Playing Time:

HRIS Coaches have been appointed to coach the team, and not be time managers. Players and parents must understand that equal playing time is not possible at this level. As such:

- Coaches will do their best to give HRIS players equal playing time, but this is not guaranteed.
- Coaches will provide HRIS players with MEANINGFUL playing time.
 - o Meaningful playing time will vary from game to game. eg. an HRIS team making it through to a finals series may increase the chances of selection for more players.
 - o Meaningful playing time will vary from player to player. eg. a young player might not be ready to assume a full role in an HRIS team, but the experiences gained one year may assist them as a player in future years.
