Ord was sitting down his home as he was playing with a bright red toy car as he made car noises with his mouth "Vroom! Vroom!" As the blue pear shaped dragon played there was another toy car nearby out of Ord's view "Hey, I need to find another car! Don't want this one feeling lonely!" Ord gets up as he walks around to search for another toy car for him to play with as his tail sways behind him "now where could it be? I'm sure it's around here somewhere!" Ord looks high and low for his toy but to no avail "Aw, guess I'll just stick with one car for now...." Ord goes over to a seat to sit down as unaware to him that's where the car he was looking for was sitting at as it was facing upwards for some reason "unless there was some way I can shrink to check places I couldn't normally see!" Ord's MASSIVE buttcheeks loomed over the small car as it was like a bug to the dragon's large behind. Ord's butt soon began to lower as a large shadow came over the seat until the dragon's butt sat upon the seat as it creaks and bends under the weight while the car completely vanishes into Ord's tight pink anus never to be seen again....for now "Eep! Ah! S-Something entered m-my butt!" Ord sits back up as he tries digging his clawed finger deep into his tight pucker to try and get whatever was lodged inside back out "Ugh! I-It's too deep inside! There has to be another way!" Ord taps his blue toes on the ground as he thinks until he thought of a solution involving his friends with the help of a certain elderly dragon named Quetzal "I got it! Quetzal will probably know what to do! I can get the others to help me as well!" Ord heads over to Quetzal's class as he was sitting at his desk as Ord was a bit nervous to tell him what happened as he curls his toes nervously "uh, Q-Quetzal? I n-need your help".

"Ah! Hello Ord! What can I help you with?" Ord blushed as it took him a while to gather enough courage to speak "um, w-well I was playing with my toy cars you see and I-I think one got s-stuck in my....b-butt and I can't get it out!" Quetzal chuckled at the dragon's embarrassing situation "hehe, Oh Ord! Didn't I tell you to watch where you place that big butt of yours?" This just made Ord blush even more "S-Sorry Quetzal, can ya help?

Maybe get the others to help too?" Quetzal nods as he explained "Sure Ord! I have just the thing!" He walks Ord to a strange looking device that seemed almost out of place in Dragon Land "Ooooh! What's this thing? It has all these bright blinking lights!" Quetzal happily smiles "That's my shrink ray Ord! We can use this to shrink your friends and they can enter you to get your toy out!" Ord was both nervous and thankful as he just wanted to get his toy out despite the methods "O-Oh, W-Will they be ok in there? I wouldn't want to hurt them!" Quetzal assures Ord that his friends will be ok despite the smells they may experience in there "Good, I'm glad! Let me go get the others then!" Ord heads out to go get Cassie, Zak & Wheezie as he takes them to Quetzal who was reading his shrink ray and there was now a circular mat on the floor which the shrink ray was pointing to. "Oh good! You made it!" Everyone looked at the new device as they awed in wonder, especially Wheezie "Ohhhh! What's this shiny thingamajig do!" Quetzal then had to stop the energetic purple dragon in order to avoid the ray going off by mistake "Careful Wheezie! This shrink ray is very sensitive and could accidentally go off with one wrong move!" Wheezie backed off and apologizes "Oopsie! Hehe, sorry about that!" Zak looked at his sister annoyed "Geez sis! Can't ya keep still for one minute without putting us in danger?" Wheezie simply giggled as she enjoyed annoying her brother Zak sometimes "Now, please step onto this pad on the floor" the three dragons did so as the ray was pointing at them while Ord was told to lay on a large metal table "Ok, is everyone ready? Just give the word and I'll activate the shrink ray! Don't worry, it's completely painless!".

All four dragons spoke in unison "Ready Quetzal!" With that the elder dragon activates the device as the tip began to glow brightly "Ooooooh! Pretty!" Wheezie said as she was almost mesmerized by the bright light as it suddenly fired at them, covering them a bright glow as this seemed to tickle both Wheezie and Cassie but Zak was unfazed as the pink and purple dragons giggled "Hahaha! This tickles!" Zak looked at both of them confused, scratching his head "Really? I don't feel anything!" After a while the ray stopped as smoke surrounded the small group of dragons "What's with all the smoke? *Cough* I hope it goes away soon! *Cough* Don't know how much of it I can take!" The three dragons fanned the smoke away as it finally cleared to reveal three MASSIVE yellow wiggling toes "OMG!! Quetzal's gigantic toesies!!" Wheezie exclaimed as the ground suddenly shook with each tap of Quetzal's GIGANTIC toes on the ground as he suddenly spoke with a booming voice "Great! The shrink ray worked! Don't let my size worry you three, I won't hurt you!". The now shrunken Cassie, Zak & Wheezie could see a large clawed hand reach down for them "Wah! B-Be gentle with us Quetzal! You can easily squish us!" A nervous Cassie said as they all got carefully picked up between the large elder dragon's clawtips and dropped into his open hand while his large planet sized eyes looked back at them "OMG!! Quetzal's planet sized peepers! Haha!" Wheezie playfully joked around as Zak once again grew annoyed "H-Hey! Take this seriously sis! Even though Quetzal is...*gulp*...M-MASSIVE, We must do everything we can to help Ord!" Wheezie giggled as she replied "Oh Zakkie! You gotta learn to have some fun with it and quit being such a party pooper! We don't get a chance to be this itty bitty that often ya know! Cassie knows just HOW FUN being tiny is, don't ya Cassie?" Cassie blushes "Um, I wouldn't put it that way Wheezie, It's quite dangerous to be this tiny! I'm only doing this to help out Ord!".

Quetzal then walked over to the now giant sized Ord laying belly first on the large table while some things between Ord & Quetzal's legs caught Wheezie's eye "Oh.....m-my.....so BIG!!" Wheezie's tail was excitedly wagging as she saw Quetzal's quite large uncut cock and balls dangling between his large thighs as well as Ord's laid out cock on the large table he was laying on, Quetzal's package being much larger than Ord's despite being an elderly dragon as the shrunken purple dragon sniffs the musky scent they both were giving off "Mmmmm, smells.....looooooovely!!" Wheezie exclaimed as Zak looked at her confused "What's up with you sis? Your tail is wagging like crazy and you seem to be smelling the air like someone just baked the world's largest cake!" Zak asked as Wheezie immediately stopped "Oh nothing! Hehe!" She blushed as Quetzal finally spoke "Ok Ord, would you please spread your cheeks apart so I can put your friends Inside you?" With a slight blush, Ord nodded as he spread both his buttcheeks apart as his pink pucker opens up wide as a reaction "Good! Now is everyone ready to enter your friend Ord's butt?" The three tiny dragons all nodded yes as Quetzal began to shove them into the large gaping opening of the blue dragon. "Good luck in there everyone!" Quetzal said as he commands Ord to let his cheeks go "Ok Ord, You may let your cheeks go now!" The blue dragon released his big blue cheeks as they slam shut, sealing the entrance to his pucker shut as they jiggle upon impact "Ooooooh, I can feel them walking inside me!" Ord exclaimed as he admits he actually enjoyed the feeling of his friends walking around the fleshy insides of his rectum "It's quite dark in here! Not to mention quite smelly! Ugh! I sure hope Ord doesn't fart while we're in here!" Inside Ord's anus was extremely hot and quite humid as the air was thick with the smell of bad gas as the walls occasionally clenched together "L-Let's just find Ord's toy so we can get out of here! The stuffy air is making it quite hard to breathe!" Cassie said as the dragons walked along the slightly warm and soft ground "Hehe, it's so fun exploring Ord's moist hot "Cave" Isn't it Zakkie?" Zak rolls his eyes as he sarcastically replied "Yeah, real fun sis!" As the three dragons walked further the smell seems to have gotten much more stronger as they noticed some strange dark substance on the anal walls.

Zak looked down at his hands and smelled them as he immediately cringes "Ugh! This stuff smells even worse than this entire place! I-It can't b-be Ord's....w-waste can it?!"

Zak said nervously as everyone else put two and two together and made the assumption that it was in fact chunks of the blue dragon's waste that were left over from the last time he used the toilet "Phew! I-I'm afraid it is Zak! Better cover your noses everyone, it's only getting smellier from here!" Meanwhile outside, Ord can feel something begin to rumble inside his anal cavity "Oh d-dear, I have to f-fart!" Inside Ord's anus, everyone could only hear muffled words coming from the outside "Huh? Guys I think Ord is trying to tell us something! Wait a minute, what's that noise? It sounds like....GAS!!! Everybody hang on!" The three dragons tried their best to grab onto the pink fleshy walls as they braced for impact *Ppppppppppppppfffffffffffffffffttttttttttt!* A powerful blast of hot smelly air blew past them as they flew through the air while still desperately holding on for dear life to avoid being blown away "Waaaaah! I-it smells horrible! The wind is too s-strong!" Zak exclaimed as he was trying his best to keep his eyes shut to avoid any debris from entering them "Weeeeeeee! I'm flying Zakkie!" Wheezie happily exclaimed as she was just having the time of her life despite the extremely bad smelling air hitting her face. "Wheezie! This is NO time to be having fun!" Zak said as he flaps in the wind like a flag as eventually the strong gust of fart gas dies down at the others stop and try desperately to breathe in any fresh air that could be left "Oh man *Cough* I thought that would *Cough* never end!" Cassie wasn't much of a fan of the even stronger smell lingering in the hot air as she reluctantly had to keep going to help out her friend "At least *Cough* it's over! *Cough* now, let us continue!" Cassie and the others continue walking down Ord's seemingly endless anus as they suddenly felt the ground move beneath them "mmmm, it f-feels so g-good! I c-can't help it!" Ord's anus clenched together as the slight feeling of various dragon feet walking around inside him gave him a burst of pleasure "Wah! Ord careful! You might squish us!" Cassie warned as they all got squished between the warm fleshy walls while also getting covered in Ord's waste "Yuck! Now I'm covered in this stuff! I definitely gotta take a long shower when this is all over to get this horrible smell off my scales!" All the others were covered in dark foul smelling waste as they tried their best to wipe it off them but it only seems to spread it further "Hey guys! Maybe I should go ahead to cover more ground perhaps?" Wheezie suggested as her brother Zak immediately wasn't so sure about this "Are you crazy sis?! You could get lost! There's no telling what lies ahead and considering what we've just experienced so far, I'm pretty sure it's not good!" Wheezie simply laughed "Oh Zakkie, you worry too much! I'll be fine!" Wheezie assured as Zak agreed "Well, ok but be careful ok sis? I don't want anything to happen to you!" Wheezie planted a kiss on Zak's cheeks as he blushes "I will Zakkie!" Zak's sister winks at both him and Cassie as she disappeared into the darkness "I hope she knows what she's doing Zak, this place can be unpredictable!" Zak looks on "I trust her Cassie, while she may be a bit annoying at times I'm sure she can handle whatever this place throws at her, she's too optimistic to be in any REAL danger anyways!".

"Alrighty, now what other fun little things does our buddy Ord have for little old Wheezie?" Wheezie said as she runs her hand along the anal walls while happily humming herself a tune "I hope everything is ok in there guys! Hard to hear you from out here!" Ord's muffled voice can be heard as Wheezie pressed her cheek against the warm anal walls "Mmmm, so warm!" She even licked them a little as the walls clenched together reacting to the licks "hehe, ya like that don't ya Ord?" Wheezie teased as she licked more and more "Ah! W-What are they d-doing in there!" Ord began to leak precum as this feeling was giving him much pleasure while he turns over to show his now fully erect member, Quetzal simply watching on "hehe, no need to worry Ord! Let them have their fun!" Inside Ord's rectum, all the movements and clenching moved Wheezie even deeper into the dragon until she ended up in an entirely new area in a pool of warm yellow liquid "Ooooooh! A pool of warm yellow water? LOOOOOOVE IT!!" Wheezie exclaimed as she playfully splashes around the liquid as it occasionally sloshes around with Ord's movements "Oooooh, I-I think she's in m-my bladder! I can feel her moving around!" Ord's bladder was very full as it seemed he hasn't peed in a long time. "Oh! The strong musky scent must mean this is Ord's bladder!" Quetzal knew what was coming as he was happy to help "Mmm, I-I need to pee so b-badly! C-Can you help me Quetzal?" All of Wheezie's movements gave Ord the sudden urge to pee as she continues having fun in her "pool" completely unaware of what was going to happen "hehe, sure Ord! I'll be happy to help!" The elderly dragon walks over to Ord's erect shaft as he slowly rubs it and feels how thick and hard it was, practically waiting to burst "Mmm....Yes, I'll help you...." Almost like he was under some sort of spell, Quetzal opens his mouth showing his large sharp teeth as Ord was very nervous "W-What are y-you doing Q-Quetzal?" The elder dragon soon began to shove Ord's entire shaft into his hot wet mouth as he savors the taste "Mmmmm! Q-Quetzal! I-I can't hold it in!" Ord finally emptied his entire bladder into Quetzal's mouth as the elder dragon drank every drop of the warm urine "Wah! Hey! Who pulled the plug!" Wheezie could see the pool of urine getting smaller like it was getting sucked through a straw until Ord's bladder was completely empty "Party pooper!" The tiny purple dragon, who was now covered in pee, huffs and began to look around for an exit to find more "fun" areas.

Quetzal drank the last drop of Ord's pee as he finally took his jaws off his cock "Th-Thank you Quetzal!" Quetzal smiles as he shakes his belly around, sloshing around all the pee inside his large stomach "Hehe, Thank YOU Ord!" Inside Ord's balls, Wheezie can see a slight fleshy entrance as it was shut tight but she used her hands to pry it open as she entered it "Oh goodie! Another area for me to play in!" As Wheezie entered, she was covered in very thick white liquid as her head managed to reach to top of a pool of white, creamy and very musky smelling liquid as she was forced to wipe it from her eyes "Phew! It smells very strong in here! What could this stuff be?" Outside some tiny bulges can be seen coming from Ord's large balls as this was getting him erect again "Ooooooh.... I'm getting hard again!" The blue dragon's shaft was now throbbing as it was getting ready for release "Don't worry Ord, I'll help you!" Quetzal offered as he once again wraps his jaws around Ord's member, sucking on it up and down "Ahhhh! Q-Quetzal!" Ord tried resisting but it was impossible with the extreme amount of pleasure he was feeling from Quetzal's sucking as his muscles tensed up until...."Oooooooh!" He finally released his seed into Quetzal's mouth as the other dragon drank it, however that wasn't the only thing that got released into Quetzal's mouth as a certain purple dragon got sucked up as well. "Waaaaaah!" A strong force shot Wheezie out of Ord's balls along with the large pool of cum as they both enter Quetzal's large mouth "Ugh! I'm so sticky! Wait, are those....teeth?!" Wheezie was now trapped inside the elderly dragon's mouth as she can feel the ground beneath her (which was actually Quetzal's large slippery tongue) move and shift as she was being tasted along with the sticky cum "Mmmmm, how tasty!" Wheezie was tossed and turned with Quetzal's large powerful tongue as she was enjoying herself "Hehe, this is fun!" After a while, Quetzal tilted his head back as he swallowed with an audible *GULP!* as a bulge traveled down his throat "Ooooooh! What part of the ride is this? I'm being squished by two fleshy walls!" Quetzal's throat muscles pushed Wheezie down further until she splashed into his large stomach which was filled with a combination of bubbling stomach acid, cum, and quite a bit of urine "Oof! Wow! This is the biggest pool I've ever seen!" Wheezie's eyes widened at the sight of how big the "pool" she landed in was as she can hear loud gurgles and groans as well as see the fleshy walls pulsate and move "Zakkie is sure missing out on all this fun! I wish him and Cassie were here to join me!" Wheezie swam around Quetzal's large acid filled belly as the somewhat soothing sound of his heartbeat can be heard all around.

Quetzal pats his full belly as this caused ripples to spread across the acid from the inside "Mmmm, that was delicious Ord! *BUUUUURRRRPPPP!* Oh my! Excuse me, hehe!" The belly walls vibrate from the inside as this made the air hard to breathe while Wheezie stopped in her tracks "It's getting *pant* hard to *pant* breathe in here! Need some *pant* fresh air!" Wheezie tried searching for an exit as she can see the acids begin to bubble more and more as she can feel a slight tingling feeling on her scales "M-My scales feel funny..." eventually the tingling began to turn into slight pain as Wheezie knew what was happening "I'm getting DIGESTED!?" Wheezie then began to pound on the stomach walls as this just simply caused tiny bulges coming from outside of Quetzal's large round belly as it audibly gurgles and groans while it digests its meal "Ah! It's burning!" Wheezie's scales began to peel off as her inner fleshy layer began to show, quickly getting eaten up by the powerful acids as she began to grow weaker and weaker "Have to...escape...Zakkie..." Wheezie soon fell silent as her body got completely again! *Cough* Need fresh air!" Zak rushed towards the closed pucker as he tried his best to pry it open with his claws "Ugh! Just....a bit more!" Eventually he was able to open it large enough to push his head through and see the outside world "Ahhhh! Finally some fresh air!" Ord felt this as Zak can see a large clawed blue finger approach "No escaping, Zak! Stay inside please!" The green dragon began to get shoved back inside Ord's extremely foul smelling anus "Ord! Wai-mmmpphh!" Both Zak & Cassie were forever trapped inside Ord until he decided to let them out or until he forgets completely about them.
