[00;00;20;15]

[Parker Costanza]:

Being an entrepreneur, you need to sell yourself and your idea.

[00;00;23;15]

[A'na Meilleur]:

In accounting if there's a mistake, you can easily identify it because you know the pattern of the numbers.

[00;00;29;27]

[Taylor Rivera]:

I wanted to be my own business owner one day.

[00;00;31;26]

[Text on screen: "Be confident" with Bernadette smiling with a group of students.]

[00;00;36;05]

[Bernadette Tournoux]:

I can go with confidence to pursue my future and to get where I want to go.

[00;00;41;02]

[Text on screen: "A'na Meilleur, Accounting."]

[00;01;02;26]

[A'na Meilleur]:

It's very evident that my professors care about me. They care about my education. And every single year it steps up. There's extra things that you need to learn, and I feel like it's helping me with my future career.

[00;01;16;22]

[Text on screen: "Prepare for your future" with student studying.]

[00;01;20;09]

[A'na Meilleur]:

When I was growing up, when I discovered what accounting was, it's like a mixture of words and numbers and organization, and that really appealed to me.

[00;01;27;58]

[A'na smiles to camera.]

[00;01;29;49]

[Parker Costanza]:

I come from a line of very hard workers.

[00;01;31;54]

[Text on screen: "Parker Costanza, Management."]

[00;01;35;09]

[Parker Costanza]:

My grandpa started a business after he came back from Vietnam, and that's something that I want to continue.

[00;01;39;54]

[Footage of Parker studying.]

[00;01;41;33]

[Parker Costanza]:

Whether you're professional sales, whether you're marketing

[00;01;52;44]

[Parker Costanza]:

trying to follow the stock market, if that is what your career interests are in to feel like the school is investing in you,

[00;01;59;10]

[Text on screen: "Invest in your career" with Parker studying.]

[00;02;03;01]

[Parker Costanza]:

it's a big confidence booster, and it just makes you feel better about going to school.

[00;02;08;08]

[Text on screen: "Taylor Rivera, Management."]

[00;02;11;13]

[Taylor Rivera]:

My biggest dream is to be able to own my own salon. I wanted to figure out how I can be a small business owner.

[00;02;17;29]

[Text on screen: "Be an entrepreneur" with Taylor writing on whiteboard.]

[00;02;21;25]

[Taylor Rivera]:

College can be a very scary place. So being able to have people that have been in your place tell you kind of where they think you should go or navigate you into the right path is really important. I really have felt like I have been very successful because of that.

[00;02;33;34]

[upbeat pop music]

[Taylor smiles to camera.]

[00;02;35;28]

[Text on screen: "Bernadette Tournoux, Administration."]

[00;02;38;55]

[Bernadette Tournoux]:

The faculty here at Southeastern, I very much appreciate, and I was really happy to get the whole aspect of business and what goes into it.

[00;02;47;24]

[Footage of Bernadette speaking with a group of students.]

[00;02;49;59]

[Bernadette Tournoux]:

I know it's really just going to help me propel myself into the future, and I'm so lucky to have

[00;02;54;33]

[Footage of Bernadette walking at graduation with degree.]

[00;02;57;31]

[Bernadette Tournoux]:

just experienced all of that.

[00;03;14;36]

[A'na Meilleur]:

I can imagine it.

[00;03;15;37]

[Bernadette Tournoux]:

I can try it.

[00;03;16;41]

[Taylor Rivera]:

I can reach for it.

[00;03;17;55]

[Parker Costanza]:

And I can get there.
