Abstract. [150-250 words].

The structure of the annotation includes the following MANDATORY clauses:

- Purpose;
- Design/methodology/approach;
- Findings;
- Originality.

Key words: 3-5 key words.Introduction

Rationale and relevance of the topic; identification of research gaps; definition of the object and subject of the study; aim and objectives; brief description of methods; scientific and practical significance of the research.

Literature review

Key classical and recent studies on the topic; analysis of their scientific contributions; identification of research gaps addressed in the study; relevant and appropriate referencing without excessive citations, self-promotion, or unnecessary references to the author's previous work.

Methodology

Research materials; procedures and study design; description of how the study was conducted; research question; hypothesis (if applicable); stages of the study; methods applied; measures ensuring the reliability of the results.

Results and discussion

Main findings of the study; analysis and interpretation of the results; comparison with previous research; critical discussion; conclusions based on the obtained results.

Conclusion

General summary of the study; confirmation of the validity of the author's thesis; final conclusions based on the results obtained; implications for the development of scientific knowledge; prospects for further research; possibilities for practical implementation and application.

Funding

Information about financial support of the research (if applicable), including the name of the funding organization and grant number. If there was no external funding, this section may be omitted.

Conflicts of Interest

Disclosure of any financial, personal, or professional relationships that could be perceived as influencing the research. If there are no conflicts, state: The authors declare no conflict of interest.

Manuscript Formatting Details

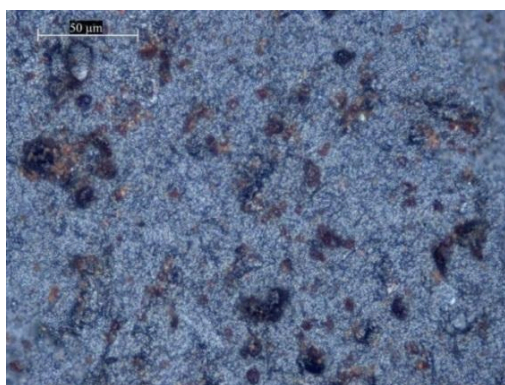

Figures, tables, graphs, and diagrams should not constitute more than 20% of the total manuscript length (up to 30% in justified cases).

Table design examples

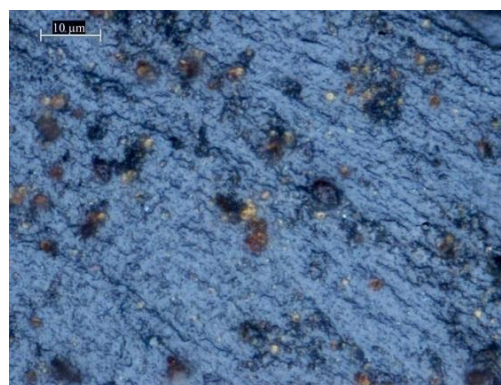

Table 1 – LINE module parameters

Параметрлери	Сипаттама	Өлшем бірлігі	Әдепкі бойынша	Шекті мәндер
RADI	For the detection of edges	pixel	10	50
GTHR	For the detection of edges	-	100	100
LTHR	Minimum length of a curve taken as lineament	pixel	30	160
FTHR	Allowed tolerance in curve fitting to form a polyline	pixel	3	3
ATHR	Maximum angle between two linked polylines	degrees	30	30
DTHR	Maximum distance between two linked polylines	pixel	20	20

Author Contributions. At the end of the manuscript, authors must include a statement specifying the contribution of each author in accordance with the CRediT taxonomy.

An Author Contribution statement is required for manuscripts with two or more authors.

The following statements should be used “Conceptualization, X.X. and Y.Y.; Methodology, X.X.; Software, X.X.; Validation, X.X., Y.Y. and Z.Z.; Formal Analysis, X.X.; Investigation, X.X.; Resources, X.X.; Data Curation, X.X.; Writing – Original Draft Preparation, X.X.; Writing – Review & Editing, X.X.; Visualization, X.X.; Supervision, X.X.; Project Administration, X.X.; Funding Acquisition, Y.Y.”

References

References are formatted in accordance with APA Style (7th edition). (<http://www.apastyle.org/>).
