
6. "I _____ a designer suit!"

Now write questions about Jamie's dreams.

1. "Where would he live?" - "In a big house."
2. _____ ? - "At noon."
3. _____ ? - "A Porsche."
4. _____ ? - "Four hours a day."
5. _____ ? - "To Hawaii."
6. _____ ? - "A designer suit."