Stevens Gould, City Resident 22 Years, Dies

Stevens Gould, 63, of 2135 Chamberlain ave., a Madison resident for 22 years, died in a Madison hospital Tuesday night (Aug. 8, 1961) after a brief illness.

MR.
GOULD

He was the husband of Elizabeth M. Gould, a member of The Wisconsin State Journal editorial staff.

The body was taken to the Frauttschi funeral home, 3610 Speedway rd.

Born in Oshkosh, Mr. Gould moved to Madison in 1939. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin with an engineering degree in 1922. At the university he was a member of the varsity football team, playing offensive halfback and defensive end under the late Coach John Richards.

Mr. Gould, who was retired, was a World War I Navy veteran and a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity.

He is survived by his wife, the former Elizabeth Mason, whom he married in Madison in 1942; two daughters, Whitney and Penny, both at home; and a brother, James, Hollywood, Calif.

Stevens Gould

Presenting--
T. STEVENS GOULD

T. Stevens Gould, playing his third year of conference football, is Coach Richards' choice for one of the Varsity halfback positions. He won his numeral in basketball as a freshman and his football "W" in '17, his sophomore year. He was in the service as a naval aviator in '18, and returned in '19 to resume his position at right half.

The Cardinal said of his playing against Ohio State in '19: "Gould's playing stood out in a similar comparison like that of Elliot. He proved a dangerous man every time he was given the ball, and was even better on defense, spilling many plays and getting through the line of scrimmage several times from his post in the secondary defense to throw the Buckeye back for losses." Last year he was ineligible and therefore out of the game.

As halfback, "T" is filling the place his father occupied in 1897 on the Badger team. Gould played three years on the football and basketball teams of Oshkosh high school and has played on interclass and interfraternity baseball and basketball teams here.

He is a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity; White Spades, honorary junior fraternity; and Phi Kappa Phi, honorary scholastic fraternity.
