

Name: _____

Data Quiz

Please refer to the graph above to answer the following questions.

1. In 1950 what was the human population size?
2. In what year did extinction numbers begin to rise rapidly?
3. In what year did human population numbers begin to rise rapidly?
4. What is the relationship (or trend) between the number of species extinctions and human population?

Please refer to the graph above to answer the following questions.

5. What do each of the colored lines represent?
6. In 1960 which region of the United States has the largest population?
7. From 1810 to 1970, how much did the population increase by in the north east? How about in the south?
8. Which region had the largest population size in 2000?
9. In which region did the population stop growing for 20 years?

