

- D. A state should subsidize strategic domestic producers
3. Which one of the following doesn't explain the views of Structuralism towards the International political economy (IPE)?
- A. The global south is subordinate and the global north is dominant in international trade
 - B. The existing economic system serves the interest of the global north
 - C. The global south gets a chance to accumulate capital from international trade
 - D. The global south remained to be the producer of raw material in the international division of labor
4. Identify the correct statement about the foundational theories from the following?
- A. Unlike Mercantilism, liberalism advocates strong state presence in the economy
 - B. Marxism both rejects capitalism and state presence in the economy
 - C. Mercantilism defends free market economic system
 - D. None
5. One among the following is not a reason for classification of foreign policy objectives?
- A. Time required to accomplish the objectives
 - B. Capability as an asset to achieve objectives
 - C. Value given to the objective
 - D. The need to involve others for its accomplishment
6. Foreign policy dimension that defines the extent of countries engagement is _____?
- A. Scope
 - B. Modus operandi
 - C. Alignment
 - D. Alliance
7. A good diplomat is required to have all of the following qualities, but?
- A. Respectful
 - B. Flexibility
 - C. Dis honesty
 - D. Realism
8. _____ is a theoretical and ideological perspective of IPE which promotes an -xtreme policy of autarky to promote national economic self-sufficiency
- A. Liberalism
 - B. Marxism
 - C. Mercantilism
 - D. Structuralism
9. The Prebisch-Singer thesis argues that _____
- A. The price of primary commodities declines relative to the price of manufactured goods over the long term, which causes the terms of trade of primary-product-based economies to deteriorate.
- Those who produce the highest quality products at the lowest prices not only make consumers' lives easier/more enjoyable but reap the highest profits

Structuralism
Center: Delhi

Bahir Dar University
Faculty of Social Sciences
Department of Political Science and International Studies
Ends Final Exam for Freshman Students (50%)
Allotted Time: 1:10

IDNO 1310339 De't

Section 20A

Instruction I: Write True if the statement is correct and false if it is incorrect (1.5 pt.=15%)

- Answer:
1. Maintaining the territorial integrity of the state usually constitutes the core of national interest of every state. T
 2. The developmental state approach advocates state intervention and guidance of direction and pace of economic development. T
 3. National interest is what states want to achieve in their international relations. T
 4. States define their foreign policy objectives differently from their national interest. F
 5. Capability difference can be a reason for the divergence in foreign policy objectives and scopes among states. T
 6. Liberalism opposes trade barriers and advocates the free flow of goods and services across borders. T
 7. Tariff is a trade restriction that limits the amount of goods that a country can import or export. F
 8. A diplomat is a person who sent to abroad to serve the interest of the receiver state. F
 9. Political dimension of IPE involves making of rules pertaining to how states and societies achieve their goals.
 10. Long range objectives are most frequently related to the self-preservation of political and economic systems. F

Instruction II: Choose the best answer for the following questions from the given alternatives (1.5 each).

1. Refusal to buy either a specific or a total product of a certain country is referred to as:
A. Embargo B. Boycott C. Tariff D. Quota
2. One of the following is not compatible with the argument of mercantilism;
A. A government should not regulate trade
B. Infant domestic industries have to be protected from external competition
C. A government should regulate trade

Instruction III. Matching Item (1.5 pt.)

Column A		Column B
1	Developmentalism	A	International economic system is most likely to be open and stable when there is a single dominant state
2	Hegemonic Stability Theory	B	emphasize the techniques of domination and suppression that is inherent in the capitalist system
3	Mercantilism	C	Focus on producing goods you can produce most cheaply/efficiently and trade for the rest
4	Liberal perspective	D	Focus on the robust role of the state in the economy
5	Marxism	E	Wealth is power and the key to wealth is export more than import

Instruction IV. Short Answer Questions (8%)

1. Why states used economic instruments? List at least three reasons (3pt.)?
2. Write and discuss the foreign policy objectives of states (5 pt.)?

- C. The individual, pursuing his self-interest, will bring on general benefits to society
D. An absolute advantage is held by any country that can produce a given product more efficiently than any other country in the world
10. Identify the wrong statement about hegemonic stability theory?
- A. Focuses on the center periphery dependent relation
B. It demands the need of benevolent hegemon
C. Its ideas led to the establishment of Bretton woods institutions
D. It demands a dominant state able to take responsibility for the smooth operation of the international system
11. Which one of the following is the policy recommendation of dependential/structural theory
- A. Import substitution C. Imperialism
B. Comparative advantage D. Open economy
12. _____ is a foreign policy dimension expressed by formal non-partisanship of a State in world affairs?
- A. Alliance B. Non Alignment C. Neutrality D. Global term act
13. Ethiopia is moving forward to change the status quo in relation to its interest over the Nile River, while Egypt wants to keep the status quo intact, Sudan in its part shifts its position depending on circumstances, based on the above case, which of the following foreign policy pattern is correctly matched with the country it correctly describes.
- A. Self- Preservation – Egypt C. Self - Abnegation- Sudan
B. Self- extension- Ethiopia D. All of the above

