

....emotion is like...

1. How does how sensory detail and imagery make a powerful difference in how we experience something?
2. Example poem with a distinct emotion:
3. How is the emotion like the color, texture, sound, movement, temperature, etc. List qualities that reflect the emotion on the board in words and phrases.
5. Write lines on your own for your chosen emotion, using reference to color, sound, or texture that fit that emotion.
5. Use sentences with strong sensory description.
6. Organize your lines so they flow.