

HOW TO LISTEN TO GOD

These are a few simple suggestions for people who are willing to make an experiment. You can discover for yourself the most important and practical thing any human being can ever learn--how to be in touch with God.

All that is needed is the willingness to try it honestly. Every person who has done this consistently and sincerely has found that it really works. Before you begin, look over these fundamental points. They are true and are based on the experience of thousands of people.

1. God is alive. God always has been and always will be.
2. God knows everything.
3. God can do anything.
4. God can be everywhere--all at the same time.
(These are the important differences between God and us human beings).
5. God is invisible--we can't see or touch God--but, God is here, is with you now, surrounding you and filling the whole place wherever you are. God is in you now and is in your heart.
6. God cares very much for you. God is interested in you, has a plan for your life and has an answer for every need and problem you face.
7. God will tell you all that you need to know. God will not always tell you all that you want to know.
8. God will help you do anything that God asks you to do.
9. Anyone can be in touch with God, anywhere and at any time, if the conditions are obeyed.

These are the conditions:

- * To be quiet and still
- * To listen
- * To be honest about every thought that comes
- * To test the thoughts to be sure that they come from God
- * To obey

So, with these basic elements as a background, here are specific suggestions on How to Listen to God:

1. Take Time

Find some place and time where you can be alone, quiet and undisturbed. Most people have found that the early morning is the best time. Have some paper and a pen or pencil ready.

2. Relax

Sit in a comfortable position. Consciously relax all your muscles. Be loose. There is no hurry. There needs to be no strain during these minutes. God cannot get through to us if we are tense and anxious about later responsibilities.

3. Tune In

Open your heart to God. Either silently or aloud, just say to God in a natural way that you would like to find God's plan for your life-- you want God's answer to the problem or situation that you are facing just now. Be definite and specific in your request.

4. Listen

Just be still, quiet, relaxed and open. Let your mind go "loose." Let God do the talking. Thoughts, ideas, and impressions will begin to come into your mind and heart. Be alert and aware and open to every one.

5. Write!

Here is the important key to the whole process. Write down everything that comes into your mind. Everything. Writing is simply a means of recording so that you can remember later. Don't sort out or edit your thoughts at this point.

Don't say to yourself:

This thought isn't important;

This is just an ordinary thought;

This can't be guidance;

This isn't nice;

This can't be from God;

This is just me thinking... etc.

Write down everything that passes through your mind:

Names of people;

Things to do;

Things to say;

Things that are wrong and need to be made right.

Write down everything:

Good thoughts - bad thoughts;

Comfortable thoughts - uncomfortable thoughts;

"Holy" thoughts - "unholy" thoughts;

Sensible thoughts - "crazy" thoughts.

Be honest! Write down everything! A thought comes quickly, and it escapes even more quickly unless it is captured and put down.

We will now follow these directions and write together for 10 minutes. At the end of the 10 minutes the music will stop. If you are still inspired to write when we return please do so. Start writing now.

Link to the music is here.

* Reader: Pause for the 10 minute writing. After the music ends the leader will ask to finish this reading: ****

* Reader: Pause for the 10 minute writing. After the music ends the leader will ask to finish this reading: ****

6. Test

When the flow of thoughts slows down, stop. Take a good look at what you have written. Not every thought we have comes from God. So we need to test our thoughts. Here is where the written record helps us to be able to look at them.

- Are these thoughts completely honest, pure, unselfish and loving?
- Are these thoughts in line with our duties to our family--to our community?
- Are these thoughts in line with our understanding of the teachings found in our spiritual literature?

7. Check

When in doubt and when it is important, what does another person who is living two-way prayer think about this thought or action? More light comes in through two windows than one. Someone else who also wants God's plan for our lives may help us to see more clearly. Talk over together what you have written. Many people do this. They tell each other what guidance has come. This is the secret of unity. There are always three sides to every question--your side, my side, and the right side. Guidance shows us which is the right side--not who is right, but what is right.

8. Obey

Carry out the thoughts that have come. You will only be sure of guidance as you go through with it. A rudder will not guide a boat until the boat is moving. As you obey, very often the results will convince you that you are on the right track.

9. Blocks

What if I don't seem to get any definite thoughts? God's guidance is as freely available as the air we breathe. If I am not receiving thoughts when I listen, the fault is not God's. Usually it is because there is something I will not do:

- something wrong in my life that I will not face and make right;
- a habit or indulgence I will not give up;
- a person I will not forgive;
- a wrong relationship in my life I will not give up;

→ a restitution I will not make;
→ something God has already told me to do that I will not obey.
Check these points and be honest. Then try listening again.

10. Mistakes

Suppose I make a mistake and do something in the name of God that isn't right? Of course we make mistakes. We are humans with many faults. However, God will always honor our sincerity, will work around or through every honest mistake we make and will help us make it right. But, remember this! Sometimes when we do obey God, someone else may not like it or agree with it. So when there is opposition, it doesn't always mean you have made a mistake. It can mean that the other person doesn't want to know or to do what is right. Suppose I fail to do something that I have been told and the opportunity to do it passes? There is only one thing to do. Put it right with God. Tell God you're sorry and ask to be forgiven, then accept God's forgiveness and begin again. God is a loving parent--not an impersonal calculator. God understands us far better than we do.

11. Results

We never know what swimming is like until we get down into the water and try. We will never know what shared prayer practice is like until we sincerely try it. Every person who has tried this honestly finds that a wisdom, not their own, comes into their minds and that a Power greater than human power begins to operate in their lives. It is an endless adventure. There is a way of life, for everyone, everywhere. Anyone can be in touch with the living God, anywhere, anytime, if we fulfill God's conditions:

When one listens, God speaks.

When one obeys, God acts.

This is the law of prayer.

- Written in the late 1930's by John E. Batterson
(A personal friend of Dr. Bob's—co-founder of A.A.)