

The Cursed Swordsman Pitch

Author: James “Dragon Master” Courneya

Genres: Battle Shonen.

Chapter Count: Series – Medium Length

Logline:

An epic Battle Shonen between Samurai with unique manifested special powers and equally if not more powerful monsters with their own special powers. The main character finds themselves caught between this conflict. A conflict that ever escalates as a genius on either side uses the lives of the people involved as pawns in a conflict for the fate of the world.

Synopsis:

Across ancient Japan roam beings known as the Cursed. Monsters that kill and consume humans. An organization of powerful swordsmen wielding swords that contain special powers face off against these monsters.

Our story starts with two brothers being raised by a masked man. When a more powerful Cursed begins hunting them it soon becomes clear why. Their adoptive father was a Cursed themselves and had rescued these boys as children, raising them himself. Through tragedy and circumstances the main character finds themselves at odds with the world. At nature, a gentle boy, they are now fighting for base survival for themselves and their friends. Believing that Cursed can be both good and evil, they find themselves caught walking a tightrope between the two sides while trying to act as a bridge between them. With a single misstep resulting in their own death and the deaths of those they care about.

Is it possible to create a peaceful world? And how much blood needs to be shed for it to be made?

Questions that are meaningless in the face of the true evil lurking in the shadows.
