

Teachers: This is a good story for working on has/have, don't have / doesn't have + school supply vocabulary.

Bob gets ready for school

His name is Bob.

Bob needs things for school. He has a list.

- 1. Pencil
- 2. Rubber band
- 3. Eraser
- 4. Pen
- 5. Paperclip

Bob needs five things.

He asks his wife, “Do you have a pencil?”

“No, I don’t have a pencil.”

She has rubber bands.

“Thanks!”

Bob asks his friend. “Do you have a pencil?”

“No, I don’t have a pencil.”

His friend has an eraser.

“Thanks!”

He asks his sisters.
“Do you have a pencil?”

“No, we don’t have a pencil.”

They have a pen.

“Thanks!”

Bob asks his brother. “Do you have a pencil?”

“No, I don’t have a pencil.”

His brother has a paperclip.

“Thanks!”

- 1. Pencil
- 2. Rubber band
- 3. Eraser
- 4. Pen
- 5. Paperclip

Bob needs five things. He has four things.

Bob doesn't have a pencil.

Who has a pencil?

“Thank you, Max!”

“Woof!”

What are these?

Questions

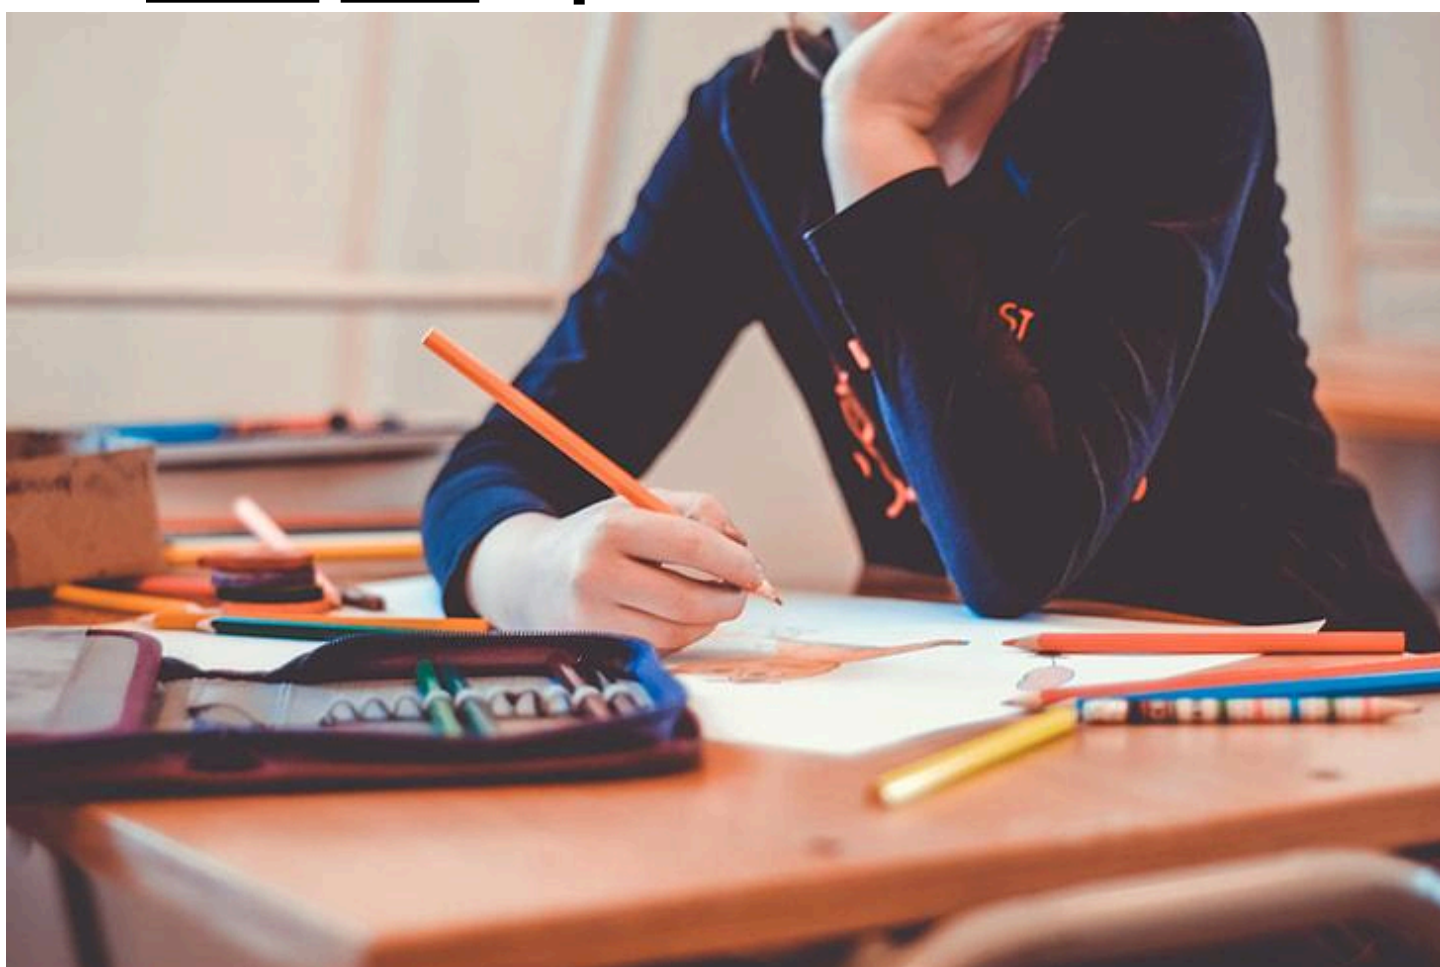

1. What does Bob need?

2. Who has rubber bands?

3. Who has an eraser?

4. Who has a paper clip?

5. Who has a pencil?

School supplies vocab games: Remember, it's not important for them to know what all the multiple choice answers mean, just to be able to pick out the correct one.

- <https://agendaweb.org/exercises/vocabulary/school/objects-1.htm>
- <https://agendaweb.org/exercises/vocabulary/school/multiple-1.htm>