Thank you for submitting a design to the 2021 Fossil Day Art Design Contest. Submission deadline is Thursday, September 30, 2021, by 4:00 p.m.

By entering this contest, each entrant and the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of each entrant irrevocably assigns and transfers to the Protectors of Tule Springs (Protectors) any and all right, title, and interest to the design (and all material embodied therein), including, without limitation, all copyrights and rights of publicity, and Protectors shall be the perpetual and exclusive owner of the design.

Protectors and/or the Clark County School District (CCSD) may use, distribute, reproduce, modify, adapt, reformat, translate, create compilations and collective works, prepare derivative works based upon, print, record, publish, display, broadcast, transmit, upload, re-post, or otherwise utilize in any manner the original or altered versions of the design or likeness at any time in the future along with the entrant's name and school name, in any and all media or distribution mode now or hereafter known, including without limitation by means of the Internet, including protectorsoftulesprings.com and ccsd.net, and other digital networks, and social media, throughout the world, without the need for any further consent and without any compensation.

I understand I am waiving my rights to sue or otherwise pursue any legal remedy against Protectors or CCSD for any action or omission, intentional or accidental, that may arise in connection with my participation in this art contest, including, without limitation, any claim that use of the design invades any right of privacy, publicity and/or personality, defamation, libel, moral right, copyright, or any other personal and/or property right.

I understand that Protectors or CCSD will not be obligated to defend or indemnify me should a dispute arise against me in relation to this design. I also understand Protectors or CCSD will not initiate or maintain any litigation on my behalf in connection with the design.
