

*Rainmaker GLORY Challenge*

You didn't complete the challenge, you failed to become what you said you would be, now, you must ask yourself why.

The Rainmaker title in the copywriting campus is one of the most prestigious, exclusive titles you can acquire, the status that comes with it, the confidence you gain when you hold that title, it's glorious.

You can be part of this elite group, but you must TRY your BEST, day in and day out.

Will you be left in the dust of your brothers and sisters as we scale the mountain together, while you wallow in your feelings and fear? Or will you join the ranks of the most respected students in the campus?

The choice is yours.

Fill this out daily, tag Cole and myself in the #Agoge-Competitions chat.

Desired Outcome for the Day:

- Finish the new design
- Start editing the recording
- Expand on the little idea I had yesterday. I think I now know of a way to trigger massive creativity and instantly come up with ideas.

Planned Tasks to Achieve it:

- Follow the to do list I left in the document
- Edit the video in Canva once I am finished with the piece

End of the Day Reflection:

- What did I produce today?
 - GWS: Finished the design, put the recording into Canva.
 - Cut up the recording in Canva.
- Honorable, strong, and brave actions?
 - Did all the necessary things for today even with helping my mother out and going to the supermarket.
- Cowardly actions?
 - Had to cancel a GWS.
- What actions will I take tomorrow to become a better me?
 - Rewatch the MPUC "WHY KNOWING ISN'T ENOUGH AND WHAT YOU NEED INSTEAD"
 - GWS: Edit the recording and make it ready to post.
Necessary things:
B-roll, TTS voice, CTA, and song
 - Continue to design the new piece I randomly started with the new mental technique. Basically what I do is I look at my saved design inspirations and patterns I can use, while imagining some skinny loser telling me that it's too hard to actually create something beautiful, and completely impossible to do it easily and fast.

I don't know what it was about this day. Today felt super unsatisfying. Probably due to me having to cancel the GWS as well.

I can certainly feel that it simply was not enough.

There are people worse than me who push and have pushed harder, ending up in the places I want to be in right now.

Can't let the heat creep itself into my mind, drink more water.

The Man/Woman You Are Now vs Who You Want to Be (Keep this the same daily, reminding yourself of who it is you are trying to become) :

The man I am now:

A young man that wants to forge his financial success with his own two hands and his mind.

Having my first wake up call in late 2020 when I started to physically exercise, I sparked a masculine flame that no matter how tiring the training was, has left me with more energy the next day than in the last 3 years prior.

With a vision that's never before seen, ready to influence the world.

The man I want to be:

A man that makes the once oh so difficult work look extremely easy.

Not even trying to show off my knowledge and prowess.

Being skilled at my craft is simply who I am. Just like Formula 1 drivers driving in regular cars.

Though still known for going through hellfire to end up in the position that most can only dream of.

Being free to do whatever I want, whenever I want, wherever I want. No barriers, no rules, no buts.

My name echoing through the world, yet it does not turn down in volume.

Your Reason Why (make this as compelling as possible, keep this the same and pound it into your skull, so you wake up daily with a clear reason) :

I have 3 main WHY reasons that will drive my forward:

- Turn around my family history.
My parents did not migrate from Kazakhstan to Germany for me to waste my life or be completely engulfed by the power of the matrix.

I owe them what they gave me 100 fold. From the second world war shaping my family around poverty, depression and nothing but sorrow.

My family's future will be golden, full of abundance and prosperity.

- Have all the luxuries that I see degenerates earn through degeneracies.

It is unacceptable that people like that have the right to stand where they are now.

While my family has to slave away, for the maximum of a little bit better than minimum.

- My ultimate goal of raising societies standards in terms of self perception.

Counteract the moral and societal decay that occurred in the last decades.

Have work with craftsmanship, create things that have a soul.

It's a shame that most industries see the creation of something beautiful, as a nuisance with no place in today's business practices.

I know I can't do it in every possible measure, but I will do my part in creating the desire in people to raise their standards and improve their own self-perception.
