

Shine a light!

All designs and the rules are here

This map focuses on maple shade and the other dark forest cats try to make the trainees feel comforted and welcome by making them open up and feel closer to the mentors.

Rules (please read these they are very short)

Discord(mandatory!) <https://discord.gg/Gxy4cFRA>

Apply in the comments or discord

- Part deadlines is not decided but don't put off doing your part
- Amv pmv idc
- The cats in this can stand up on two legs, grow fingers and stuff it is not a spoof map but just a fun silly one
- No lyrics
- You must have a downloadable version of your part besides YouTube (via discord/google drive/ sendspace or any other downloadable video software)
- DO NOT add your own watermark, like your name, I will add that while editing the parts together you will get full credit in the description too
- Lip sync is not required just make it look like they are singing
- Shading is not required but I have provided a character overlay to make them fit with the background better

IGNORE TYPOS PLZZ

Script (kinda loose so feel free to add some goofy twists on the script!) also the trainees are sitting in the order they are in the map call

Intro: just mapleshade getting ready to sing her heart out to the trainees (I got this part :])

1: she walks in front of the trainees and sings to them. When she says guilt she points at ivy when she says regret she points at breeze and when she says anxiety she points at blossom.

2: she walks away from them and looks up at the sky and says 'fears we dare not name' she turns back to them at 'but' she sings the rest of the lyrics to them.

3: she sings the lyrics passionately while ivy and blossom look at each other with concern

4: brokenstar and hawk frost come from the woods and stand by the trainees singing happily (hawk is by breeze and broken is by ivy(. Maple is still singing passionately. Breeze looks at hawk and looks very confused.

5: maple sings. When she says 'scars and your flaws' she. Points at ivy's shoulder scar and then points at blossom and breeze. Breezepelt looks offended.

6: Maple sits down and hawk and broken come and sit by her. (The sides they are in the map call) they sing like this.

7; they continue singing like this

8: Ivy sings the lyrics looking kinda nervous and sad.

9: breeze sings 'I attack your weaknesses' and then all three say 'and pray you don't see mine!', they all look away from each other when they say this

10: blossom looks up from her paws and sings 'but if I show my ugly parts' looking like she realized something. Then they all look at each other and sing the rest with smiles on their faces.

11: Maple looks proud as she, hawk, and broken join. They circle the trainees as they continue singing.

12: they continue singing (get creative)

13: they all say disappear with smiles. After maple says "who wants to share what's in their hearts" the trainees look at each other with nervous looks on their face. Then maple continues.

14: she sings. When she says 'my husband left' she looks angry and when she says "my kids are grown" she looks sad.

15: she looks happy as she puts her paws up in the air singing "in the 60s love was free" then she puts them down and sings "that did not work out very well for me" with a concerned face. She looks back at the trainees and sings the rest.

16: she sings to the trainees. When she says "I have struggled with despair she looks away frowning. She looks back and sings the rest.

17: she sings and as she sings she progressively gets angrier and at the end when she sings "Steve I'm ending our affair!" she is very mad.

18: she calms down a bit but she still sings the lyrics bitterly.

19; her anger fades and she sings the lyrics happily.

20: she dances around as everyone sings

21-27: get creative! Just remember that they are all singing happily and dancing around. Add funny details and stuff like maple pulling out a microphone and stuff! it would also be funny if breeze still has a grudge against hawkfrost for weirding him out so you could incorporate that! You could also add the trainees giving mapleshade weird looks because of how passionate she is, but they are still enjoying it.
