Description of Course:

Fifth-grade English Language Arts is aligned with the Pennsylvania State Standards. Students in fifth grade will further develop reading and writing skills introduced in previous grade levels. They will utilize a range of resources, including the Wonders practice book and reading writing companion. Additionally, they will explore various genres of poetry. Additional resources and instructional strategies may be used to ensure all state standards are achieved. Fifth-grade students will learn to identify different text structures and compare them with other forms of writing. They will also be encouraged to make cross-curricular connections. Throughout the year, students will be prompted to make personal connections with the stories they read, fostering a commitment to lifelong learning in the realms of reading and writing.
