1. General Information

Course Code: - Course Name: Basic English Language Skills

Type of Subject: Non-credit

Credit: 0

Semester:

Prerequisite: A2+- B1 level

Lecturer:

Email:

2. Course Description:

Students will be able to practice EFL four skills using a communicative approach and sources. The ultimate goal of the course using this approach is to enhance students' interaction both in classroom setting and outside of the classroom. Thus, activities and tasks are designed to practice language successfully through having to communicate real meaning. The students are expected to be able to interact with each other and the instructor will be considered as a facilitator.

3. Course Objectives:

In this course, students are able to communicate in English; however, they have many mistakes in expressing themselves and understanding others. Therefore, students will focus on their English skills including listening, speaking, reading, and writing as they are very limited users of English. Hopefully, the course can improve their proficiency especially in speaking and encourage them to incorporate their personal experiences.

4. Course Learning Outcome:

It is expected that, on completion of this course, the students will be able to:

1. speak fluently and demonstrate some grammatical accuracies in familiar situations, and handle basic communication
2. read and listen independently and copy the overall meaning in familiar and basic topics
3. write about familiar topics using proper vocabulary

Expected level: CEFR B1+ (Is able to understand the main points of clear texts in standard language if they are about topics with which they are familiar, whether in work, study or leisure contexts. Can cope with most of the situations that might arise on a trip to areas where the language is used. Is able to produce simple, coherent texts about topics with which they are familiar or in which they have a personal interest. Can describe experiences, events, wishes and aspirations, as well as briefly justifying opinions or explaining plans.)

14. Final Exam Question Structure:

The exam paper is composed of multiple-choice questions, gap filling, matching, identification, writing a paragraph, and short questions and answers.

15. Grading Policy:

Following the final examination, final grades of the course will be submitted to the examination grading committee for evaluation. Based on their evaluation, the final grade distribution (to maintain the normal distribution) might be changed. However, the final marks will not be affected even if the grade range is changed. For instance, depending on the grade range set by the exam committee, an A could become a B+ or vice versa.

16. Grading range

This course will follow the following grading structure:

Grade *	Marks	Definition
A	90 – 100	Excellent
B+	80 – 89	Very good
B	70 – 79	Good
C+	60 – 69	Fairly good
C	50 – 59	Fair
D+	45 - 49	Poor
D	40 – 44	Very Poor
F	0 – 39	Fail
I		Incomplete
P		In Progress
W		Withdrawal

* This is the standard grading range; however, the grade range can be changed depending on the final exam evaluation committee.

17. Student's Appeal Policy for Grading

- a. Request to recheck the marks: Students will get the final marks within 1 week after the final examination. It will be displayed via Moodle or you will be emailed individually to your email (ID-based email only). If students have any doubts about their exam marks, it is the student's duty to contact the teacher within 1 week of the marks release date. Grades will not be changed after this period, as the final grading committee will evaluate all results within the provided period.
- b. Grade "I": If students miss assignments, quizzes, projects, or reports, their final grade will be "I" or incomplete. Thus, students must communicate with the course instructor. Otherwise, their grade will be automatically converted to "F", and students cannot appeal for any grade change or submit assignments.

18. Attendance/Participation

Attendance will be taken during the class and will have an effect on the grade. Students must attend 80% of the class. Students must have to sign the attendance sheet for the record. If the student is ill or has any family emergency, and is unable to attend the class, the student must have to send an email to the lecturer before the class about the absence and the expected time of return. Furthermore, it is expected that the students will participate in class by discussing and showing his/her own ideas and opinions relating to the topics. Class discussion and in-class activities will be noted and reflected in final course grades.
