Strategies for Success for students and parents

1. Students: Read equal amounts of fiction and non-fiction
Parents: Read more non-fiction with your child
2. Students: Learn about the world by reading
Parents: Find books on topics of interest to your child and discuss their ideas
3. Students: Read more challenging material carefully
Parents: Know what is appropriate for your child's reading level, and read more challenging texts together
4. Students: Point to evidence found in the text when discussing what you've read
Parents: Use evidence in everyday conversation and to make a point
5. Students: Write non-fiction using evidence
Parents: Encourage more writing by finding topics of interest your child will want to learn more about
6. Students: Increase your vocabulary
Parents: Read often with your child, and let your child see you reading
