

2.05 Who v. Whom

Directions: Read the following sentences and decide whether to use WHO or WHOM based on the position of the sentence. Then briefly explain your reason on the line provided.

1. The Sportsmanship Award was given to Hanna, (who / whom) the other gym students admire for her strength, perseverance, and awesome sports goggles.

WHY? _____

2. Emily, (who / whom) enjoys the challenge of a sweet grammar worksheet, immediately sharpened her pencil and put on her grammar goddess tiara.

WHY? _____

3. Ethan, (who / whom) also LOVES gummy dinosaurs, arm-wrestled me for the last one.

WHY? _____

4. Mrs. Addo, (who / whom) we tease occasionally in good fun, is obsessed with grammar.

WHY? _____

5. (Whoever / Whomever) attends live lessons should expect good grades.

WHY? _____

6. The teacher gave (whoever / whomever) got a perfect score on the quiz a piece of candy.

WHY? _____

7. (Who / Whom) should have been the recipient of the Student of the Week?

WHY? _____