

TTSTCANDI Chart

T	Universal Truth: Write an intro paragraph which includes all of the following subjects: naïve individuals, struggle, confusion, and search for meaning and answers.
T	Title: What does it mean as a whole? In parts? What does it hint at? Does it give meaning to the piece? UT?
S	Sentence structure: The author's use of sentence structure. The effect on theme, emotions, piece. Look especially at the first paragraph.
T	Tone: What is/are the tone(s) of the piece? Why? How does it enhance the UT? Are there shifts? Why?
C	Characterization: Who are the characters? What role do they play? Do they represent something deeper (symbol, metaphor)? How are they presented? Nick: Marjorie: Bill:

A	Analogical Language: Symbols, metaphors, similes, allusions. How do they affect the overall piece and the UT? Find two symbols that represent each of the following: naïve individuals: struggle: confusion: search for meaning and answers: the end of something: Other possible symbols or metaphors:
N	Narrative Structure: Type of narrator. How does that affect the piece? Also form of the piece.
D	naïve individuals: struggle: confusion: search for meaning and answers: the end of something:
I	Imagery: Analyze the opening scene:

