

Transverse Cooperation Treaty with The Principality of Ignatz, edition of 2016/01/27 :

Prelude :

This Treaty have as purpose to officially recognize the total independence of The Principality of Ignatz and to support their people in the path to self-lead.

Article I :

No VISA would be required by citizens of one of the Nation to enter to the other. Free circulation of people is effective.

Article II :

Citizen committing crime can be extradicate at demand by its natal Nation.

Article III :

Both Nations, agree to suppress all types of taxes to entering goods as long as they comply with the locals laws and apply to the legislations of the host Nation. Free circulation of goods is effective.

Article I :

The installations of a company will directly pay 25% of its taxes to the host Nation of the company's installation. The 75% remaining will be paid in the host Nation of the Social Siege of the company.

Article II :

If a company have justice problems, the company will be judge under the country legislation that host the Social Siege of the Company.

Article IV :

Any company establishing itself shall be subject to every year an inspection to ensure compliance with local financial, health and safety and employment laws of the hosting Nation. Following the one year probation period they must be afforded the same treatment as local companies.

Article V :

Companies from one country who have been based in the host country for a minimum of two years shall be given the same consideration for government funded projects as those originally from the host nation.

Article VI :

Armement projects concerning national security of one of the country can be develop in cooperation with the other.

Article VII: Mutual Self-Defense Agreement

In the event of war, both parties agree to full support of each other militarily, diplomatically and economically. Vinitian naval forces are granted permission to dock in Ignatzee harbors and may establish military bases within the Principality with the permission of Her Majesty Elinora Capalla. A provision for joint military training exercises will be made between the two nations.

Article VIII : Joint Intelligence Sharing Agreement

Both Vinitsia and Ignatz will agree to mutual cooperation with regards to their prospective intelligence gathering agencies.

Article IX : International Friendship Agreement

To recognize the long history between the two countries, Ignatz offers to host an undetermined amount of Vinitsians high school and university students interested in studying within the Principality. Scholarships and boarding arrangements will be made for all qualified candidates.